

City Bakery, Gas Station, Is Aim

Plan to Let Voters Decide Proposal—Council Member Hits High Prices.

Commissioner John Hopkins announced yesterday that a committee has been appointed to investigate the advisability of making amendment to the city charter so a city bakery and a city gasoline and oil station could be operated. Such an amendment to the city charter will be proposed at the next election, he said. Investigation has disclosed that profit on the sale of gasoline in Omaha is greater than the original cost of refining and pumping the gasoline, said Mr. Hopkins. Refineries have made a reduction of 2 cents just recently but no such reduction on gasoline has been made here, he said. Gasoline could now sell for 6 cents less in price than it

Advancing Years Neen Stomach Help

If Inclined to Sour Risings, Heartburn, Gassiness, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets Sweeten and Bring Quick Relief.

Our digestive system, with a little help, will pick out of a diversified diet what the body needs to sustain health. It is the sour stomach, gassiness and acid condition that starts trouble all along the line, particularly with people getting on in years. If they will use Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after eating, the stomach will sweeten; eggs, milk, cheese and meat will be digested, gas will not form and the system will thus get nourishment and strength unimpeded by indigestion and harmful fermentation. Get a 50-cent box of these wonderful tablets and learn what it means to enjoy meals without consequent indigestion.

does at present, said Mr. Hopkins. The need for a municipal bakery is shown by the investigation of the committee. Six thousand pound and a half loaves of bread could sell for 9 cents a loaf and expense of operation would be covered. Bakes in Omaha are now selling such loaves for 15 cents.

Crop Prospects Boost Business at Hastings

Hastings, Neb., Oct. 10.—The certainty of an unusually heavy corn crop, together with continued rains which have placed the ground in ideal condition for winter wheat, have greatly stimulated business here. Automobile sales especially have soared. County Treasurer Woodworth reports that he has been receiving from two to 10 applications for licenses daily from new owners of cars.

Fair at Red Cloud Opens With Large Attendance

Red Cloud, Neb., Oct. 10.—The annual Red Cloud fair opened here with a good attendance and excellent exhibits. The cattle show is especially good, there being some unusually fine stock, among them the champion Shorthorn bull of the Royal livestock show of Kansas City, Marshal Joffre, owned by Johnston & Auld of Guide Rock. Two of his calves are also on exhibition. The farm products department reflects the good crops in this vicinity, especially in the exhibit of corn. The poultry exhibit also is one of the best in years. The fruit exhibit is very light. The women report the exhibits in their departments as good or better than last year. Thursday afternoon there will be a livestock parade and a band concert, with a program and lecture by Newton W. Gaines of Lincoln in the evening. Friday afternoon there will be a big school parade, with prizes for the best floats, a band concert and a football game between Guide Rock and Red Cloud High school teams.

Yes, He Has No Auto Now; He Traded for Stolen Car

Hastings, Neb., Oct. 10.—L. E. Fairbanks of Prosser is minus a car and $50 which he traded to Ernest Taylor for another car. Shortly after the trade was made the car Fairbanks received was identified as one stolen from a garage in Lincoln. Fairbanks promptly surrendered the car to the owner. Later Fairbanks discovered that the car he had traded had been sold at a garage at Gibbon. He attempted to recover it, but County Attorney Subr of Hall county has held that the garage is entitled to keep it, since it was not stolen property. Information has been received here from Sheriff Koenig of Scotts Bluff county that Taylor has been turned over to the government, charged with desertion from the army.

Farmer Killed as Team Runs Away

Falls From Buggy and Horses Driven by Soft Pass Over Body.

Nebraska City, Neb., Oct. 10.—Herman Ellen, farmer, residing southwest of Nebraska City, in the Lorton community, was instantly killed when he fell from a buggy while crossing a field and four horses attached to a drill and driven by his son ran away and passed over his body. When the son discovered his father lying on the ground he fell off the drill and was badly injured. Neighbors who witnessed the accident called a physician, who found that the elder Ellen had suffered a broken neck. The dead man has been a resi-

Remember?

It isn't such a far stretch for memory to recall the day when you had to wait for a long, clear, cold spell of weather before you could have sausage.

Today?

No wait for weather or seasons. Just telephone your meat dealer.

The delightful tang of October days is made more zestful by a breakfast of Brookfield sausage, made from the choicest morsels of carefully selected pork, blended with spices.

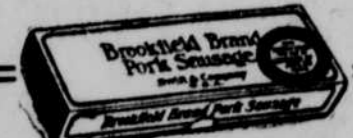

That is but one of the services that Swift & Company renders—making available to you numerous products of the highest quality, when, where, and as you wish them.

This has been made possible by the development, during more than a half century of service, of 23 packing plants adjacent to the best producing centers, hundreds of branch distributing houses, one of them near you, and several thousand refrigerator cars which carry the meat to your dealer in the best condition.

Volume production enables Swift & Company to offer you this service at an average profit from all sources of only a fraction of a cent a pound.
