Women Riot as Lloyd George Arrives in U. S.

Banners Attacking Britain Seized in N. Y.—Ex-Premier Says Versailles Pact Not Carried Out Properly.

By International News Service. New York, Oct. 5.—A near riot occurred today in a crowd of about 3,000 persons grouped about city hall to await the arrival of David Lloyd George when a delegation of about 50 women appeared with printed signs attacking the ex-premier and British policies.

Police tore the signs from the women's hands and dispersed them, but in which a number of persons were bruised and scratched. The women bore placards identifying them as members of "American Society for Freedom."

The women stoutly resisted efforts of the police to tear up the signs, fighting and scuffling, but after hard work the police succeeded in dispersing them.

By Associated Press. New York, Oct. 5.—David Lloyd George, premier of Great Britain, today set foot on American soil for the first time.

Coming here as a private citizen to tour the United States and Canada, the doughty little Welshman and his family were taken from the liner Manxman at Quarantine and landed at the Battery on the police boat Macom.

At Quarantine the latest member of the "big four" to come to the United States made it known that he intended while here to call on former President Wilson, with whom aid the treaty of Versailles, ending the war, was drawn. He defended the treaty, asserting that it was the manner in which it was operated that had caused unhappiness, and endorsed the proposal that statesmen and economists study the troubles of central Europe.

The most important factor which might lead toward the settlement of the difficulties of central Europe, which Mr. Lloyd George said still were grave, was acceptance of the proposal of Secretary Hughes in his address, and the situation he analyzed and adjusted by an international committee of competent statesmen and economists.

Asked whether there was any imminent danger in the central European situation, the veteran British statesman declared: "There is always danger in central Europe. The situation is pretty bad, isn't it?"

"The one thing which might have helped would have been acceptance of your Mr. Secretary Hughes' proposal. It is not too late, but it is pretty late."

Beautiful Jewels Given to Queen and Duchess

In continuation of the custom inaugurated last year, by which the governors of Ak-Sar-Ben present their queen with a ring in token of her royalty, a second ring was given Queen Eleanor last evening.

It was designed by the late Arthur Gulou, 27th king, whose death this spring was greatly mourned among his subjects. It is an oblong Siberian amethyst of great depth and color, set in green gold. The jewel is carved exquisitely by hand, the plumed helmet of Quivera surmounting the word "Ak-Sar-Ben." The setting itself is wrought with scabbards and other emblems of royalty. It fits the little finger of the queen.

Each of the four duchesses was presented with a "choker" string of crystal beads, which they wore during the coronation. The 12 princesses wore crystal plaques, set in wrought silver, to hang about their necks on a narrow black ribbon.

Two Ordered Held in Jackson Death

Coroner's Jury Returns Verdict Slayer of Man in Auto Unknown. The jury summoned by the coroner to inquire into the death of Fred Jackson, Twenty-fifth and Burdette streets, Thursday night at Twenty-seventh and Q streets, while sitting in his automobile, returned a verdict yesterday that death was caused by a gunshot wound in the abdomen.

The woman bore placards identifying them as members of "American Society for Freedom." The women stoutly resisted efforts of the police to tear up the signs, fighting and scuffling, but after hard work the police succeeded in dispersing them.

By International News Service. New York, Oct. 5.—A distinguished tourist, honorable David Lloyd George, M. P., landed upon the American shore at noon today and received a welcome such as has been given by Americans to no commoner.

From the Battery to City Hall thousands lined the streets as hands, motorcycle policemen, mounted patrols and fleets of automobiles that formed the Lloyd George procession moved up historic Broadway.

So warm was the welcome, so genial the response, that the little Welshman evoked, that the police could not restrain the crowds from rushing the sidewalks, but after shouting their individual welcomes.

Lone Gypsy Woman Robs Oil Station

Youth Calls Police; Motorcycle Officers Arrest Two Loads of Gypsies: All Held. Thirteen minutes after a lone gypsy woman held up an oil filling station at Eighteenth and California streets Friday morning and stole $10 from the cash register, Motorcycle Officers Cleghorn and Gaines arrested two automobile loads of gypsies at Thirtieth and Tucker streets and brought them to the station.

The station, owned by the Sinclair Oil company, was in charge of Peter Edgar, 29, 1922 Atlas street, at the time of the robbery. The gypsy woman entered the station, he said, pointed a gun at him and said "Where's your money?" He pointed to the cash register. Forty dollars in the safe was untouched.

After taking $10 from the register the woman walked out of the station, entered a car bearing a California license number and drove north. At police station the gypsies gave the names of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stevens and two children from Los Angeles, Cal., and Mr. and Mrs. Costello Costello of St. Louis, Mo., with five children; only one of them, Rosa, has a name.

Edgar identified the Costello woman as the one who held him up. All the gypsies are held and the contents of the two cars is being checked by the detective department.

Girl Spurned by Man Says She's Through

Attempts Suicide When She Came From Michigan to See Him and Is Snubbed. Love will make a girl do many things, in the opinion of Miss Louise Voss, 22, of Grand Rapids, Mich., who attempted suicide by swallowing poison at Burlington station Thursday afternoon. Louise is at Central police station recovering from the effects of the poison.

