PROBLEMS THAT PERPLEX.

Marriage and Romance.

All of us crave romance. All of us long for adventure.

We dramatize our own emotions and we color life to give zest and excitement when it is mere routine. But romance is fleeting when impelled merely by a sense of adventure. The romance which lasts must have love as its foundation. All of us crave companionship, understanding and devotion. But we want love and the protection it affords. Can we have all of these soul necessities? Can we find all of them in one person? Why not? Marriage means something more than the thrill of a moment. It is something beyond a dramatic gesture. If it is to last it must be built on a real foundation. Why not begin with friendship? Romance need not shake its head sadly at this suggestion and slink away. Friendship cannot thrive save on a basis of liking, understanding, congeniality and mutual respect. A business partnership does not continue unless it possesses the same qualities of faith and good will which keep friendship alive. Is marriage safe on a basis which would not do for a partnership which is merely a business matter? Marriage entails sacrifice, compromise, the wear and tear of everyday life, subservience to routine, working side by side for success and happiness, self-forgetfulness and finally unselfish devotion. Which of these can long continue unless love softens the tasks laid down for husband and wife? Will a man consider his wife before himself unless he loves her? Will a woman put a man's happiness ahead of her own unless she loves him? And can husband and wife find happiness together unless each is intent on the joy of the other?

But a happy marriage is not a matter of routine. It needs romance to interpret its wants, and devotion to tide over its drab and difficult spots. And when romance and understanding and devotion are present—do they not sum up as love itself? Thrills subside. Loveliness is dismissed from memory. Benefits are forgotten. But love is life itself and the incentive to ambition and the consoler for poverty and illness. So marriage becomes a drab, dull thing unless it has the force of love to galvanize it to life. And at the sunset of life, when an old man and woman come to the serenity of age, and the years of their marriage lie behind them, if they can still clasp hands and smile into each other's eyes, finding there youth and dreams and happiness and beautiful memories, it is love which has brought them down the path together. And love was adventure—romance itself. For romance and adventure may be found right at your own fireside, learning to know another soul.

MRS. HICKEY

SO WEAK COULD HARDLY STAND

Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her Health

Worcester, Mass.—"I had some trouble caused by a female weakness and got so run-down and weak from it that I could hardly stand or walk across the floor. The doctor gave me all kinds of pills, but nothing helped me. I happened to meet a friend who had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and she told me to try it. After taking it a week I began to improve, and now I feel fine and am doing all of my household work, including washing, sewing and house cleaning. I have recommended your medicine to my friends, and I am willing for you to use this letter as a testimonial, as I would like to help any one suffering the way I did from such a weakness."—Mrs. DELIA HICKEY, 4 S. Ludlow St., Worcester, Mass.

Boils

HERE is a reason for everything that happens. Common-sense kills misery. Common-sense also stops boils! S. S. S. is the common-sense remedy for boils, because it is built on reason. Scientific authorities admit its power! S. S. S. builds blood-power, it builds red-blood-cells. That is what makes fighting-blood. Fighting-blood destroys impurities. It fights boils! It fights pimples! It fights skin eruptions! It always wins! Mr. V. D. Schaff, 557 15th street, Washington, D. C., writes:

"I tried for years to get relief from a bad case of boils. Everything failed until I took S. S. S. I am now absolutely cured, and it was S. S. S. that did it."

S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.
