1,500 Omahans Plan to Attend Nebraska Fair

Chamber of Commerce and Ak-Sar-Ben to Provide Insignia to Identify Gate City Visitors.

Over 1,500 autoists are expected to crowd the roads from Omaha to Lincoln on Omaha day at the Nebraska state fair, Thursday.

Special parking space on the fair grounds has been reserved for Omaha cars. F. C. Zehrung, mayor of Lincoln, has issued a special invitation to Omahans to attend.

The bureau of publicity of the Chamber of Commerce, in conjunction with Ak-Sar-Ben, is endeavoring to build up a large Omaha attendance. It is furnishing Omaha hat bands for all persons attending on Omaha day, in order that Lincolnites may see that Omaha is well represented. Ak-Sar-Ben is providing banners for all automobiles going to Lincoln on Omaha day.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Leonard motored to the fair Monday morning, returning yesterday. They reported the D. L. D. road to Lincoln is in fine shape in spite of a detour where the road is being graveled. They said they made the run to Lincoln in two and a half hours and returned in two hours and 10 minutes.

"The exhibits are the same as usual and are good. The night shows are the best I ever saw," said Mr. Leonard.

Sheldon Hi-Y Camp Closes Summer Work

The most successful Hi-Y camp ever held was concluded Monday night at Camp Sheldon, with the award of individual and cottage honors.

Blackbird Cottage, George H. Benedict, leader, was named honor cottage and eight men were selected as honor men, the highest award made at camp. Boys given the Omaha Hi-Y honor monograms included T. A. Anderson, Hawthorne Arey, Joe Dreeds, Mike Drakulich, Vinton Lawson, Dan Myers, Martin Swanson and Carl Snavely.

In addition to his honor monogram, Swanson won the athletic championship of the camp. Swanson is Technical High school football captain. The aquatic champion's penant went to Vinton Lawson, athlete of Central High school and vice president of Hi-Y.

Included in the three-day program of the camp were addresses by the Rev. Paul Calhoun, L. C. Oberlies of Lincoln, W. W. Shaver, new state Y. M. C. A. secretary, and Dr. J. P. Poucher.

J. H. Beveridge, E. E. McMillan, J. G. Masters, R. M. Myers, and Frank H. Gulgard were among the visitors to the camp, which was attended by 65 boys and leaders.

Nine persons charged with speeding were sent to jail for seven days each. They were Ed Reiter, 2446 South Twentieth street; S. Mojgard, rural route No. 7; Benson; Arthur Jensen, 2119 Elm street; L. "Well, now, you just listen to me," the judge advised. "You don't need to pay any fine at all. You'll go to jail for 60 days.'

Tony went.

Police Head Orders Carey Ford Removed

Police Commissioner Dan Butler yesterday morning instructed chief of police Dillon to withdraw Carey Ford, investigator in the pay of the police department, from the county attorney's office at the end of the week.

Butler said he did not know to what new duty Ford would be assigned.

The withdrawal came as the result of an attack on the police department by County Attorney Beal, in which he alleged that city detectives were lax in rounding up evidence.

City Commissioner Henry Dunn introduced a resolution in the city commission yesterday morning asking the transfer of the municipal coal yard from his department to that of the mayor. The resolution was referred to the committee of the whole which meets Monday.
