Iron Fist of Walton Nails Klan

Oklahoma Governor Orders Field Artillery to State House to Prevent House Session.

War Rumblings Heard

Oklahoma City, Okla., Sept. 20.—Sensational testimony exposing the inner workings of the Ku Klux Klan in Oklahoma City and designed to show that the secret organization has directed mob violence was made public tonight by Gov. J. C. Walton.

The testimony was taken by the military court sitting here and was given out by the governor "that the people may know the purpose" of the Klan.

In a preface to the testimony, Governor Walton declared the burden of the fight against the Klan had fallen upon himself and upon Aldrich Blake, his counselor, making it necessary for him to appeal for financial aid.

"Every effort is being made to cripple us financially so that we cannot continue the fight," the governor said.

Calls for Funds.

"I call upon the people who believe in a representative form of government immediately to assist us financially and to make all remittance to Mrs. Aldrich Blake, Oklahoma City, Okla. Aldrich Blake himself is absent from the city at this time and probably will be for some days."

"So far as I am concerned," Governor Walton declared, "I have crossed the Rubicon and it is a fight to the finish."

"Jewett (N. C. Jewett, grand dragon of the realm of the Klan) and his crowd have turned the fight over to the Klan newspapers and the Klan members of the legislature.

"Jewett and his 'invisible empire' shall not pass in this state.

"If necessary I shall arm every man in this state who is opposed to his empire."
