

Council Bluffs Society

In favor last week with Council Bluffs hostesses, several of whom assembled their guests for 10 o'clock and at the conclusion of the game served luncheon.

Miss Lillian Price chose Tuesday for a morning party which was given in honor of Mrs. Morgan Cutler of Princeville, Ill. Four tables were placed on the veranda of the Price home and high prizes for the game were awarded Miss Elizabeth Quinn, Mrs. Daniel Sheehan received the cut-for-all. A color scheme of lavender and yellow was used in the artistically planned luncheon which followed.

Another morning party at which Mrs. Cutler was the complimented guest was on Friday when Mrs. R. M. Turner and Mrs. J. A. Clark entertained at the home of the former. On this occasion 32 guests were present and Mrs. John P. Oran made high score. Mrs. H. A. Woodbury received the consolation, Mrs. Oscar Raumeister the cut-for-all and Mrs. Cutler a guest favor.

Miss Beatrice Tinley entertained with a morning bridge on Wednesday, this affair being given at the Country club for 16 guests.

Miss Marian Turner and Mrs. Harry Menold were given prizes for their scores and Mrs. Folsom Everest won in the cut-for-all.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Honored.

Abbott Dean and his bride who have been so extensively entertained during their visit with Mr. Dean's parents, Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Dean, departed Saturday in their car for Boston where they have taken an apartment for the winter, while Mr. Dean is continuing his studies at Harvard Medical college.

On Thursday John Wadsworth

gave a farewell party for them at the Broadway theater which was preceded by a dinner at his home. Seated with the host and honor guests at the table were Misses Elizabeth Woodbury, Rosanna Reed, Berdina Snyder, Herbert Woodbury, Edwin Wadsworth and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Peterson.

Auxiliary Active.

The auxiliary of the American Legion held a very enjoyable picnic at Lake Manawa last Wednesday, and arrangements are being made by this group of women for a fancy dress ball at the Auditorium Hollowe'en.

Affair At The Club.

Mrs. M. E. O'Keefe and Mrs. Frederick Hollingsworth entertained 34 guests at luncheon on Thursday last. The affair was given at the Country club and at bridge during the afternoon Mrs. Elmer Shugart won the prize for high score. Mrs. W. W. Pruner of Omaha received the consolation and Mrs. F. J. Schnorr the cut-for-all.

Guest From Ireland.

Mrs. Will Maurer, Mrs. George Gretzer, Miss Irene Kintz and Miss Ruth Wickham were among the guests at a bridge-tee given in Omaha Wednesday by Miss Byrd Craig, honoring Miss Rita Biggane who arrived Monday from her home in Cork, Ireland, for a visit.

A small luncheon was arranged for Miss Biggane on Saturday by Mrs. Will Maurer and during the week she will be honored with several affairs here and in Omaha.

Miss Hurd a Hostess.

Eight guests lunched with Miss Dorothy Hurd Thursday at her home on Bluff street, the affair being planned for Miss Frances Sears who is visiting in Omaha with Miss Frances Linderholm. Bridge was the afternoon diversion and Miss Emma Ritchie of Omaha had high score.

On Friday Miss Gertrude Hell arrived from St. Louis for a visit at the Hurd home and in her honor Miss Hurd had 30 guests for luncheon on Saturday.

Miss Hurd, Miss Hell, Miss Sears, Miss Linderholm and Miss Ritchie are attending a week-end house party in Carroll and will arrive home in time for the semi-weekly dance at the Country club on Tuesday.

Miss Ellen VanArnum will entertain during the week for Miss Hell and a bridge-tee has been planned in her honor for Friday by Miss Margaret Augustine.

Dinner and Dance.

A dinner of 30 covers was arranged at the Country club Tuesday evening by Dr. and Mrs. M. C. Hennessy for their guests, Mr. and Mrs. William Royce of Chicago and the party later attended the dance.

Delta Gammars Active.

At a luncheon given recently at the Country club, Tau Kappa Chi Alumnae association of Delta Gamma national sorority was formed, the members present being Mesdames Reed Fleckinger, Don Waller, Jack Day, S. B. Prouty, Jean Richards Rader, Misses Constance McManus, Beatrice and Genevieve Tinley, Jennie Rice, Ione Brown, Frances Ouren and Ida Ingalls.

An invitation has been extended by the Red Oak members to a luncheon there on Tuesday and several from here are planning to attend. They will be accompanied by Miss

An Open Letter to Mrs. Jay Burns

Dear Mrs. Burns: Now that you and Mr. Burns have moved from Omaha to Chicago, after more than twenty-five years as customer of The Pantorium, I know of no better way to acknowledge our appreciation than to publish the nice letter you wrote to us when closing your account.

Guy Liggett

THE LETTER

Dear Old Pantorium— Enclosed please find check on the City National Bank of Evanston for the current bill.

This closes our account with your firm after more than a quarter of a century's service, for we have been patrons from the first.

Our family have, so to speak, grown up on Pantorium cleaning and in all this time never an article has been destroyed. Only twice has work had to be redone, and then so willingly was it done and so promptly and satisfactorily done that it made not the slightest inconvenience to us.

For this most excellent service through all these years we wish to thank you, and it is with real regret that we find it necessary to find new service in our new home. We shall miss the feeling of confidence we have so long enjoyed.

With the best of wishes for your continued success and opportunity for larger and better service, I am

Very sincerely yours,
MRS. JAY BURNS.
2428 Ewing Avenue,
Evanston, Ill.
