Prisoner Gets Leave to Attend Funeral Rites

Roscoe Stumbo Is Placed on Honor to Return to Fremont Jail After Services

Fremont, Neb., Sept. 22.—Roscoe Stumbo, 23, federal prisoner at the Dodge county jail, sentenced to six months' confinement on a charge of auto theft, was granted a furlough by United States Marshal Ronin that will allow him to attend funeral services for his sister, Letha, 9, at Falls City, where the girl was fatally injured when run over by an automobile Thursday afternoon.

Stumbo left for Falls City this afternoon without a guard. When the next train back to Fremont to complete his sentence, according to his promise to the officials.

This is the second time in the history of Sheriff Condit's term in office that a prisoner has been released temporarily. Some years ago an Indian was allowed to leave the jail to attend the funeral of a granddaughter.

Stumbo, married but a short time, was sentenced July 21 for transporting a stolen automobile interstate. He is a farmer. Condit described him as a model prisoner and strongly urged that he be placed on his honor and be permitted to attend the burial of his young sister.

When word reached Fremont this afternoon that Stumbo would be treated to himself to make the trip and return Condit escorted Stumbo to a barber shop and treated him to a shave and haircut.

Stumbo appeared grateful for the sympathy of the officials and there is little doubt in their minds that he will return to the jail of his own accord.

McCoy Boy Denied Freedom by Board

Patrol to Look for Explorers in River Gorge

The state board of pardons and paroles puts scant belief in the "confession" of a boy in the industrial school at Kearney recently, that he had committed the highway robbery for which McCoy is serving time. The board yesterday refused McCoy's application for parole.

McCoy and the boy in the industrial school occupied the same cell in the Lincoln jail. The robbery was committed in Lincoln.

The following Omaha convicts were granted paroles from the penitentiary or reformatory this month: Fred Nelson, forgery; August Rogers, breaking and entering; Mingo McDowell, forgery; Nels Nelson, grand larceny; Richard Marks, larceny from the person; George Williams, breaking and entering; Frank Fogarty, forgery; Albert Bayerdorfer, receiving stolen automobile.

Former Notorious Bandit Visits City. Emmet Dalton, one of the famous Dalton family of gun men who terrorized Oklahoma and Kansas, and who served 14 years of a life term in Kansas penitentiary for bank robbery, is in Omaha today.

He doesn't carry a gun anymore. Neither does he wear a mask. He has the appearance of a banker and the soft voice of a preacher. He is a "retired bad man," he said last night.

Dalton is a land owner in California now and is traveling across the country with a motion picture he produced.

Since then, in spite of search, nothing was heard of them till last week when they were found in Chicago.

The mother of the children died in St. Joseph hospital, Omaha, April 13, and the Omaha Welfare board gave the three children to the Loseys who are the parents of Mrs. Walker. It was alleged that Walker had not provided for them. The children are Harriet, 4; Sammy, 2, and Tommy, 14 months.

Mrs. Stokes Solves Mystery of Photo. Chicago, Sept. 22.—Mrs. Helen Elywood Stokes today solved the mystery surrounding the identity of the original of a faded photograph of a woman sitting in an old-fashioned automobile which figured in her charges that W. E. D. Stokes, wealthy New York hotel owner, had attempted to injure her reputation by gathering perjured testimony that she was an inmate of a notorious club here two decades ago.

Mrs. Stokes, who charges that her husband had hired investigators to secure testimony to be presented at the reopening of his divorce case in New York, caused an investigation by the state attorney's office, declared through W. C. Dannenberg, one of her investigators, that the photograph was a likeness of herself, and that it was taken in Denver before she married Stokes.

Patrol to Look for Explorers in River Gorge

Government Expedition Which Went Through Canyon of Colorado Is Believed to Be Lost.

Kingman, Ariz., Sept. 22.—A patrol will enter the canyon of the Colorado river tomorrow to search for the government exploration party charting the Colorado river, whose unknown plight has cast a wave of alarm over Arizona tonight.

A boat marked as belonging to the United States geological survey was seen floating down the river yesterday many miles from the point where the survey party was thought to be.

The explorers, unless harm has come to them, tonight are believed to be battling their way through raging currents in the rock-strewn, tortuous river in one of the most dangerous gorges of their voyage. Officials here expressed renewed fears for their safety following reports today that there was only slight recession in the waters of the river, now unusually high due to heavy rains.

The patrol party, headed by Sheriff W. P. Mahoney of Mohave county, who will be aided by three deputy sheriffs, will attempt to take off in the river rapids tomorrow morning, but doubt was expressed by the sheriff whether they could set out with the river in its present swollen condition.

"Dancing Around" Is Hit at Gayety. Harry Stepp, a clever comedian in the characterization of a Jewish traveling salesman, is the leading purveyor in the lively burlesque show, "Dancing Around," the attraction at the Gayety theater which opened with two performances yesterday.

Among the many laughable features of the production is the humorous sketch, "Othello and Desdemona" by Mr. Stepp and members of the company. A vivacious bunch of chorus girls adds to the success of the show.

TOMORROW At Thompson-Belden's

The lady on your left is not a conscientious citizeness reviewing the nineteenth amendment for Constitution Week, but one of the regular readers of the Tomorrow column. She has her hat on already to come straight down to Thompson-Belden's to see the new things the column tells about this week.

Under-the-Arm Bags—A Passport to Smartness. Originally used to carry the passports a tourist must flourish before the army of officials that greet one at every European border, Miss New York now hugs one under her arm when promenading the Avenue or visiting the shops. Farman street will be the scene of its next appearance when Miss Omaha sees the long, slim one of Havana brown leather she can buy in the Hand Bag Section for $6.50.

Hist! This Is a Shady One—It's about a woman's stocking. Now that they must match, it's all a matter of shades. Atmosphere, rose, beige, silver, gold and log cabin are but a few of the hard-to-find shades we have in beautiful, clear chiffon hose at $2.95 a pair. All silk to the top, too.

Fore! Two Color Combinations Are 1923 Champions—among the new Jersey silk knickers. Whatever the color complex of your wardrobe, there's a pair of knickers here to go with it. Smoke gray with a bit of turquoise blue at the knee is one stunning combination you can choose in the above-the-knee length at $6.50, or the longer style at $7.25.

Fashion Flashes Broadcasted From the Apparel Section. Satin crepes lead the silks for daytime dresses. Charmeen, a 1923 debutante of the twill family, is having a most successful season in cloth frocks. The vogue for brown is only rivaled by black, which still holds its position of first place. Skirts are shorter. The average length is 8 1/2 inches—two inches or more above the ankle bone.

To Sixteenth and Howard, Please. If this column were five times as long and my Underwood twice as eloquent, it could not tell you of all the new things half so well as if you came to Thompson-Belden's and saw them right before your very eyes. But do come this week, for you know the cream of the new fashions, like that in the milk bottle, always goes first!
