Little Evidence of Martial Rule, However, and Cities Remain Quiet-300 Troops Mobilized.

Police Heads Deposed

By Associated Press.

Oklahoma City, Okl., Sept. 16.—Imposition of martial law over Oklahoma moved slowly through the pre liminary steps today. With the exception of Oklahom

City, the entire state awaited the first evidences of the coming military rule proclaimed by Gov. J. C. Walton last night, as the climax to his fight on the Ku Klux Klan.

Troops were mobilized here, police authority taken over by the National guard and a set of regulations governing the city was being prepared by Lieut. Col. William H. Keys of Colonel Keys, and Capt. Nelson J. Moore of the One Hundred Sixtleth supply company of Tulsa was placed in charge of the department. Captain Moore is a police captain at Tulsa.

300 Troops Under Arms.

Approximately 300 troops are under arms here tonight. At an early hour none had left the armory ex cept two men detailed to patrol duty at the central police station.

In Sapulpa, county seat of Creek county, which, with Oklahoma coun ty, was placed under "absolute mar tial law" in the proclamation issued last night by Governor Walton, no evidence of martial rule had been seen after a day of waiting. Both the sheriff's office and the police depart ment were functioning normally and no troops had been mobilized.
