Tea.
In order that the many friends of Miss Edith Flickinger of New York might have an opportunity to greet her while she is visiting in Council Bluffs, her mother, Mrs. L. N. Flickinger, and sister, Miss Margaret, gave a most attractive tea on Wednesday last.

The rooms were abloom with summer blossoms gracefully arranged in baskets and bowls, a color scheme of pink and white being used in the dining room. A mound of asters in three shades adorned the tea table, which was presided over by Mrs. Helen Stahl Kuhl of Omaha. Mrs. E. L. Moore, Miss Mignon Maynard and Miss Agnes Wickham. They were assisted in serving by Miss Elizabeth Woodbury, Miss Ruth Cooper and Miss Rosanna Reed.

Mrs. Flickinger was lovely in a gown of gray chiffon; Miss Edith wore a frock of green swiss trimmed with lace and Miss Margaret gave a charming in a broad beige crepe.

Bridge-Luncheon.
Complimentary to Mrs. O. P. Helvie of Valparaiso, Ind., a luncheon of 22 covers was arranged at the Country club last Monday by her cousin, Mrs. Frank Garrett, at whose home she is visiting.

The afternoon diversion was bridge, prizes being awarded Mrs. John P. Organ, Mrs. Oscar Baumeister and Mrs. Helvie.

For Mrs. Hanchett.
Mrs. Robert Turner invited in for luncheon on Wednesday a few friends of Mrs. Mae Hanchett of Chicago, who is visiting at the Dr. A. P. Hanchett home.

Seated at the table with the hostess and honor guest were Mrs. A. P. Hanchett, Mrs. F. E. Pearce of Omaha, Mrs. Eldon Lougee, Mrs. Carleton Woodward and Miss Marian Turner. On Thursday Mrs. Hanchett lunched with Mrs. Eldon Lougee.

Double Foursome.
Mrs. L. G. Berger was a hostess of the week, entertaining eight guests at the Country club on Thursday for luncheon.

Mrs. Bushnell Entertains.
Mrs. Drayton W. Bushnell gave a dinner at her home Tuesday evening when the guests of honor were Miss Elizabeth Morgan of Newton, Ia., who is visiting at the Edward Schoentgen home, and Henry Titus of Riverside, Cal., who spent the forepart of the week with Wilson Douglas, a former college friend at Stanford.

The 12 guests later formed a party at the Country club dance.

To Entertain.
Miss Lillian Price has planned a morning bridge party for Tuesday when the complimented guest will be Mrs. Morgan Cutler of Princeville, Ill.

Bridge-Luncheon.

Mrs. X. W. Kynett received a prize for high score, Mrs. D. E. Baird the consolation prize and Mrs. J. E. Wallace the cut-for-all.

Buffet Luncheon and Bridge.
On Tuesday Miss Elizabeth Douglas invited 20 guests to meet Miss Elizabeth Morgan of Newton, Ia., who is visiting Miss Jane Schoentgen.

A buffet luncheon preceded the game of bridge at which prizes for high scores were awarded Miss Dorothy Hurd and Miss Irene Kintz.

For Out-of-Town Guests.
Miss Edith Flickinger of New York, Miss Lillian Price of Chicago, Mrs. Morgan Cutler of Princeville, Ill., and Miss Laura Matthews of New York were the honored luncheon guests when Mrs. Owen P. Wickham and Miss Agnes Wickham entertained at a Country club on Thursday.

Mrs. Baumeister Entertains.
Mrs. Oscar Baumeister gave a most enjoyable party at the Country club Tuesday when her honor guests were Mrs. Morgan Cutler of Princeville, Ill.; Mrs. C. W. Beck of Moberly, Mo.; Mrs. O. P. Helvie of Valparaiso, Ind., and Mrs. J. T. Lonsdale of University, Va.

Luncheon was served to 33 guests in the cafe and the afternoon was spent with bridge. Mrs. Clarence Emple and Mrs. J. J. Kellier received the prizes and the out-of-town guests were presented with favors.

Small Party at Club.
Two tables of guests were invited to the Country club Monday when Miss Nancy Hillman entertained for Miss Elizabeth Morgan of Newton, Ia., and Mrs. Abbott Dean, a recent bride in the city.

The bridge game was preceded by luncheon.

Party for Tuesday.
A luncheon at the Country club is being arranged for Tuesday by Mrs. Elmer Shugart and Mrs. Walter Stephan.

Guests From Away.
A series of delightfully informal affairs have marked the visits of Mrs. C. W. Beck of Moberly, Mo., who is with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Shugart, and Mrs. John T. Lonsdale of University, Va., the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stephan.

These visitors were present on Monday at the Country club when Mrs. Frank Garrett entertained, and also attended the party given there on Tuesday by Mrs. Oscar Baumeister.

Tuesday evening the Shugarts had two tables of bridge for those guests and Wednesday Mrs. H. A. Quinn entertained them informally at the Brandeis tearoom, followed by a bridge at her home.

On Thursday they were luncheon guests of Mrs. Julius Rosenfeld and

Peach Jam
Peel, remove pits and crush well about 3 lbs. peaches. Measure 4 level cups (2 lbs.) crushed fruit into large kettle. Add 7 1/2 level cups (3 1/4 lbs.) sugar and mix well. Use hottest fire and stir constantly before and while boiling. Boil hard for 1 minute, remove from fire and stir in 1 bottle (scant cup) Certo. Skim and pour quickly.

Note: 20 drops Almond Extract, added after skimming, improve the flavor.

You, too, can have your shelves stocked with delicious jelly

ANYONE who will follow a simple CERTO recipe can make perfect jam or jelly with any kind of fruit. Only one minute's boiling required—no re-boiling, the right consistency the first time. This saves the delicate color and taste of fresh fruit. Since no fruit juice is boiled away, you get one-half more product—so with CERTO cost per jar is less.

Start making jam and jelly now and see how easy it is to fill your shelves. CERTO is the actual "jelly" property of fruit—it contains no gelatin nor preservative.

Sold by grocers everywhere, sent postpaid for 35 cents. Recipe Book of 76 recipes wrapped with very bottle.
