Wilcox-Hughes Wedding Plans. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Hughes in Des Moines on Wednesday next will occur the marriage of their daughter, Geraldine Ann, and John Franklin Wilcox, Jr., son of Mrs. F. Wilcox of this city.

Several from here are planning to be present at this affair and the following Council Bluffs people are members of the wedding party, Miss Frances Ouren, Forrest Bronson, Eugene Cole and Harold Fair, all of whom motored down last week to attend the prenuptials.

Bridge-Luncheon. A perfectly appointed party was the one on Wednesday at which Mrs. Norman Filbert was hostess. Name cards were placed for 12 at luncheon and the afternoon hours were devoted to bridge, Mrs. Charles R. Hannan Jr., having high score. The cut-for-all was awarded Mrs. Adam Hess.

California Visitor Honored. Miss June Davis was a dinner hostess of the week just past, entertaining 12 at the Omaha Athletic club on Saturday evening complimentary to Edward Farmer of Alhambra, Cal., who is visiting Wilson Douglas.

Ross Party En Route Home. Miss Anna Ross and the party of Americans she has been conducting through Europe since June sailed from Liverpool for Montreal Friday August 24.

Dances. In addition to the regular Tuesday and Friday dances at the Country club the members of the Omega Eta Tau fraternity were hosts there at a very enjoyable party last Monday which was attended by about 53 couples.

Students Departing. To the students of Council Bluffs as well as elsewhere, September and school days are synonymous, and with the dawning of this, first month of autumn many of our charming girls will be leaving for the various institutions of learning throughout the country.

Jane Schoengen will return as a senior this month to St. Katherine's in Davenport and Elizabeth Douglas will again attend Mrs. Pratt's school of individual instruction.

Elizabeth Woodbury who was graduated in May from Ward-Belmont and June Davis who completed her studies at Marlborough in June, will both remain in Council Bluffs this winter, but Miss Davis plans to devote a great deal of time to the study of French and music.

The list of students at the State university last year will be augmented by several more from here, among whom are Marjorie Annis who was graduated in June from Ferry Hall, Dorothy Hurd who recently received her diploma at National Park secondary and Gretchen Kemple, a June graduate at the National Kindergarten school. Others who are returning to Iowa this year are Patricia Tinley, Frances Ouren and Helen Wesner.

Katherine Capell left Saturday to visit school friends in California before re-entering Stanford university. Mary Louise Tinley goes about the middle of the month to continue her studies at Trinity college, Washington, D. C. and another Council Bluffs girl who will be in Washington is Ellen Van Arnum who plans to enter National Park secondary.

Returning to DePaul university this week will be Elizabeth Brington, Katherine McMillen and Helena Mitchell, and at that institution will also be Caroline Theinhardt who was a member of the 1223 graduation class at the Abraham Lincoln high school.

Rose Ann Reed who was the only Council Bluffs girl at the University of Pennsylvania last year, will be joined there the middle of September by Esther Pusey and Inez Peregoy who will be the only girl from here at Western Reserve college in Cleveland. She formerly went to Lincoln.

Doris Ross is returning again to Lindenwood at St. Charles, Mo., and at Stevens in Columbia will be Katherine Underwood.

Attending Ames, Grinnell and the universities of Illinois and Nebraska will be Katherine Beardsley, Eleanor Peregoy, Eleanor Gruver and Mary Elizabeth Innes.

Margaret Augustine is undecided about her plans but will probably continue her studies at Brownell hall.

Mrs. Rounds a Hostess. One of the most artistic of the late summer parties was the one at the Country club Monday when Mrs. Garland Rounds entertained 28 guests honoring Mrs. Roland Wilson whose friendship she formed several years ago.

Visits Classmate

Miss Stevia Green. Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Metzger had as their guest last week Miss Stevia Green of Osceola, Mo., who plans to return to Council Bluffs again later in the autumn for a stay of several weeks.

Mr. Metzger and Miss Green were classmates at Monticello seminary several years ago.

When Mr. and Mrs. Rounds were living in Panama. This visitor made a brief visit last week in Council Bluffs and Omaha.

Baskets of garden flowers were generously used in the decorative scheme of the tables, and at bridge which followed the luncheon, the prize winners were Mrs. W. S. Rigdon, Mrs. Folsom Everest, Mrs. Howard Butler and the honor guest.

Affair in Omaha. Miss Frances Linderholm of Omaha gave a luncheon Wednesday at the Happy Hollow club, when the honored guest was Miss Gertrude Hell of St. Louis, who has been visiting Miss Dorothy Hurd.

Mrs. Cutler Entertains. As a compliment to Miss Lillian Price who leaves Tuesday for Chicago, Mrs. Morgan Cutler who is returning this week to her home in Princeton, Ill., and Mrs. Helen Quayle who stopped off in Council Bluffs from Tuesday until Saturday en route from La Porte, Ind., to her home in Pasadena, Mrs. Lewis Cutler entertained at a very enjoyable party on Tuesday.

Luncheon was served in the blue room of the Grand hotel to 30 guests, who later went to Mrs. Cutler's home for a game of bridge at which Mrs. F. T. Seybert had high score. Mrs. Elmer Ryan won the cut-for-all.

Evening Bridge. Four tables of guests were present at an evening bridge over which Miss Attenbry presided last Wednesday. High score prizes were awarded Miss Norma Tyler and John Winn and the consolation was drawn by Miss Dorothy Hall and Carrol Anderson.

John Wegner of Lake Villa, Ill., was an out-of-town guest present on this occasion.

Event to Come. Miss Mary Louise Tinley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Tinley, will entertain at her home Monday evening, complimentary to Miss Viola Allis and Harold Hughes, whose engagement was recently announced.

Affairs at McManus Home. Miss Faith McManus was a hostess of the week, entertaining on two occasions at her home on Ridge Lawn.

Friday afternoon 22 guests were present for a bridge tea and a group of the younger set met for a bridge game there at Saturday evening.

Miss McDaniels Entertains. Complimenting Miss Viola Allis, who is to be an autumn bride, and Mrs. D. P. McDaniels, who was recently married, two bridegrooms were presided over last week by Miss Doris McDaniels.

On Monday seven tables of guests were present and the high score and cut-for-all prizes were awarded Miss Elizabeth Douglas and Miss Charlotte Zuerchleu respectively.

Prize winners at the affair on Wednesday were Miss Dorothy Leon and Miss Hazel May Larsen.

Miss McDaniels departed on Saturday for her mother for Brownville, Tex., and on Wednesday evening the Shln-Ayn club, of which she is a member, presented her with a lovely gift at a dinner given at the home of Miss Helen Wilson.

Invitations Issued. Mrs. A. V. Henney and Mrs. C. H. Henney have sent out cards for bridge-luncheons on Wednesday and Thursday of this week at the Country club.

Dinners Are Popular. Several people are taking advantage of the last few opportunities to entertain at the Country club and during the past week some lovely dinners were given there.

Before the dance on Tuesday night Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bealey had a reservation for 16 and Miss June Davis entertained six.

Before the dance on Friday night Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Turner and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stephan honored Mrs. Stephan's niece, Mrs. John T. Lonsdale of University, Va., with a dinner of 29 covers, and many other less formal parties were held at the club on those evenings.
