Curtain Rises on Ak-Sar-Ben Running and Sulky Meeting This Afternoon

King Ak Offers Royal Sport to Lovers of Turf

Three Racing and Trotting Races, and Three for Runners on Program for Today's Meet.

By GEORGE W. SCHILLING.

All roads will lead to the Ak-Sar-Ben field this afternoon, where the fall harness and running race meeting will be ushered in to continue for a period of 17 days.

The program for this afternoon is a most promising one. Some of the best trotters in the land will vie for honors in the three feature races that have been arranged for these sulky stars. The runners will parade after the harness events have been decided. The fields in the two sprint events are large ones and picking a winner appears to be an arduous task. There is contention galore in all of the races and the ones that happen to be on the successful horses should indeed consider themselves lucky. oHwever the card promises racing of metropolitan flavor and some stirring finishes should be the result of each and every contest.

In the initial event, the 2:05 pace, those who have a knowledge of the side-wheelers have a hankering to support Peter Daphne to cop the spoils. Driver Shively will handle the ribbons and this gentleman of the sulky knows his stuff when it comes to steering in a winner. He should find his main opposition in Julia M. Direct who, with Marvin Childs sitting directly behind her tail, figures a keen contender. Of the others entered to "take the word" Lady May C looks the best.

Belmar 2:17 Trot Favorite.

If one listens to the men that "massage" the sulky steeds the 2:17 trot appears to be all over but the shouting. It is hard to find one "in on the know" that likes anything to take this event except Belmar. According to them Belmar is "picking 'em up and laying 'em down" of a morning in a manner which signifies that the mare is in extra fine fettle. Marvin Childs, who will cock his legs up behind Gold King, promises to give Belmar a merry tustle for the long end of the purse when he calls on his charge for the supreme effrt.o Marguerite C is well liked by her stable connections and should take some part of the spoils.

The third event which is the 2:17 pace appears to be a toss-up between Maud C, Bell edo, Betty Lou and Larkspur. The railbirds report Maud C to be going along in a manner which promises an early victory, and such being the case I am going to string T. E. Mann of Spencer of Spencer (Ia.), who will occupy the seat in the sulky. Take your pick of the others, it's too tough for me to select.

Jones Sets New Pitching Record; Yanks Win Again

Went 16 2-3 Innings Without Yielding Hit—Ruth Hits Homer and Ties With Williams.

New York, Sept. 10.—The New York Yankees made it three straight from Boston, winning easily today, 8 to 1. Sam Jones, who pitched a no-hit game against Philadelphia last week, nearly duplicated this feat today. He did not yield a hit until Burns singled, with one out, in the seventh. Mitchell made the only other Boston hit, a triple in the ninth. Including a game on August 31 with Washington, Jones went six 2-3 innings without yielding a hit, which is believed to be a record. Ruth again tied William for the home run honors when he hit his 35th home run. Score:

Irish to Sign Terms Which Will Bring Papyrus to U. S.

By JOHN T. BURKE,
Universal Service Staff Correspondent.

London, Sept. 9.—Ben Irish has announced that all the terms and arrangements for the race between his Epsom derby winner, Papyrus, and America's best 3-year-old have been completed and that the contract will be signed at Doncaster next Tuesday before Papyrus starts in the St. Leger.

He added: "Papyrus will start for New York, accompanied by his trainer, Besiel Jarvis, on Saturday, September 22, aboard the Aquitania. Steve Donoghue, greatest jockey in Great Britain, and myself and friends will leave for America a few days later on the Olympic—at least I hope to go, but I first must obtain my doctor's permission. My health has not been of the best.

"I am perfectly satisfied with the terms, and understand all food and water difficulties have been overcome."

The terms provide the winner shall receive $80,000 and the loser $20,000, and among other things, also stipulates the American entry shall be named 14 days before the race.

Christopher J. Fitzgerald of New York, representing Maj. August Belmont, who is promoting the race, said:

"The race will take place on October 20 at Belmont Park, N. Y., the finest dirt track in the United States. Papyrus' preliminary training in the United States will include schooling at the starting gate, which is a different type from the English gate."

Many bets have already been made in London that Papyrus will win the race.

Murphy Gets Third Place in Grand Prix

By Associated Press.

Monta, Italy, Sept. 9.—Salamano, an Italian driver, today won the Grand Prix automobile race. Felice Nazzaro was second and Jimmy Murphy, United States, was third.

Salamano's time was 5 hours 27 minutes 38 seconds. That of Nazzaro was 5 hours 28 minutes 2 seconds and that of Murphy 5 hours 32 minutes 51 seconds.

Premier Mussolini started the 14 machines in the race in the presence of a quarter of a million spectators.

Salamano and Nazzaro drove Fiat cars and Murphy a Miller.

Bordino, piloting a Fiat, took the lead immediately the pistol sent the racers away. At the half way mark six of the drivers had been forced off the track, leaving eight still competing.

The second half of the race was a duel between Nazzaro and Salamano, in which finally the latter was victorious. Murphy made a game struggle to bring his car into third place at the end.

Plestina Eager to Get Charlie Hansen's Scalp

J. C. Marsh, manager of Marin Plestina, famous heavyweight wrestler, who has been knocking on the threshold of the world's championship in vain for several years, is on the warpath.

