House Mother at Willard Hall

Mrs. Flora M. Smedley

Mrs. Flora M. Smedley is "mother" to the 14 girls who are residing at Willard hall, a residence for self-supporting young women located on the old Brown hall property at South Tenth and Worthington streets. "I know how much a young woman needs the comforts of a home, having raised a daughter myself," said Mrs. Smedley. "The aim of Willard hall is to give girls those things which money cannot buy, namely, kindness, love, sympathy and friendly counsel. There are no iron-clad rules and each young woman is placed on her honor and is expected to do the right thing." The hall is operated under the direction of the Methodist Episcopal church. Rooms with board may be had from $6.50 to $10 per week.

Mrs. Smedley, who comes here from Mt. Vernon, Ia., was secretary to Dr. William Fletcher King, former president of Cornell college.
