TRAVELING BAG SAVES GIRL'S LIFE

Car Overturned and School Teacher Narrowly Escapes Death-Others Injured.

A traveling bag which became wedged between her body and the steering wheel of her automobile is said to have aved the life of Miss Lottle Koop, teacher at the Saunders school, when her automobile was overturned west of Millard on the D. L. D. highway last night.

Miss Koop was returning to Omaha from Louisville. A speeding automo-bile passed her on a steep hill and struck her sedan in such a manner that it threw the machine into a deep ditch. The speeding car did not stop Witnesses estimated that it was traveling 50 miles an hour.

vain. Witnesses were indignant and threats of lynching were made had the speeder been overtaken. Arthur Thomas of Stroud & Co.,

who witnessed the accident, hurried to the scene and aided by other motorists succeeded in removing the car from Miss Koop, who was wedged in by a traveling bag which had jammed between her and the steering wheel. Her brother, Harvey Koop, assistant eashier of the Home Savings bank of Louisville, was thrown clear of the car. Miss Gertrude Phelps of Louis-