Marsh, in a letter to Ralph Wagner, sporting editor of The Omaha Bee, says that he will offer $1,000 to the first wrestler whom Plestina does not throw twice in two hours, and says his offer goes for any heavyweight, including Charlie Hanson. He also offers the same amount for the first wrestler who gets a fall on Plestina.

SAM JONES, not content with pitching the first no-hit, no-run game in the major leagues this season, by shutting out the Mackmen several days ago, attempted to duplicate the feat yesterday against Boston and hung up a new record in the praiseworthy endeavor by going 16 2-3 consecutive innings without donating a hit.

De Forrest to Train Herman

Jimmy DeForrest, probably America's greatest trainer of boxers, may be retained as trainer of Tiny Jim Herman, according to Jack Lewis, manager of the Omaha heavyweight.

"We have already completed arrangements for DeForrest to supervise Herman's training when Tiny goes back east after his bout with Jack Renault here September 20," said Lewis.

"However, I am trying to induce DeForrest to come to Omaha at once and help prepare Herman for his bout with Renault."

An S. O. S. for sparring partners has been sent out by Herman. Al McCoy, former middleweight champion, and Martin O'Grady, young Iowa heavyweight, were unable to withstand the fierce attacks of the big Omahan and have been released. They have returned to their home at Fonda, Ia.

Lewis is endeavoring to secure Hughie Walker, Kansas City heavyweight, to help condition Tiny for the Renault bout.

Tickets for the Renault-Herman match to be held at the Auditorium September 20, will be placed on sale today at the regular agencies, according to Robert T. Burns, chairman of the American Legion's finance committee.

New York, Sept. 10.—Miss Gertrude Ederle, holder of several national women's swimming championships, has completed arrangemets to sail from Los Angeles September 22 for Honolulu to meet Miss Lillie Bowmer and Miss Marilchen Wehselau of the Outrigger Canoe club in several matches in the three-day Hawaiian water carnival, which begins October 10. The matches are for 100, 220 and 440 yards.

Wills Fails to Stop Big Bout

New York, Sept. 10.—Efforts of Harry Wills, negro heavyweight boxer, to prevent the Jack Dempsey-Luis Firpo fight, scheduled for September 14 at the Polo Grounds, failed today.

Supreme Court Justice Hagarty, in Brooklyn, denied Wills' plea for a writ of mandamus, preventing the fight.

Tht action was brought in Wills' behalf by his manager, Paddy Mullins, who contends the negro fighter is the rightful contender for Dempsey's heavyweight crown and should be given preference over Firpo.

The champion recently announced he would fight Wills at an early date in the event of victory over Firpo next Friday. Wills was not content with this, and brought suit to prevent the coming fight.

Omaha High School Start Grid Practice

The call to the gridiron, so common this time of the year, will be sounded at all of Omaha's high schools this afternoon for the first time this season.

Central, Creighton High, South and Tech gridsters will start this afternoon rounding into condition for the coming pigskin battle. While hard practice will not take place until the weather gets cooler, the coaches will conduct chalk talks and give preliminary training.

Prospects at all the high camps look rosy and everything points to another banner high school football season in Omaha.

Florence Merchants Win.

The Florence Merchants took the Nebraska Tires into camp with a 5 to 4 score and the North Side Ramblers defeated the Magnolia camp of the Modern Woodmen, 7 to 3.

Odds Shorten on Dempsey Following Showing Sunday

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, N. Y., Sept. 10.—If men today rush around feverishly in an effort to wager on Luis Firpo, it is probable that their action is due to the trick fistic showing which Jack Dempsey made in his camp Sunday. And if a group of experts breaks into print today with the viewpoint that Dempsey does not look so nifty, theirs is a logical conclusion, if it is based on what he did for more than 2,000 cash customers yesterday.

Jack Dempsey made the most miserable showing of his entire training camp season before a record crowd which included his old trainer, Jimmy De Forest, and some writers who were viewing him for the first time.

These people had heard that Dempsey was displaying all of his old stuff in his workouts.

But they saw a world's champion who looked more like a second-rater than anything else. They were mystified. Dempsey hit the huge and ponderpus Farmer Lodge but one real blow in their first round and hit him only a few in the second. He hit George Godfrey about three times in their milling and the way he threw so many wild ones made the boys think he was going through calisthenics.

And the conclusion was the one that Jack Kearns hoped they would take away with them. For Kearns likes to have a little wager on his champion every time Dempsey goes to the fistic post, and Kearns always seeks the best odds.

Inasmuch as the quotations have been hanging around 3 to 1 that Dempsey will win, and inasmuch as they have since broken 2 1-2 to 1, in some places, 2 to 1, since the experts decided Dempsey was not as good as supposed, you may imagine the inner delight of Kearns and the insiders in the Dempsey camp who want to make a wagering cleanup on the battle.

Pirates Trounce Reds and Climb to Second Place

Deliver 8-0 Beating in Second Game of Cutthroat Series —Errors Costly to Cincinnati.

Cincinnati, Sept. 10.—Donohue's wildness and support in the infield enabled Pittsburgh to score six runs on one hit in the fourth inning today and easily defeated Cincinnati 8 to 0. Errors by Fonseca and Caveney were costly and Donohue forced in two runs with passes after filling the bases. Meadows had his curve ball under good control and the Reds got only one man to third base. As a result of the victory, the Pirates advanced to second place in the league race. Score:
