

West Point Man Head of Synod

Rev. W. F. Rangelor Named
President—Three Omaha
Ministers on Board.

Emerson, Oct. 12.—At the Lutheran synod of Nebraska, which is holding its 51st annual convention here, Rev. W. F. Rangelor of West Point was elected president of the synod for a term of five years. This is the first time in the history of the synod that a full time president has been chosen. Heretofore ministers holding regular charges have been named at the annual conventions, and have assumed the duties of the presidency in addition to their regular work. Other officers were: Secretary, Rev. Klas DeFreese, pastor of the Church of Our Redeemer, Omaha; treasurer, Joseph H. Miller, M. D., Surgeon; statistician, Rev. George Dorn, associate pastor of Kountze Memorial church, Omaha; historian, Rev. R. A. White of Wolbach, Rev. O. D. Baltzy, pastor of Kountze Memorial church, Omaha, was elected to the executive committee of the synod for a term of three years. At the opening service Rev. C. S. Baugh, student secretary of the board of education, Harrisburg, Pa., delivered an inspiring address on "The Conditions Within and Without the Church Which Have Delayed the Coming of Our Lord." The enrollment of both clerical and lay delegates in this session is the largest in the history of the synod. Rev. R. E. Rangelor, son of the president of the synod, is pastor of the church in Emerson where the meetings are being held.

The state convention of the Woman's Missionary society of the Lutheran church in Nebraska is also in session here. Officers for the coming year for this organization were elected as follows: President, Mrs. G. E. Hickman, Tekamah; first vice president, Mrs. C. Franklin Koch, North Platte; second vice president, Mrs. E. A. Van Fleet, Omaha; recording secretary, Mrs. L. A. Hornburg, Omaha; treasurer, Mrs. O. A. Keyser, Fremont; statistician, Mrs. H. E. Shimonek, Wilber, historian, Mrs. H. C. Hecht, Allen.

Thirty-seven persons were made life members during the convention here, and there was one memorial member. A new plan of meeting was adopted at the session. Heretofore the missionary society has met annually at the same time and place as the synod, but the society will meet in separate sessions next fall at Kountze Memorial church in Omaha. The time of meeting has not yet been decided.

Kearney Loses, 12-0.

Kearney, Neb., Oct. 12.—Kearney High school walloned North Platte High school in a fast game of football here today, score 12 to 0. North Platte of Lincoln refereed. North Platte did not threaten Kearney goal except once. The Kearney High school 40-piece band played rousing music. There was a big crowd at the game.

Missionary Body Elects Officers

Congregational Union of Nebraska Holds Annual Session at Columbus.

Columbus, Neb., Oct. 12.—Officers elected for the ensuing year at the 5th annual convention of the Woman's Home Missionary union of the Congregational church in Nebraska and the 50th annual meeting of the Woman's Board of Missions, Nebraska branch, in a three-day convention at the Federated Presbyterian-Congregational church here, are:

For the missionary union, elected at the joint state convention: Mrs. E. L. Marty, Lincoln, president; Mrs. H. H. Loughridge, Lincoln, vice president; Miss Eva Liston, Lincoln, recording secretary; Mrs. W. A. Tyler, Lincoln, corresponding secretary; Mrs. J. P. Walker, Lincoln, assistant corresponding secretary; Mrs. J. C. Hall, Lincoln, treasurer; Mrs. W. B. Riley, Lincoln, superintendent of young people's and children's work; Mrs. Sandy Clark, Lincoln, secretary of literature. Officers for the Nebraska branch of the Woman's Board of Missions for the interior are: President, Rev. Ada Stone Anderson, assistant pastor Plymouth Congregational church, Omaha; first vice president, Mrs. Allen Koch, Omaha; second vice president, Mrs. C. E. Ritcher, Omaha; recording secretary, Mrs. N. H. Hawkins, Omaha; Corresponding secretary, Miss Jane Canaan, Omaha; treasurer and secretary of thank offerings, Mrs. Allen Koch, Omaha; secretary of children's work, Mrs. Pearl Holloway, Fremont; secretary of young people's work, Mrs. A. W. Clark, Sutton; secretary of life membership, Mrs. F. P. Loomis, Omaha; secretary of literature, Mrs. Sarah Culver, Albion; chairman of white cross work, Mrs. Fred Engold, Omaha; auditor, Mrs. W. A. Higgins, Omaha.

