

Millard Party Back From Land of Earthquakes

Gave No Heed to First Shock Felt in Kobe, but Were Aware of Horror in an Hour.

Back in Omaha from quake-stricken Japan Mrs. Barton Millard, Miss Jessie Millard and Mrs. J. R. Scobie were rejoiced to be on solid ground today. They were in Kobe September 1, when they felt a slight earthquake shock. Little heed was paid to it.

"An hour later the Japanese newsboys were rushing through the streets ringing their bells," Mrs. Millard said. "In Japan the newsmen ring bells and if a person subscribes to a newspaper, he gets all extras free of charge. Through a Japanese we learned of the disaster."

"The next day we went to Keota where we were to take a boat for America. The Oriental hotel, where we stayed, was transformed into a hospital by the government."

"It was dreadful; husbands were there who had lost their wives, wives who had lost husbands and children without fathers or mothers. Many had been in water for hours. Suffering was intense."

"Thousands of injured were cared for in Keota by the Japanese government. The organization for their care was wonderful. Hundreds of foreign refugees took our boat as far as Shanghai. The refugees suffered more than the Japanese as the government banded all of its efforts toward alleviating the suffering and losses of the Japanese."

"The wealthy men interested in the silk industry will see that Yokohama is rebuilt, possibly on a larger scale than before."

The Omaha party left Japan September 6.

Alleged Wife Deserter Is Taken at Nebraska City

Nebraska City, Oct. 12.—James H. Hart, a painter, was arrested here by Sheriff Ryder, who had been asked to pick him up for Omaha authorities, being wanted there for wife abandonment. A deputy sheriff from the metropolis took Hart to Omaha.

Train Time Changed.

Change of time on the Missouri Pacific is announced. The train that has been leaving Omaha at 8:05 a. m. will leave at 7:50 a. m., and arrive in Kansas City at 3:30 p. m., instead of 3:45 p. m.

AT THE THEATERS

BEAUTIFUL chorus girls in a diversity of musical numbers that will afford unnumerable costume changes, is an attractive feature of "Lull's" production coming to the Gayety this afternoon for a week. In the big scene of the show there are 20 musical numbers accompanied by some very marvelous dancing. Particularly true is this of 15 specially trained chorus girls who have done the work of the famous Tiller girls. A list of the musical numbers sounds interesting. It includes such titles as "Parktown Polka Ball," "Beautiful Soldiers of the South," "The South Sea Isle," "Camped by an Eskimo Girl," "March of the Wooden Soldiers," "The Telephone Doll," "Kitchenette for Two," and "Cherry Blossom Time." The words and music of all of these numbers are by Betty Greenwood. Leading the cast are Ed White and Mandy King, others being Kitty Madison, Burton Carr, Nan Patton, Flo Kane, Helen Flynn, Joe Barrett and Sonny Thompson's entertainers. The usual daily ladies' matinee will be given. Tomorrow's matinee starts at 3.

Harry Johnson, brother of Al Johnson, who is appearing at the Orpheum this week, has Mrs. Johnson appearing with him in his offering. She assists with song and dance. Mrs. Johnson says that she travels with her husband everywhere to protect him. To look at the singing comedian's wife one would think with her charm she would have to fear of losing her husband. But Mrs. Johnson believes in taking no chances.

Doors opening and panels sliding, a dark stage, a man's moaning at large and a few things that create fear in the play, "The Cat and the Canary" showing at the Strand theater, the last two times, this afternoon and tonight. "The Cat and the Canary" is being produced here with an exceptional cast including Emily Faye, Louis Kimball, John King, Anne Sutherland, Stan Lan, Duser, John Stoker, Clifford Dempsey, William Macaulay, Grayson Gordon and Ed Hodge.

Romance and Dancing Dolls, presented by Robert Jewett and company of 10 dancing girls is the headline in the six-week vaudeville bill at the World starting today. Other acts on the big show include Ed Hutchinson & Company in the fantastic comedy, "Napoleon," Clark and O'Neill, vaudeville comedians; Dorcy Nelson, accordion Norwegian violinist; Herman and Hanson in tropical tunes; Clinton Soren, singers and dancers; Arthur Hays offering is "Indiana Moon."

These shows today conclude the successful presentation of "Sinks and Sinks," spectacular musical revue at the New Empire. Tomorrow the Marcus Show starts its fourth and final week here, offering their biggest and best production, "Cluck Cluck," a brilliant pageant of song, mirth and music in beautiful scenic settings. Four shows are given Sunday. Performances are continuous daily, starting at 1 p. m.

263,138,000 Bushels State Corn Estimate

Through error The Omaha Bee stated Thursday morning that the government estimate on the Nebraska wheat crop was 263,138,000 bushels. The estimate was on the corn crop for 1923 and not the wheat crop.

A correction was made before many thousands of copies had been printed. From letters received by rightfully doubting subscribers the fact that The Omaha Bee is read carefully is fully established in the mind of the editor.

Tells of Growth in Evangelism

Baptist Speaker Says Work Is Basis of World—Reach Individuals.

Evangelism is the foundation of the world, according to Dr. F. L. Stillwell, head of the department of evangelism of the Northern Baptist convention, who is in Omaha attending the Nebraska Baptist convention at Calvary Baptist church.

"Evangelism is the base of everything," he repeated. "It is the silk thread that makes the dollar valuable. The evangelist is a free lance. We have no special churches. We send our men into shops and factories, into churches having regular congregations. The evangelist has no set territory. Wherever there is need of religious uplifting, there he is always to be found."

"We even send out men to private individuals. They spend an evening with them, and at the end of that time we usually have a few more converts. Yes, evangelism is being successfully spread," he concluded in answer to a query.

Club Told Per Capita Fire Loss Is $4.25

Sixty per cent of all fires are preventable, according to H. N. Wood, Omaha insurance man, who spoke on fire prevention to members of the Continental club at luncheon yesterday noon at Hotel Fontenelle.

Mr. Wood stated that Americans are careless in matters of fire prevention; that some of the notable conflagrations were started from acts of carelessness. He asserted that the total fire loss in the United States and Canada for first nine months of this year was $302,000,000, an increase of 17 per cent over the corresponding period of 1921.
