

The Wolf Cubs in Camp

The Wolf Cubs is a new Boy Scout organization for boys between 8 and 12 years. During the summer months the boys spent each week-end in camp in the Florence Woods.

ALL PHOTOS BY GATCHELL

One of the largest dining rooms in Douglas county. One the left, reading from front to rear: Drexel Baum, Billy Liggett, Silas Barton, Jean Jansen, John Dresler. On the right, reading from front to rear: Jerry Swartz, Jack Farrell, Jack Pruyn, Jack Douglas, Paul Havens.

Good morning! Are your ears clean?

"One Star" club receiving camp awards for tests passed.

At the camp fire. The "grand salute" at the end of the "howl."

"Our trek cart goes rolling along."

General view of the Wolf Cubs' camp, showing arrangements of pup tents in which the boys sleep.