

Hastings Girls' Cadet Corps at Legion Meeting

Will Travel in Special Pullman to National Convention at San Francisco, October 15 to 19.

Lincoln, Oct. 3.—Nebraska will be distinctly represented at the national convention of the American Legion at San Francisco, October 15-19, by the appearance of the Hastings girls' cadet corps. This group of girls, trained in the most difficult of military maneuvers and dressed in West Point uniforms, was the most interesting attraction at the department convention held at Hastings recently.

A special Pullman coach to carry the corps will be placed at the rear of the special train to the convention at a cost of $3,500. All but $1,500 has been raised for transportation thus far and Commander Charles Taylor is asking the various towns and Legion posts to "adopt" a girl for the convention. "East adopted" girl will go under the name of the town she represents. Legion men, chambers of commerce and business men generally are asked to contribute $75 from each of 18 towns toward the expense of one of the girls.

Squabble Over Highway at Platte Center, Neb.

Columbus, Neb., Oct. 3.—Because a sign had been posted along a road at the entrance of the village of Platte Center, Neb., bearing the words "Don't blame Platte Center for this road," it is maintained by the county board that two road patrols pulling a grader outfit near the town this week, had lettered on them a sign filled with obscene language directed against the town of Platte Center. County Supervisor Henry Hobbsenstefen declares the complaint was made to him by several reputable citizens. An investigation is being made.

Anthrax Ban Is Lifted on Cattle Shipments

Lincoln, Oct. 3.—Governor Bryan today announced that the ban on shipments of cattle and horses into Nebraska from South Dakota was lifted in this state as well as in Iowa. This followed an announcement that the anthrax disease situation in South Dakota was considerably improved and that livestock shippers in that state were asking that the embargo be lifted. Authorities at the South Omaha stockyards advised that the disease was undoubtedly cleaned up and that there would be no danger in removing the embargo.

Flood Waters of Big Blue River Are Going Down

Beatrice, Neb., Oct. 3.—The Blue river began slowly receding today, and it is thought the crest of the flood has been reached. It fell several inches during the day, and it is believed that if no rains follow north of here it will soon reach its normal state. Tackey, Cub and Indian creeks tributaries to the Blue river, have fallen about a foot during the past 24 hours. Much damage to farm property along the Blue valley resulted from the flood.

Brakeman Injured in Fall Under Engine at Red Cloud

Red Cloud, Neb., Oct. 23.—C. A. Verson, 22, of McCook, was quite seriously injured in the local Burlington yards, when he missed the footboard of an engine and fell under the engine tank, which passed over his chest. He was taken to the hospital where examination showed internal injuries. He has been working for the Burlington as a brakeman for the last year and a half.

School Books Blown Straws Were Driven Into Tree Trunks Two Miles in Tornado

Columbus, Neb., Oct. 3.—Wreckage from the schoolhouse in district No. 39, torn to pieces by a tornado Friday night, has been found scattered for half a mile in every direction, while some of the books were found two miles away, according to County Superintendent Fred Lecron.

After visiting the scene Lecron said he saw a big windmill near the school house that had not fallen but had been twisted round and around like a rope. A barn was torn from its foundations and planted behind a shed. The shed was left untouched while a row of trees on the other side of the shed was destroyed.

In one place, Mr. Lecron said, he saw straws forced into the trunks of trees. Directors of the district where the wrecked schoolhouse stood held a meeting on the scene, five miles northwest of Monroe, and voted to hold a bond election to erect a new modern brick school building at a cost of $7,000.

Lewellin to Harvest Bumper Corn Crop

The pig crop this fall around Lewellin in Garden county will be larger than a year ago, according to Charles Countryman, who was at the Omaha market with a bunch of livestock.

"The largest corn crop ever known will be harvested around my neighborhood," said Mr. Countryman, "and will be heavier by many thousands of bushels over last year."

Architects Want School Building Job, Columbus

Columbus, Neb., Oct. 3.—Although the Columbus school board has taken no official action toward the selection of architects to draw plans for the newly proposed $400,000 senior high school building; two firms, Grabe & Helberg of Columbus and Davis & Wilson of Lincoln, appeared before the board to be considered as applicants when the final selection of architects is made. The school board in a body has already visited the new high school buildings at Fremont and Norfolk in order to get ideas for the new building.

Drunken Indians Drive Out White Family From Home

Take Possession of Premises and Stage Fined for Intoxication.

Webster, S. D., Oct. 3.—Old Indian days on the frontier were recalled recently to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Block, living near Pickrel lake, when six drunken Indians surrounded their home and made an attack upon it. The Indians were from the Sisseton Sioux reservation.

