

Russ Reds Told Germany Is Ripe for Revolution

German Communist Leaders Arrive in Moscow and Inform Russians Hour for Action at Hand.

By Associated Press.
Moscow, Sept. 22.—The German communist leaders, Heinrich Brandler and Herr Talmeyer, have arrived in Moscow and informed the Russians that the time for a revolution in Germany is ripe. They express themselves as confident of their ability to obtain control within the German state, but need the help of the international proletariat against outside capitalistic enemies.

The German communists are so certain of their ground, according to Herr Brandler's speech to the executive committee of the bolshevik trade unions, that many observers here feel that the peace of Europe may be said to rest upon the conferences in Moscow, in which the Germans are now taking part. From this viewpoint the issue revolves around the question of whether the Russian communists deem their proletariat state sufficiently strong to overcome the capitalistic forces of the world combined against them and proletarian Germany.

"It cannot be doubted that the period is beginning now when the threat of breaking the peace hangs over the soviet socialist federated republics," says the newspaper Pravda. From the report of Herr Brandler's speech, it seems obvious that the German communists deem the iron fist, but the guarded editorial comment of the Pravda gives no hint as to
