

Boy Is Run Down by Motorcycle Rider

Jack Griesing, 9, 2860 Miami street, was injured Saturday afternoon, while playing on Binney street, between Twenty-eighth and Twenty-ninth streets, when he was struck by a motorcycle and sidecar driven by Fred Gosex, 707 South Twenty-ninth street, carrier of special delivery letters for the postoffice.

The boy was with his brother, Albert, at the time. He was carried to his home.

Gosex said the boy ran suddenly into the street and he was unable to stop in time to avoid running into him.

The most interesting city in the world is New York. That's one reason why O. O. McIntyre's "New York Day by Day" column in The Evening Bee is such an interesting one.

Temple Israel Lecture Dates Are Announced

Aaron Sapiro of San Francisco will be the first of a series of lecturers to be brought to Omaha by the Brotherhood of Temple Israel during the fall and winter. He will speak on the night of November 1 on "Co-operative Marketing."

Newman's Travel Talks are scheduled for November 8.

On December 8 Prof. H. S. Clark of the University of Chicago will lecture on "The Fool."

on "The Meaning of the Modern Drama."

Rabbi Stephen S. Wise will speak some time in February, exact date to be fixed later.