They drove the members of the family from their home and then took possession of it and proceeded to stage a stag dance, which lasted for some time, until Sheriff Buhler of this city could reach the scene and drive them from the house.

When the sheriff reached the house several of the Indians were in bad condition from liquor. The six were arrested, and when taken before a justice entered pleas of guilty to charges of being intoxicated and paid fines.

Motorist Knocks Bandit off Running Board of Car

Fremont, Neb., Oct. 3.—Police are seeking a bandit who attempted to hold up Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dunbar in their automobile late Monday night, but who was frustrated when a sudden shove knocked him off the running board of the machine and Dunbar "stepped on the gas."

Dunbar and his wife were approaching the business section when the bandit suddenly appeared from the darkness and leaped on the running board. Dunbar refused to obey the command of "stick 'em up" at the point of a gun, and instead gave the intruder a shove that left him lying in the road.

Judge Woodrugh at Norfolk

Norfolk, Neb., Oct. 3.—Federal court resumed its session here Tuesday with Judge Woodrugh on the bench. A jury is hearing the case of Jensen against the M. & O. railroad. The plaintiff asks damages for personal injuries and has employed M. F. Harrington of O'Neill as counsel. All of the criminal cases have been continued over the term.

James R. Young Dead

James R. Young, former Omaha man, died Monday at his home in Kirley, S. D., according to information reaching friends here.

The automobile engine is the most powerful power plant for its size and weight ever built.

Farmers to Demand 70 Cents for Corn

Frank Zimmerman of Springfield, Neb., was among the visitors at the stockyards today over the stock market. He said there would be a record-breaking corn crop around Springfield and that the farmers were putting their corn so high in price that none of it was being sold on contract.

"It will be necessary to wait to see what test will be brought out on the corn price by letting it go to market. New corn is expected to start out at 60 cents a bushel, which the farmers are now demanding 70 cents."

"There will be a big demand for feeder cattle this fall if corn doesn't call for as high as the farmers ask, as they will prefer to feed it rather than to let it go at a low price."

Dam at Crete Goes Out, Another Is Threatened

Beatrice, Neb., Oct. 3.—The Blue river, which has been at flood stage here the last two days, has receded 14 inches since yesterday. The dam at Crete, Neb., 30 miles north of here, went out at 5:30 this morning and a three-foot raise is expected before night. The other dam at Crete is threatened and a big force of men is working hard to save it.

Tractor Wheel Hurls File Into Farmer's Leg

Columbus, Neb., Oct. 3.—Walter Schmidt, 25, farmer north of Richland, Neb., met with a freak accident when a file caught in the wheels of a tractor in a field nearby and was hurled in the air and sent through space like an arrow, penetrating the flesh and bone of one of Schmidt's legs.

Bread—Always your First Thought

WHENEVER you must prepare a hasty luncheon or a late evening supper, what do you think of first? Sandwiches, isn't it? And a sandwich is at least three-fourths bread. Too, if it's BETSY ROSS Bread it is the most nourishing food you can serve.

BETSY ROSS is rich in the essential food elements. Why, a pound loaf contains 59% of the proteins, 38% of the carbohydrates, and 77% of the mineral salts, such as iron, calcium and phosphorus, needed by the body each day. No other single food supplies such large proportions of these elements.

But, because "There's a difference in bread" it will be to your advantage to select the high food-value loaf. Don't just say "bread"—say BETSY ROSS.

Here's a delicious recipe for club sandwiches, probably the most appetizing sandwich you can serve—

Club Sandwich
 Trim crust from three slices of BETSY ROSS and toast. Butter one slice and cover with roast chicken cut thin. Butter both sides of next slice and lay over chicken. Cover with lettuce and lay strips of freshly fried bacon over lettuce. Pour on a little mayonnaise dressing and cover with third slice of toasted bread. Cut diagonally and garnish with sliced tomato, pickle and olive.

Guaranteed Relief From Rheumatic Pains
 A Written Guarantee From Your Own Druggist

Another remarkable discovery has come out of Germany. It is a scientific combination of oils that even in the most severe cases of rheumatism and in stubborn cases of long standing often affords grateful relief in many instances with just a few days' use.

Why have sleepless nights from ECZEMA?

Oh! The joy of a peaceful restful night. What a wonderful "up and going" feeling follows such a night of undisturbed slumber. Oh! What torture—what agony—what despair—goes with the nights where eczema and other skin diseases hold power and drive away rest and peaceful slumber. For under the cover of darkness like crafty beings of the underworld these eruptions work their most serious havoc.
