It is quite the usual thing for Nebraskans to admire California's flowers, but more a case for comment is it when California visitors praise a middle western rose bed. Here are Mrs. Edward Updike and her guests, Mrs. Peter Holmes Updike and daughter, Miss Marjorie, of Los Angeles. They have just taken a turn around their hostess' lawn and gardens and cheerfully admit that though California flowers are more abundant, they are not more beautiful than our own. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Updike have one of the most beautiful rose gardens in Omaha and their inner hedge of larkspur, asters, balsam, cosmos and gladioli, is a gorgeous sight now in its flamboyant September bloom.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Updike formerly resided in Omaha, Mr. Updike being the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Updike and the brother of Messrs. Nelson B. and Robert Updike of this city. Miss Marjorie is a student at the University of Southern California.

Familial affairs have filled the social calendar of the visitors during the last week. During the coming week, Mrs. Byron Smith will honor them with a luncheon at the Field club. Mrs. Fred Metz will be a luncheon hostess at the Country club Wednesday and that evening Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dempsey will give a dinner party for them at Happy Hollow.

Palmer apartments upon their return.
