Buffaloes and Witches Divide Double-Header---Both Games Go Extra Frames

Omaha Takes One and Drops One to Wichita Sunday

First Game Goes Ten Innings, While Second Runs Two Frames Over.

Wichita, Sept. 23.—Omaha won the second game of today's double-header, 4 to 3, and broke even on the day as Wichita had taken the first game, 10 to 9. Both games went extra innings, as the last one was billed for but seven and had to go nine innings. Wichita won the first game in the tenthwhen with two dow and two on bases, Hovlik sent a long fly which Wetzel dropped. In the second game Wichita rallied in the seventh and with the fame seemingly safe, scored, three runs on four hits and a sacrifice fly. Omaha won the game in the ninth when Hovlik walked two and Wetzel beat out a bunt filling the bases. Speece hit back of shortstop scoring Lee with the winning run. The scores:

Schlaifer Signs to Fight Wells

MORRIE Schlaifer, Omaha's "Fighting Fool," and Billy Wells, crack welter, have been matched for a 10-round bout at the Auditorium October 8, according to F. J. McKeon, matchmaker for the South Omaha Eagles.

Wells, will be remembered by every Omaha fight fan. He is the most pleasing and real fighter that has appeared in an Omaha ring.

Schlaifer and Wells fought here last winter and put up one of the best fights ever witnessed here. The Omaha fighter was given the decision over Wells but most of the fans thought Wells outpointed him.

Leo Shea, the popular third man, will referee.

Wells will come to Omaha one week before the fight and train.

In a wire to McKeon Saturday, Wells said that he wanted to stop the Omaha welter in an effort to prove that he is the best fighter.

Both fighters have posted a forfeit of $500 to make weight of 147 pounds on the day of the fight.

Tickets for the show will be placed on sale Tuesday at the regular ticket depots at popular prices.

Floyd Paynter Is Taken Ill With Appendicitis

Floyd Paynter, local athlete, was stricken with acute appendicitis yesterday afternoon and was removed to St. Josephs hospittl, where his condition was said to be serious at a late hour last night.

Paynter is a star basket ball and football star, being best known by locals for his work last year as a guard on the Creighton University basket ball team which won the North Central Conference championship. Paynter was expected to play with the Olympic this fall.
