N. Y. C. OF C. HOLDS DRY ACT TOO DRY

New York, Oct. 4.—The New York state chamber of commerce today adopted a resolution recommending to congress that the Volstead act should be revised and modified "so as to conform more nearly with public sentiment and on lines that are more reasonable, just and practicable."

The resolution stated that the interpretation and enforcement of the Eighteenth amendment through the Volstead act "are not in the belief of an unquestionably large number of honored and fair minded people, in accordance with a strict interpretation of the Eighteenth amendment." The result, it was stated, was great opposition to enforcement of the act.
