Chairman of Casino for "A Night in Paris."

Mrs. Barney Dugan, BOSTWICK PHOTO

Assisting in the Women's Overseas Service League armistice eve entertainment, "A Night in Paris," is Mrs. Barney Dugan, formerly Miss Josephine Neary. Unless plans "gang aft agley" this mammoth and unique fete at the city auditorium will be a memorable one in city annals. The "soldier girls" know how to organize, their plans already being very definitely made. They are not afraid to tackle a huge enterprise and their motives are the same unselfish ones which took them across an ocean to help win the war.

Mrs. Dugan was one of the famous Neary sisters. There were four of them, all nurses, two of whom served overseas. Miss Agnes Neary, who served with Dr. Grayson Murphy of Chicago, distinguished American medical officer, received four citations from different governments. Mrs. Dugan was in charge of the officers' division of a convalescent hospital on the Mediterranean in the south of France.

She will have charge of the casino at the auditorium, Nov. 9 and 10.

Speaker at Women Voters' Convention

Mrs. Nancy Schoonmaker of New York, prominent woman and suffragist, will be one of the principal speakers at the meeting of the Nebraska League of Women Voters to be held at Aurora, October 5. Her subject will be "The World Court."

Mrs. Nancy M. Schoonmaker.

Mrs. Schoonmaker recently made a tour of Europe, studying the legislation which the newly enfranchised women of the various countries have been supporting. The tour was made under the auspices of the National League of Women Voters and the General Federation of Women's Clubs. It included the Scandinavian countries, Switzerland, Germany, France, Czechoslovakia and England.

Mrs. Schoonmaker came personally into contact with many of the more prominent women now serving in the national parliaments, and has brought back material of vital interest to every local club and league of the national organizations which she represented.

Mrs. Schoonmaker addressed the Nebraska league two years ago in Lincoln.

I have heard that baked potatoes are delicious if rolled in salt before baking. The salt permeates the potatoes while baking and gives them a much better flavor.

Gleanings from Federation News

(Condensation of the August-September magazine published by the press and publicity department of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.)

More than 40,000 visitors in two weeks' time visited the model home built by the general federation in Washington in celebration of Better Homes week. The temporary building may be made permanent in response to a demand for it. Plans for the house are available through the bureau of information of national better homes committee, 233 Spring street, New York City. Mrs. William Browne Meloney, secretary. Cost, $2.

The house can be built for $14,000 or less. It has living room 28 feet long, kitchen, breakfast room, dining room and hall downstairs; upstairs are hall, nursery, bedroom, children's room, guest room, two baths and a linen closet. Library books were selected from list submitted by Mrs. Rose V. S. Berry, federation of fine arts chairman, and musical equipment by Mrs. Max Oberndorfer, federation chairman of music.

Elizabeth O'Toombs, vice chairman of press and publicity, and professional writer for Good Housekeeping and other magazines, prominent member of the Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs, died last June.

Mrs. Wallace T. Perham of Glendive, Mont., will be proposed for the office of president of the general

Federation at Los Angeles biennial in June, 1924.

Favorable recommendation has been made on a plan to launch a campaign for a $5,000,000 endowment fund for the federation.

Nebraska has pledged $1,525.50 to the federation headquarters fund, and has paid $529.30.

"Our federation problems are not women's problems, nor men's problems, but humanity's problems," says Mrs. Edgard H. Penney, president of the Nebraska Federation of Women's Clubs, whose object is to organize in every town and community a woman's club with an open door and with members studying citizenship, community service, child welfare, public welfare and the laws and legislation affecting the community, state, nation and the relations with other nations.

A Clean Bathroom. There is nothing that is quite so damaging to the housekeeper as a poorly kept bathroom. It should be washed always with diluted disinfectant and at least once a week disinfectant should be poured down the pipes. The bathroom is one place where one's work and care can show very plainly.
