Stickup Man Operates Seventeenth and

Harney Is Scene on Crowded Street

Sunday night crowds were swirling about the corner of Seventeenth and Harney streets, and purring motors were filling the air with the scent of burning gasoline at about 9:30 Sunday night, when an affable stranger stepped up to J. Haney of Sioux City, thrust a re-volver in his stomach and said, "Put 'em up."

Haney did. "Not so high, not so high," warned the gunman. "Just easy like, you know."

Then he backed Haney into a doorway and took $78 in bills and $2 in silver from his pockets. While this operation was in progress, the highwayman continued to smile in the most pleasing manner imaginable, according to the victim's story to police, and when it was completed said, "I'm gone," and saumtered off, pocketing his pistol. At the corner, he broke and ran. Haney was so dazed he neglected to report the matter to police.

About midnight he appeared at the station and told his story. He was given lodging for the night in a Start right now and let The Omaha Bee Classified Ads help tide you over the hard times.

Burglars Get Clothing and Shoes at Barneston

Barneston, Neb., Sept. 3 .- The general store of J. D. de Lair, at Oketo, Kan., just over the line south of here, was burglarized and shoes and clothing to the amount of several hundred iollars carried off. Entrance was gained by breaking a rear window. Escape was effected by auto truck. It is thought that the thieves were frightened away before completing the job, as nothing in the grocery department nor the cash till had been tampered with.

Vigorous Old Age

W age with a deep and ever-widening abyss?

The bloom of youth and the hardy, ruddy glow of Old Age-sixteen and sixty-should be separated only by the span of years and not by varying differences of physical wholesomeness.

Vigorous old age is within the grasp of all. S. S. S. brings that haie and hearty feeling back with a rush. Rich red blood is the greatest enemy of weakening, health un-dermining Old Age. S. S. S. builds Red Blood Cells. Rich, red blood coursing through your veins sweeps away impurities that retard the proper functioning of your system. Old Age—once a dreaded agony becomes a vigorous, enjoyable, care free time of life. S. S. S. is made of carefully se-lected herbs and barks—scientifically prepared and proportioned. Welcome Old Age when it comes. Be ready to withstand the attacks of diseases that follow in its wake. Meet Old Age with a hearty handshake. A handshake that speaks of well being—of a vigorous, clear thinking, red blooded constitution. S. S. S. is your best friend when Old Age is seen rounding the corner. Get a bottle and drive care and worry away. All leading drug stores carry it. The large size is the more economical. 5.5.5 Makes You Feel
