sen in Tokio.

Arthur Jorgensen, a secretary of the Y. M. C. A. in Tokio, is one of the Omahans believed to be in the stricken district. Mr. Jorgensen is a graduate of Nebraska university of the class of 1909.

Mrs. J. R. Scobie, Miss Jessie Millard and Mrs. Barton of Omaha are touring Japan at the present time, but are believed to be in Nikko, which is not in the earthquake area. The party is to sail from Kobe, Japan, next Tuesday on the Empress of Canada to China and then homeward, according to word received by Mr. Scobie and his daughter, Mrs. Alan McDonald.

Fear is entertained for the safety of Judge Charles Lobingier and his wife, both of whom are former Omahans. Judge Lobingier was former ly a lawyer in Omaha, but he and his wife have been living in Japan for over 17 years. Judge Lobingier is connected with the United States court in China.

T. L. Marshall of Omaha is anxiously awaiting some word from his sister, Mrs. T. H. Amrine, who with her husband, is believed to be in Yokohama. Mr. Amrine is general manager of the Tokio Electric company. Their residence was on may have escaped the effects of the left Omaha 12 years ago.

It's a far cry from Omaha to the appermost peaks of the Andes-but that's the trail over which an Omaha girl was led by a little silver loving cup, a trail that in seven years time wound its way through a thousand cities before it finally brought her back home.

Nine years ago, in the spring of 1914. Miss Helen Kroner with her partner, Harry Walker, was awarded a silver loving cup by Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Castle, then making a tour of the country, and pronounced the best dancer in Omaha.

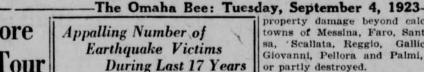

It wasn't much of a loving cup as loving cups go, its value in dollars and cents, perhaps, was insignificant, but it marked a turning point in Miss Kroner's life. She decided that she would become a professional dancer and attempt to make a name for herself on the stage. Two years later she went to New York. And there started the long, long trail of the little loving cup. It took Miss Kroner to South America, where for a year and a half she toured every country and then remained another six months as solo dancer at the National theater in Buenos Aires. It took her across the Andes mountains on a mule, in the dead of winter, because the railroad between Chile and Argentina was unable to operate as a result of mouna high bluff and it is believed they tain storms. It took her to Cuba, Porto Rico, Panama and several Cenearthquake. Mr. and Mrs. Amrine tral American countries, then finally cluding "Katinka." back to the United States and Canada.
