ev. Albert Wygatt, Wood Neb., was elected treasurer of the conference.

The purpose of the new conference, as announced by Rev. Howard, is to provide a medium of co-operation and pulpit supply for the churches not connected with any of the denominations and to assist and encourage the organization of such churches wherever the need of a union church is felt.

"The principles of the conference." he stated. "commit it to the belief in the inspiration of the scriptures, the great central doctrines of Christianity, the necessity of faith in Jesus Christ as the Son of God and a personal Savior, and a program, which it insists, must be strictly undenominational."

There are now about 1,000 union churches and more than 12,000 union Sunday schools in the country, he cycle stated.

The new church organization, organized and incorporated at this meeting of union churches, selected the following officers in addition to the two former:

Rev. Allen . MacNeill, Ridgefield Park, N. J., vice president; Rev. J. Preistley, Quasqueton, Ia., secretary, and Rev. Harry S. Ashley, Chilhowee, Mo., chairman of fraternal relations and pulpit supply.

The conference emphasizes union evangelism, according to its president. He stated that state and regional conferences of the church, wherever they and that the national conference would meet again this year at Arnolds Park.

At the recent meeting "The Pioneer of a New Era," published at Ar-nolds Park, was selected as the official organ of the conference.
