Giants Win First in World Series

Score of 5 to 4 After Veteran Casev Stengel Struggled Around Bases for Home Run.

well advanced on his journey, running his home run home.

As the ball landed between Meusel and Witt, it bounded as if possessed, toward the left center field fence. Everybody could see it would be a home run inside the yard if Casey Stengel's warped old legs could carry him around the bases.

Witt got the ball about the time Stengel hit third, and Witt thought Stengel was labor "all out." Witt threw the ball in to Bob Meusel, who had dropped back, and let Witt go home town is Kansas City. The nick-name comes from K. C. One of those many little coincidences that are always popping out in baseball is the fact that Stengel and Bullet Joe Bush are great pals. They made the tour of Japan last winter as roommates.

Stengel is around 33, if you are seeking more information about the first hero of the world series of 1923. They call that old in baseball. He retire from the turf game. He is 62 has been with the Giants since 1921, years of age and one of the country's from the Philadelphia club. He is all best racing officials. He has conright, Casey Stengel is, and you can prove it by John J. McGraw.

Hit Ball Freely.

The expected struggle of mind vs. matter, or intelligence against bruter force, with John J. McGraw representing the one, and Babe Ruth the other, did not materialize. Both sides began belting the ball so freely early in the game that thinking was not

Ruth got a three-bagger, and was cheated out of another hit through an astonishing play by Long George Kelperhaps one of the most sensanal plays ever seen in a world's

Kelly got a hit from Ruth's bat with one hand at a seemingly impossible angle and threw a man out the plate. Quite as sensational was a play by Frankie Frisch, who Atilia, Medina, Bona Vera, Diadem, Swift backed out into short right field, Water, Miss Nantura and Perrigo also caught a short fly from Bob Meusel's bat, turned and threw Ruth out at the plate. This was immediately after Ruth's three-bagger. Perhaps if "Casey" Stengel had not run his home run, Frisch's play would be picked as the feature of the whole

The Yanks were three runs ahead of the Giants when McGraw's men caught and passed them, hammering Waite Hoyt for all their runs except Stengel's home run. It was the first real bad inning the one-time Brooklyn schoolboy ever had in a world's series. so say the experts.

Bush Loses Breaks.

Bush took Hoyt's place and pitched marvelous ball. Poor Bush, as usual, suffered from the "breaks," from the bad luck of the game. He has been in a number of world series, and was always what baseball calls "a tough luck pitcher" in them. He won one game for the Athletics in his first year in the big leagues, since then he has been a consistent loser. The Yanks drove Joe Watson of Louisiana from the game early. Then Wilfrid Ryan did the pitching for McGraw's men-and did it well. The Yanks out-hit the Giants, however,

It seems to the writer that the Yanks were very stupid in some of their base running. At least one example cost them a run.

However, it was a great game for the spectators. A thrill a minute, topped off by the real big thrill of Casey Stengel, running home his home run.

Woman Jockey Rides Favorite in Big Race

Newmarket, England, Oct. 10.— For the first time in the history of English racing a woman jockey is to ride in a race here tomorrow. Miss Betty Tanner, 29 years old, the daughter of a prominent breed-er, is to have the mount on Pen-nant, the favorite in the running of the Newmarket town plate over a four-mile course.

The race is an international event established by King Charles in 1665.

WELLS SHAKES DUST OF OMAHA FRON HIS BROGANS---TO MEET JONES

By "WAG."

BLLY WELLS and his manager,
night for St. Paul, where the English welterweight is scheduled to meet Jimmy Jones in a return bout Friday night, October 19. Jones was recently suspended for a year for failing to make a fight of his bout with Champion Walker. at Newark, N. J. The commission has informed Wells that he will not be suspended when he meets Jones.

The last time Jones and Wells fought, the bout was stopped in the sixth round and declared no contest when both fighters fed lout of the ring, injuries preventing them from continuing the scrap. Jones is recognized as the welterweight champion in New York. He hails from Wells left Omaha minus a lot of triends. His fight with Schlaifer

Monday night in the Auditorium didn't help the Englishman's cause muck in this city. His statement following the fight that he fought in a shell to save himself and wear down Schlaifer so that he could knock out the Omaha lad in the final rounds didn't meet with the approval of the fistic followers here.

can knock out Morrie in another fight. He said that after their first meeting in Davenport, Ia., and after their second meeting in Omaha. Now he says it after their third meeting. It's the financial end of these Schlaifer bouts that Wells is after, not a knockout victory.

Wells has fought Schlaifer three times, once in Iowa and twice in Omaha. From these three fights the Englishman has realized more than $8,000. Is it any wonder he, wants to fight Schlaifer again?

Nationals Run Up 8 Score Against Rivals in City Series.

Chicago, Oct. 10.—The National league drew first blood in the Chicago city series today when the Cubs de feated the American league White Sox, 8 to 4. Charley Robertson, the Sox starting pitcher, paved the way to the Cubs victory with a bad throw to the plate in the fourth inning, which allowed two of the four Cub runs of the inning to score.

Lyons replaced Robertson in the fourth and also was hit hard during the remaining innings. Grover Alexander pitched the National leaguers to victory. Statz and Adams led the hitting for the Cubs, Statz getting three and Adams four
