

Johnson Refuses Political Comment

California Senator Greeted by Father and Friends in Home State.

Sacramento, Cal., Aug. 31.—Greeted by his father and many friends, United States Senator Hiram W. Johnson stopped here for a few minutes today on his way to San Francisco.

Senator Johnson expressed his delight at getting home again, but still refused to discuss politics. He reiterated his previous statements regarding the situation abroad.

In a statement to the Sacramento Bee, the senator branded as a "pure fake" the purported interview with him at Omaha, in which he said he was made to talk of President Coolidge.

"Because of my long absence, and because I deemed the time inopportune, I have refused to discuss politics in any fashion," Senator Johnson declared. "This I have said to all reporters. I have not and will not talk politics until I have conferred with my California friends and met with the men and women who did the great progressive work."

Other days there will be statements and contests and I will be here. Today I'm just home again and very happy."

Senator Johnson spent most of the time while his train stopped here

Cass County Pig Crop Good, Shipper to Omaha Asserts

J. F. Wood of Alvo, who shipped a mixed load of livestock to the Omaha stockyards yesterday, said the pig crop in his section was showing up nicely, with prospects in general looking better than they have for some time.

Mr. Wood has lived in Cass county for 52 years and has been a regular shipper to Omaha since the establishment of the stockyards. He said the wheat crop will be light in his neighborhood, but that the corn will turn out big.
