

Council Bluffs Society

Wedding Date Set.
Miss Grace Karges, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Karges, has set Wednesday, October 24, as the date for her marriage to Guy Morton Bonsteel.

The ceremony will be performed at the Karges home at 8:30 in the evening, with Miss Bernice Ball and Frank Spetman attending. Little Ruth and Adelaide Karges will serve as flower girls.

Bridal Affairs.
Complimentary to Miss Florence Senior and Frederick Duerr, whose marriage will occur in St. Paul's Episcopal church Wednesday morning, October 17, a dinner was given on Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. John Sorenson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Beardsley have asked a group of musical people to their home Monday evening, honoring this couple, and on Saturday Miss Senior will have the entire bridal party for luncheon at the Grand hotel. That evening Miss Mona Medley, who is to be one of the bridesmaids, will entertain for Miss Senior and her fiancé.

Interesting Guest.
Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Stillman will have as their dinner guest today Miss Emily Taft, leading lady with the "Cat and the Canary" company, which is to play an engagement at the Brandeis theater in Omaha this week.

Miss Taft is the daughter of Leland Taft, the noted sculptor, at whose home in Chicago the Stillmans' daughter, Mrs. John Shaw Brooks, often visited before her marriage, when she and Miss Taft were classmates at the Chicago university. Mrs. Brooks, who now resides in Chicago, arrived a couple of weeks ago with her small son, John, Jr., for a short stay with her parents, and she has asked a coterie of intimate friends to meet Miss Taft and have tea at the Brandeis Monday afternoon.

Dinner.
Table decorations at yellow were used by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Oard and Dr. and Mrs. J. Philip Cogley at the dinner given which they presided at the Grand hotel before the Tuesday dancing club party last week.

Places were marked for 65 guests. Birthday Party.
To celebrate the fourth natal day of her daughter, Jessann, Mrs. Charles R. Hannan, jr., invited to her home on Saturday the following young guests: Rosann Sheehan, Jean Wilcox, Eleanor Van Brunt, Mary Virginia Wickham, J. Rebecca Bagel, Marian Malden, Hannan Van Brunt and Charles and Kelley Hannan.

A "Grab-Bag" and various games occupied the hours until tea was served from a daintily appointed table at which the places of the guests were marked with horns and bright colored head bands topped with feathers. The little girls were also presented with tiny dolls in cradles while the boys received miniature globes filled with candy. Barbara Van Brunt assisted in serving.

For Chicago Guests.
Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Watkins of Omaha gave a supper Sunday night at Valley for Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Eddington, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Shugart and departed Wednesday evening for their home in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddington were among the guests at a dinner given Tuesday evening at the Grand hotel by Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Oard and Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Cogley.

Informal Luncheon.
Mrs. Robert Turner entertained informally at luncheon and bridge Wednesday when the complimented guest was Mrs. John S. Brooks of Chicago.

For Ottumwa Guests.
Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Quinn have as house guests their daughter, Mrs. Wallace Graham and niece, Miss Maude Packard of Ottumwa, Ia., in whose honor a round of entertaining has been planned.

Last Thursday Mrs. Quinn and her daughter Elizabeth had a buffet luncheon for 36 guests in compliment to these visitors and at bridge which followed, the high score prizes were awarded Mrs. Frank Riker and Mrs. A. W. Oard. Mrs. B. O. Brington received the consolation. When Mrs. H. B. Jennings entertained her club on Friday she also invited Mrs. Graham and Miss Packard, and on Saturday they shared honors with Mrs. Harvey Bennett of Los Angeles at a four-table luncheon and bridge given by Mrs. Roy Maxwell.

Mrs. Quinn has issued invitations for a luncheon on Thursday and Monday she and Miss Quinn will have a luncheon and bridge. Other hostesses who are entertain-

Entertaining jointly at luncheon on Saturday at the Grand hotel were Mrs. Henry Cutler and Mrs. Elmer Ryan, whose 29 guests later went to the home of Mrs. Ryan for a game of bridge.

View Parade After Luncheon.
Mrs. Harvey Bennett of Los Angeles and about a dozen other friends of Mrs. Everett Wright and Mrs. Clay Thomas of Omaha were invited by these matrons to luncheon at the Athletic club last Wednesday, after which they viewed the Ak-Sar-Ben parade.

Attended Wedding.
Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Rigdon motored to Lake Okoboji last week to attend the wedding there on Thursday of Mrs. Rigdon's cousin, Miss Virginia Clark, and Mr. Wallace of Des Moines.

Before returning home the Rigdons plan to take a trip into Dakota. To Witness Decoration.
A number of people from here are planning to go to Fort Omaha next Saturday afternoon, at which time Eldon Anderson, one of the Council Bluffs war heroes, will receive a decoration from the French government.

Personals.
Mrs. John Shugart and son, Phillip,

Benson Society

Birthday Luncheon.
Mrs. C. O. Robinson entertained at a three-course luncheon at her home on West Maple street, Saturday, complimentary to her niece, Miss Irene Seanson, who celebrated her 16th birthday on that date. The color scheme was pink and a large birthday cake adorned the center of the luncheon table. The rooms were decorated in autumn flowers. Covers were spread for the Misses Muriel Parmele, Irene Corbaley, Belle Brewster, Linda Bradway, Margaret Johnson, Irene Seanson and Mrs. Seanson. Mrs. Robinson and her two daughters.
