AK COSTUMES TO COST $15,000

Historical Floats Have Been Assigned to Various Organizations.

A total of $15,0000 is being spent by the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben for costumes of the various historical periods shown in the pageant, "Patriotic Historic America," to be presented October 3. Each company presenting a float signed a contract to be responsible for $500 for the building of the float, but the actors will be costumed at the expense of King Ak.

Sketches of the floats are being re-Webster, and the following assignments are announced today:

The Declaration of Independence, which shows Thomas\Jefferson presenting the document to John Hancock, in presence of John, Adams, Ben Franklin, Roger Sherman and other members of the committee which drew up the document, will be taken by the Chamber of Commerce.

Lincoln signing the emancipation proclamation has been assigned to the Rotary club.

The Lewis and Clark expedition will be presented by the Omaha Grain exchange. Coolidge taking the oath as president, together with a memorial to President Harding, has been assigned to the Union stockyards. Assignment of floats showing Pershing placing a wreath on the tomb of Lafayette, and Dewey's battleship at Manila, was made Saturday to Burgess-Nash company and the Chiago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad respectively.

EORGE M. COHAN, past master in the production of plays that please the people, has now contributed to stars and stripes with the union jack, in a manner that has proven equally entertaining to the British and American playsors, with the result that his comedy has the most successful American play ever produced in the English metropolis. This brilliant comedy hit opens the regular fall scason at the Brandels theater on next Thursday night, where it will remain through Saturday evening will be mailed later. The fact that they are to see the famous Chicago cast in this world-renowned comedy. There are four companies now on tour, but Omaha will see the regular big city. The rates quoted above apply to either of the stripe o

"A Night in Spain," the attractive headliner at the World theater, is proving one of the most unique vaudeville attractions that playhouse has offered in quite some time. The presentation is of the highest type and introduces sing; and dancing of sunny Spain by a tailing and dancing of sunny Spain by a tailing are elaborate and the costuming and time of the costuming and time. The scenic sets of the highest type and introduces sing; and dancing of sunny Spain by a tailing are elaborate and the costuming autiful. Other acts on the current bill include Marion Claire, O'Meara and Landis, Boyd Senter, Lewis and Brown, and the Les Gladdons. Arthur Hays is scoring with another one of his originalities, liadys Walton stars in the feature photoplay, a story of dual personality, entitled "The Untamable."

"The Music Publishers,"one of the 21 scenes in Barney Gerard's "Vanities," twice daily at the Gayety theater this week, is a delightful satirical expose of the methods used by music publishers to popularize their wares. In one of the song numbers the costumes worn by the chorus are made of paper, the color combinations being beautiful. So much interest do they create that on Thursday night a paper dress contest will be held, liberal cash prizes being offered the Omaha maids whose dresses are the most novel, the audience acting as judge and jury.

Movie at Sun Theater

Ivor Novello, well known actor of the British stage, is D. W. Griffith's new leading man in "The White Rose," which will open the new Sun theater policy of big pictures only, on next Sunday. The story is of the Bayou Teche country of Louisiana, the scene of Longfellow's "Evangeline." Novello also has quite an enviable reputation as a song composer.
