ADVERTISMENT.

FREE REMEDY FOR ASTHMA

A prescription written by an unknown physician twenty years ago, and brought into my drug store by a man suffering from asthma, has gotten results in 100,000 cases.

I wish I could impress upon every reader my sincerity so that you would send for a free trial of this remedy today, which has been accepted by thousands everywhere who write they are now well and happy. You have your health to gain and nothing to lose.

Your name and address is all I want and I will send you prepaid this treatment on 10 days free trial. If you are not benefited you do not owe me one cent—if you are the single bottle only costs you $1.25.

Address: C. Leavenworth, 1363 Blvd., Topeka, Kansas. (A $1,000 bank guarantee and letters of praise come with every bottle which you can read before starting treatment.)

More Prizes for Titles

Not a case of "a penny for your thoughts," but $5 for the cleverest title to this week's Title Contest picture, although the thoughts of the young woman in front might be cheaply purchased at that. The usual five second prizes of $1 each will be awarded for the five next best titles.

Rules of the Contest.

Write your title, your name and address on a postcard and address it to the Title Contest Editor, Omaha Bee.

Each contestant may submit as many titles as he chooses, but each should be written on a separate postcard.

No title may contain more than 12 words.

The contest closes at midnight Wednesday.

Last Week's Contest.

Last week's bald heads haunting the stage entrance with their floral offerings called forth a torrent of postcards. The prize winners are as follows:

First Prize.
"Old Whiskers," Dorothy Grason, 14 South First street, Council Bluffs.

Second Prize.
"Nearing the Stage Where They'll Say It With Flowers," Fred Barr, 1213 Twenty-third street, Des Moines, Ia.

Honorable Mention.
"In Philadelphia's Field the Poppies Blow," L. T. Brookings, Funk, Neb.
"Three Century Plants Full of Bloom," Mrs. Arthur Lee Atlantic, Ia.
"Three Old Johnnies With Masked Batteries Attempt a Stage Holdup," A. M. Arries, Plattsmouth, Neb.
"The Trio That Came After the Chorus," Edna A. Wise, 3283 Cass street, Omaha.
"Three State Nuts and a Hard-Boiled Egg," Walt Adams, 5209 Grover street, Omaha.
"A Comet Waiting to Annex a Star," Mrs. Mary Brin, Lyons, Neb.
"The Older the Limbs Grow the More Blossoms They Bear," Mrs. Arthur Lee, Atlantic, Ia.
"The Army of the Alleys," G. A. Jackson, Omaha.
"Gander Sauce for Chicken Dressing," John G. Winter, Atchison, Kan.
"When the Footlights Will Be Felt and Not Seen," Mrs. Charles Holecek, Waverly, Neb.
"We Now Have Scene Three in Their Last Act," Fred Barr, Des Moines, Ia.
"Regular Fellers" will bring back your boyhood days. In The Evening
"Three Old Johnnies With Masked

Here He Is! As Handsome as Apollo; as Strong as Hercules! Some Boy!

Isn't he handsome?
And, oh, how strong!

His name is Kronos and to hear the impressionable and excited Orpheum press agent tell about it, he's the world champion at everything except mah jongg, and he's not so bad at that.

Here's a few of the pretty phrases the Orpheum press agent applies to Kronos: "Superman; iron master; Hercules, Samson and Sandow combined; handsome as Apollo; strong as Hercules; the idol of the continent; the biggest sensation ever imported from foreign shores; the most amazing specimen of incomparable physical power of the century."

No doubt the publicity sharp would have added many more but he ran out of breath. He did pretty well at that.

Not only is Mr. Kronos (first name not revealed) very handsome and very strong, but he's full of cute tricks. These are a few of them:

Lies on his back on the points of nails, rests a 450-pound anvil on his chest and permits two huskies to beat a tattoo upon said anvil with 16-pound sledge-hammers.

Lifts a six-cylinder automobile with four passengers simply by placing a chain around the machine and getting in an elevated position over it.

Snaps heavy steel bars with his bare hands.

Drives four-inch spikes into oak planks with his naked fist.

Bends iron bars in his teeth.

How does he get that way? That the press agent neglects to disclose. Sufficient to him is that Kronos does what he says he can do. The method is a matter of no consequence.

"If I knew I'd be doing it myself and be out gathering in the beautiful coup jack" admits the honest press agent.

Kronos is scheduled to exhibit his final beauty and his box of tricks at the Orpheum during the week beginning today. It will be his third appearance in America. His first was in Chicago two weeks ago. Last week he was in Kansas City.

For years Kronos was a feature of the variety stage in Europe. Orpheum circuit officials were attracted by his success over there and persuaded him to forsake the land of the falling mark and come to America.

The Orpheum invites Omahans to bring their own iron and steel to the theater for Kronos to bend and break.

Man Asks "Time Off."
Kensal Rise, England, Oct. 13.—George Edward Rixon asked his employer for time off so that he could go to the labor exchange and collect his dole for being unemployed. George was summoned into court and fined £10 for obtaining unemployment benefits under false pretenses.

PAIN

PAPE'S COLD COMPOUND

GULU

Break your cold in a few hours. Don't stay stuffed up! Quit blowing and snuffling! Take "Pape's Cold Compound" every two hours until three doses are taken. The first dose opens clogged-up nostrils and air passages of head; stops nose running; relieves headache, dullness, feverishness, sneezing. The second and third doses usually end all cold and gripe misery.

"Pape's Cold Compound" is the quickest, surest relief known and costs only a few cents at drug stores. Contains no quinine. Tastes nice.

SAN ANTONIO

THE WINTER PLAYGROUND OF AMERICA

COME TO SAN ANTONIO, the city of opportunities, where glorious sunshine and mild temperatures irresistibly invite life in the open. There is nothing just like it anywhere.

The large natural parks, the superb municipal golf links and polo fields, where the games are played the year round, the picturesque Japanese sunken gardens and the scenic grandeur all about, will fascinate you with an enduring charm.

Here a gracious Texas hospitality awaits you. The sacred Alamo, forever enshrined in the hearts of Americans, the century old Spanish missions, and the unforgettable contrast of medieval and modern architecture, will eclipse your fondest imagination.

The pure, artesian water supply is positively the finest in America, and everything is here to make you feel at home. The friendliness of people with SUNSHINE in their hearts will make you like SAN ANTONIO.

Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

New Roadster

Business men—with whom the runabout has always been very popular—are well pleased with the changes embodied in this model. Always rugged, the car has been made decidedly trimmer and more comfortable.

This result is obtained by raising the radiator and enlarging the cowl; making a decided improvement in looks and providing more leg room.

A well designed top and slanting windshield do their share toward adding a finished, clean-cut appearance.

Make it a point to see the other new models also on display in the nearest Ford dealer's show room.

You can take advantage of these new prices through the Ford Weekly Purchase Plan.