The reason for the attempted suicide, according to Louise, is because Victor Milten, 511 South Twenty-fourth street, whom she came all the way to Omaha to see, scorned her for another girl. After being repulsed by Milten, Louise spent two nights in the Burlington station for lack of money to pay for sleeping quarters.

Louise is of the flapper type, with blond hair worn in the Jab bob style, rouged cheeks and long dresses touching the flat-heeled patent leather sandals on her feet.

Although she has gone without food since Monday, Louise was not weak and was ready to tell her story. Her friend of conversation seemed impulsive and governed by the heart. She emphatically states she is absolutely in love with all men; and in the next breath says she will stick by her former lover through thick and thin.

"I don't know why I fell for him," said Louise. "What does any girl fall in love for? She never knows. Victor was not so handsome but he was good talker and made all sorts of promises which he didn't keep."

Quigley Backs Bryas Boom

Minnesotan to Aid Movement of Governor for President. Lincoln, Oct. 5.—Declaring Gov. Charles W. Bryan of Nebraska had become a national figure since his occupancy of the executive office, W. E. Quigley of Minneapolis, Minn., in a statement here today, said a movement was under way in several states of the central west and northwest to make him a candidate for the democratic presidential nomination in 1924.

Mr. Quigley is a former resident of Nebraska and was connected with the Nonpartisan league of this state in 1917, 1918 and 1919 and has been active in the farmer-labor party of Minnesota.

"Governor Bryan," Mr. Quigley said, "has strong support among the progressives of Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, Iowa, Illinois and Nebraska."

"Some of the biggest men in the Minnesota farmer-labor party, who have been democrats in the past, feel that Mr. Bryan is the logical man for the democrats to run. They class him as a sane progressive who puts his theories into actual practice. Witness the coal situation, wherein the price has been cut for the Nebraska consumer; also the buying of gasoline for 9 cents a gallon for the state, when the price but a few months ago was in the neighborhood of 22 cents."

"Those are the things that count with the average voter, and Governor Bryan has become a national figure almost overnight. He will, I think, become a strong candidate for either first or second place on the ticket."

Motorist Is Killed; Suspect Arrested

Fred Jackson, Twenty-fifth and Burdette streets, was shot five times and almost instantly killed at Twenty-seventh and Q streets Thursday night, when he failed to execute the command of two bandits, who jumped on the running board of his car.

According to W. M. Turner, 1916 Cuming street, Jackson's companion, they were leaving 2709 Q street, where they had been gambling, when two men, one known only as Riley, alleged to be recently paroled from the state penitentiary, and William Simpson, 2529 1/2 Wirt street, leaped on the running board of the car and ordered Jackson to drive around the corner. Jackson instead pulled over to the opposite curbing and stopped.

His hands in the air, Riley is then alleged to have shot him five times. Members of the motor detail, near the scene of the shooting, caught Simpson leaving the spot with a revolver in his hand. He was arrested for investigation.

John Smith, 2723 R street, was arrested by Emergency officer Harry Buford in connection with the shooting. Jackson's body was taken to the Korisak undertaking establishment.

Philly Saloons Open. Philadelphia, Oct. 5.—Philadelphia saloons were still doing business today, despite the order of Governor Pinchot and the federal Department of Justice to close their doors and dismantle their fixtures. A few of the 1,300 or more establishments had obeyed the order, but the attitude of most of the proprietors apparently was one of placid defiance. Those who did close are the smaller dealers in outlying sections. The saloons in the central section have enjoyed an unusually heavy run of business this week, it was said.

Stinnes in Dusseldorf

By Associated Press. Dusseldorf, Oct. 5.—Hugo Stinnes, the German industrial leader, arrived in Dusseldorf today. He and several others of the Ruhr industrial group have arranged for a conference with General De Goyne, the French commander in the Ruhr, this afternoon. It is generally believed the Germans will propose methods of restoring the Ruhr valley's industrial activity and incidentally suggest some modifications of the Franco-Belgian military occupation.

Wife No. 7 Asks Freedom From Alleged Bigamist

Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 4.—Mary S. Roush, former domestic science teacher at the Des Moines East high school, who was wife No. 7 of Harry R. Roush, alleged bigamist under arrest at Los Angeles, Cal., has filed a petition in district court here asking for an annulment of her marriage. It was announced today, Mrs. Roush was married to A. E. Reid, now known as Roush, on October 3, 1922, the bill states.

New 'Dodge' in Omaha to Report Car Parked Too Long as 'Stolen'

Sioux City can't show Omaha anything about dodging the parking violation patrolman. Following publication of an item from Sioux City, telling how business men used alarm clocks in their stores to avoid exceeding the parking time limit, Inspector of Police Jack Prazowski this morning explained the newest dodge in Omaha.

Bank Bandit Caught

Central City, Colo., Oct. 5.—F. O. Carpenter, alleged member of a bandit gang that held up the First State bank at Arvada, Colo., September 24, last, and escaped with $7,000, was arrested by an armed group of Denver police officers early today in an abandoned mining shack eight miles north of here. Officers, carrying rifles and sawed-off shotguns, previously had surrounded the building.

Traced Him to Omaha

"Victor stopped writing to me after he had mentioned an attractive Minneapolis girl in his letters. I found his address at the Northwestern Finance corporation in Grand Rapids where he had been a bond salesman, and came to Omaha with money I had saved from my $14 weekly wage."