Yearly thank offerings of all women's missionary societies in Nebraska, formerly used to assist the maintenance of the Ryder Memorial hospital in Porto Rico, where the Nebraska donations were used in furnishing a kitchen and a bedroom, will be withdrawn from the island hospital this year because they are no longer needed there, and will be donated to the training school for women in Chicago.

Lincoln Student Pastor Gets Call to Columbus

Columbus, Neb., Oct. 12.—Rev. W. H. Riley, student-pastor of the University Congregational church in Lincoln, has received a call to the pulpit of the Federated Presbyterian-Congregational church here. Rev. Mr. Riley preached two trial sermons in Columbus last Sunday and was the sixth clergyman to do so during the last few months, after the former pastor, Rev. Thomas Griffiths, announced his resignation last spring. Rev. Mr. Griffiths moved to Lincoln last week to make his home while his children are attending the state university.

Editors Convene at Broken Bow

Members of Central Nebraska Press Association Hold Annual Session.

Broken Bow, Neb., Oct. 12.—The Central Nebraska Press association's annual convention opened at 10 o'clock here today with great promise of being the most successful meeting ever held in this district. President E. R. Purcell presided.

Introductions, preliminary work, short discussions and an editorial, "Love Feast," held sway up to the noon hour, when an elaborate banquet was served at the Public Service club rooms. The afternoon session was occupied with round table discussions and "shop" talk.

Representatives are present from a majority of newspapers in the district and a number of editors are accompanied by their wives. Prominent among the visitors from a distance are Ole Buck, field secretary of the Nebraska Press association, Harvard, G. E. Carpenter, E. D. Shirey and W. J. Ashley, Omaha; Prof. M. M. Fog and wife, Frank Helvey, Horace Davis, Charles Verity of Lincoln; A. F. Buechler, Grand Island. An entertainment and dancing will be on this evening's program.

Workman Is Injured

Barneston, Neb., Oct. 11.—Rudolph

Hrech, young employe of the Beatrice Power company, working at the hydro-electric dam near here, lost his balance and fell from a scaffold while repairing flood damage at the dam and received a badly injured shoulder. He narrowly escaped death and will be laid up for some time.

Willa Cather to Sail About Nov. 1

Nebraska Author, Now in France, Says She Longs to See Home State.

Red Cloud, Neb., Oct. 12.—Word has been received here by Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Cather, parents of Willa Cather, noted Nebraska author, that she intends to leave France on the homeward trip about November 1. She intends to spend a short time in New York city on business matters, probably arriving here about December 1. She says she longs for Nebraska and would not care to spend the winter in France.

Miss Cather went to France partly to secure relief from an attack of neuritis in her right shoulder. She also suffered from this trouble when here last winter.

Miss Cather's novel, "Our Ours," which ran serially in The Omaha Bee recently, is now in its 10th thousand, grade material put out by the Illinois mines in the Springfield district. Arrangements have been made for its being printed in French, there having been a great demand for it in France, especially among the former soldiers. The portrait of Miss Cather by Basket, noted French painter, has been delayed by her illness, but the artist plans to lay aside all other matters and finish it before Miss Cather sails for home.

Farmer in South Dakota Raises Cotton Plants

Brookings, S. D., Oct. 12.—The distinction of having raised the first cotton ever grown in Brookings county belongs to Anson Crawford, a prominent farmer living south of the city. He raised a few plants this season as an experiment. They were raised from seed obtained from Texas, and were grown in Crawford's flower garden, the bloom and leaves forming a very pretty plant. The cotton plants, of which there are about six dozen, are now at a stage where the bolls are forming. Two plants, set out in April, are nearly ready for the opening of the bolls, from which the cotton is picked. Thus the novelty of picking cotton in October in South Dakota will be presented on the Crawford farm.
