

Funds to Assist Japanese Reach $3,000,000 Mark

Nation's Quota in Red Cross Relief Drive Over Half Raised—War Department Aids.

Washington, Sept. 8.—Subscriptions to the American Red Cross Japanese relief fund passed the $3,000,000 mark today and officials of the national organization expressed confidence that the minimum goal of $5,000,000 would be passed early next week.

Figures by districts as reported to the national headquarters are: Washington, $1,840,000; New England, $150,000; southern, $24,000; central, $567,000; southwestern, $200,000; Pacific, $162,000; insular and foreign, $150,000. Total, $3,134,000.

"The American people apparently are aware of the heavy toll taken by the disaster in Japan," said John Barton Payne, chairman of the Red Cross.

Announcement was made that the War department had opened its resources to the Red Cross. Orders were forwarded to the quartermaster at San Francisco to turn over to the Red Cross representative at that port $100,000 of underwear. These will leave for Japan Monday. An additional assignment of army clothing will be shipped from St. Louis.

Pershing Says U. S. Holds Peace Key

Speaks at Dedication of Memorial to Founder of Family.

Latrobe, Pa., Sept. 8.—America can best encourage peace among the nations "by giving to the world new proofs of our own stability," Gen. John J. Pershing declared today in an address at the dedication of a monument to the memory of Frederick Pershing, founder of the family. The dedication was a feature of the annual reunion of the Pershing family.

General Pershing detailed the growth of America through "successive waves of immigration" and declared "the maintenance of high standards is more urgent than ever."

"We must zealously guard America against becoming an asylum for the criminal or pauper classes from abroad," he asserted, "or a retreat for the irresponsible proponents of intrigue or destruction."

"We bear no ill-will against peoples from other lands, but we must admit only those who, like our great ancestor, fully appreciate and accept the fine spirit of America and what it stands for."

"Vanities" Pleases at Gayety Theater

Another of Barney Gerard's successes, entitled "Vanities," is the offering at the Gayety theater, opening the week yesterday afternoon to a packed house. The principal comedy role was essayed by Joe Marks.

Unnumbered tuneful songs and peppy dances are among the features and include the singing of "Don't Stop Playing It," by Elsie Matthews and chorus; "The Paper Girl," by Mae Leonard and Walter Johnson, a special feature being the introduction of paper costumes; "I Can Tell Where They're From When They Start to Dance," by Harry Kelly, Elsie Mavon, May Leonard and chorus.

Joe Marks is a comedian of the refreshing burlesque type.

The cellar should be whitewashed at least once a year, not only for cleanliness and appearance, but for disinfecting purposes as well.

Appeal to Bryan to Oust Official

Lincoln County Citizens Seek Removal of Commissioner Under Indictment.

Lincoln, Sept. 8.—Citizens of North Platte, Lincoln county, today asked Governor Bryan to take action, if he has authority to do so, to suspend County Commissioner T. M. Cohagen of that county. The same request has been presented to Attorney General Spillman.

Commissioner Cohagen, it is alleged, is under indictment for appropriating $900 of county funds. Five counts are included in the indictment. It is charged that warrants were drawn upon claims which had not been allowed and it is contended Commissioner Cohagen is guilty of failure to enforce a law and is therefore subject to suspension.

In connection with the complaint it is alleged citizens of the county interested in its affairs ask the suspension, if there is a legal way to do it, so he would be debarred from participating in the selection of 60 names of persons summoned to serve on a jury which it is expected will hear the case of former County Treasurer S. M. Souder, also under indictment in connection with alleged misappropriation of county funds.

County Treasurer Souder's indictment followed the burning of the Lincoln county courthouse by what it was charged by officials was an incendiary fire. A new complaint was recently made against Mr. Souder, that of disposing in another state of coupons said to have been detached from bonds owned by the county which disappeared when the courthouse was burned.

Begin Fall Sewing Week

"Just what's the idea of this Fall Sewing Week, anyway," said the bored brunette to whom I sometimes confide my budding enthusiasms over the morning coffee cups. Well, it's a sort of propaganda against procrastination, I explained. Eventually fall sewing must be done, so why not now when new things are popping out of every box in the store and beautiful fabrics make beguiling promises of smart fall clothes to every woman who sews. Let me tell you about some of them:

Growing Under Glass

In the Trimming Section are glistening flowers that rival Mr. Burbank's most exotic blooms. A spray of them fastened a bit to the left at the waistline of a simple silk frock, instantly makes anything more seem superfluous. Beaded motifs in rich Oriental hues further spread the notion that fall sewing is really very easy when they are the only ornaments needed for a dignified cloth dress.

After the Ball

Wouldn't it be thrilling to see your gown described in the paper the morning after the Ak-Sar-Ben ball some thing like this: "A scintillating frock of rhinestone-studded orchid chiffon was worn by Mrs. Burkle-Smith." Then why not ask to see the different evening shades of this new material in the Trimming Section?

A Tip in Silks

Earthquakes in Japan caused the raw silk market to cavort about this week, but the demand for Satin Cantons in our Silk Section holds firm. That it is a satin season is no longer a matter of speculation and obviously when a rich satin surface is added to the many virtues of Canton Crepe, Satin Canton becomes a gilt-edge investment for fall frocks. It will be most used in black, but other daytime colors are lovely, too, $3.75 a yard.

"Supposin' With Apologies to Field

Supposin' you came down to Thompson-Belden's Monday morning to see if the new things really are as lovely as they say they are in the ads. Supposin' they were. But you said to Mrs. Minnikus in the Trimming Section, "I'm just wild for a black satin dress with one of those rhinestone ornaments sparkling on it, but I can't make it myself." Then she'll say, "Why we can tell you of a good dressmaker, one who will come to the house and sew or an experienced modiste to whom you can trust your best dress." Such a list has been prepared for the benefit of our customers. Supposin' you try it!
