IF SOME OF, THE NEIGHBORS DON'T TELL, SHELL NEVER KNOW I OID THE DECORATING! HAD A FIRE ! HE'HE! SHE'LL BE SURPRISED ! Bright Lights of Broadway

New York and the bright lights of Broadway are calling! Alyce McCormick, Nebraska beauty winner, who won a leading role in the chorus of two Shubert shows in New York last season, because of her beauty and charm, is listening, very attentively. On the other hand, she has tasted success in business. For the last three weeks she has been employed by the M. E. Smith company, meeting the trade, selling and modeling. In this, her latest occupation, she has met with decided success, according to those who work with her. Her sales have been many and she proved quite a "hit" at the style show conducted by the M. E. Smith company during the recent Merchants' Market week. Shall it be the bright footlights of the stage, name studded in glaring bulbs over theater entrances, beautiful stage clothes and the fascination of actress life? Or shall it be dignified clothes, off.

Flappers Due to Live Lesser They Wear Longer They'll Flap For Century and Half

Chicago, Sept. 2. -- Unwittingly. flappers are on the right road to live to be 150 years old. They are living closer to nature in some respects and with a little moderation and more sleep-until they are 35they will turn the century mark hale and hearty.

The good news came from Dr. F W. Collins, dean of the United States School of Naturopathy, in his address before the convention of the American Naturopathic association. Flappers, Dr. Collins said, in discarding what he termed superfluous clothing, are adding a decade to their lives with every garment they leave

Eve and Adam would have lived even longer than they did had they not adopted the fig leaf garb and begun eating a complicated diet, Dr.

Collins declared. "By following the laws of nature one may easily live to be 100 or even
