

Yanks Wallop Giants 8-1 in Fifth Contest; Meusel Only Man Who Can Hit Bush in Fifth

Pep Is Gone From Giants in Game Meusel Only Man Who Can Hit Bush in Fifth Contest.

By THOMAS CUMMISKEY.
Yankee Stadium, New York, Oct. 14.—The old snap and dash, the old chatter, was missing in the Giants' play today. As Joe Newkirk, back and back, only Irish Meusel solving his wizardry for the slim total of three hits of the Giants, it became more and more apparent. They remained buried under the Yanks' big lead.

You could see it in the way they went and came from the field, slowly, instead of running as they used to do. They didn't bark and jump around at their positions. The cockiness so evident heretofore had given way to listlessness. The Giants were in a slump in spirits. The question now is:

Will they snap out of it? They are a great team, a team of class and have fought the hardest in the stormiest outlook.

It is likely that the Giants will get a "dressing down." Perhaps some friend of McGraw's will do it. There are men who can work wonders with a ball club. In 1921, after the Giants had lost the first two games, they got a "dressing down" by McGraw, who named the man, but they certainly had "it" out. He told them they looked as if they were yellow, they were the classiest club in the business. Then they won the next two, lost the next, and won two more for the world's championship.

The Giants need right now to have their spirits prodded, their spirit lashed to the fighting fury.

The Yanks are hitting, fielding and getting even revenge. They are full of confidence. In fact the Yanks are now behaving as the Giants did in 1921 and 1922, when they won.

There is all kinds of speculation as to the pitching choice for tomorrow. Is the frail Art Nehf, the Giants' ace, ready after two days' rest to do his best? Will Bill Ryan, who held the Yanks in the first game, after Watson had wavered, get the assignment? Or will Watson get another chance?

Is Herb Pennock, who kept the Giants Thursday and who stopped the Giants' assault yesterday, when Bob Shawkey got in trouble, to be sent after victory for the Yanks? Or will Waite Hoyt, knocked out in the first game, get the assignment, in consideration of fine work done against the Giants in the past, and Pennock held for Tuesday, if need be?

The longer Nehf or Pennock rest, the better they stand to be. It's something for the managers to think over.

The play by play:
First Inning.
Giants—The Giants were cozy. Ward threw out Baneroff. Groh lined to Ruth and Ward threw out Frisch. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Second Inning.
Giants—Scott threw out Young. Irish Meusel tripped to the same place as brother Bob. Stengel hit sharply to Pipp who threw to Bush. Covering first for an out, Meusel scoring. Kelly filed to Witt. One run, one hit, no errors.

Third Inning.
Giants—Gowdy filed to Ruth. Pipp took J. Scott's foul fly. Baneroff filed to Witt. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Fourth Inning.
Giants—Dugan threw out Groh. Ward tossed out Frisch. Young walked on four straight balls. Meusel doubled to deep right, Young going to third. Bush tossed out Stengel. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Fifth Inning.
Giants—Dugan threw out Kelly. Gowdy filed to Witt. Barnes fanned. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Blue and White Lose Hard Fought Game With Aggies

Slippery, Muddy Field Again Proves Downfall of Hilltop Clan.

By RALPH WAGNER.
Aglie Wild, Manhattan, Kan., Oct. 14.—A short Creighton punt, a line smash and a forward pass, all in the dying minutes of the second quarter, and the Kansas Aggies won from Creighton here yesterday, 6 to 0. Playing on a muddy field, the Blue and White of Creighton and the Farmers of Kansas put up what old timers around these parts stamp as one of the best football games ever played by a Kansas Aggie eleven and its opponent.

Creighton got more glory out of its defeat this afternoon than it received at Lawrence last Saturday. Trotting on the playing field with the reputation of being one of the strongest teams in the West, Creighton lost the game this year and with a veteran backfield that has played together for three years, the Kansas Wildcats, as they are called, looked like sure winners over the Blue. They are husky men and fast foot. But—

When Creighton outplayed the Farmers in the first quarter, and at one time during the period advanced the ball in the shadows of the Farmers' goal posts, only to lose this advantage when the referee snatched a 15-yard penalty on their shoulders, the Blue and White made the 6,000 spectators sit up and take notice. Creighton was in the first quarter, and on a practice game for the Wildcats. True, they had held Kansas university to a 6 to 0 score last Saturday, but they were playing the University and not the Farmers. So today the Aggie fans and fanettes looked for a big Kansas Aggie victory. They were sure that the Farmers would just hold their husky and favorite Farmers for down three times, once on Creighton's six-yard line and twice on their 20-yard line.

Kansas Good at Passing.
Yes, Kansas can forward pass. It was this method of attack that cost Creighton the victory. Had it not been for the pass in the second quarter of the game, the score might have been 6 to 0. Only once did Kansas make anything through the Creighton line and that was in the final quarter, when Stark, the flash Kansas backfield player ripped through the Blue line. He fell to his knees. Everyone thought he was down and the ball dead. But all of a sudden he leaped to his feet and a red-off 34 yards in the direction of the Creighton goal line before being nailed to the earth. This run of Stark's and the Kansas pass in the second quarter were the only real features of the 6 to 0 victory of the Farmers over Creighton of Omaha.

Record Crowd Attends Game.
Tresau has long since passed from the big league. Some of the 6,317 fans who watched the game yesterday saw Buller Joe, that game 19 year ago, using nothing but amazing speed. It made them feel young again as they watched Buller Joe turning back the Giants lining after lining. This was positively the largest crowd that ever saw a big league ball game. All the other largest crowds are infringements. There were 387 men paid admissions than on Columbus day, the total being $201,459. The "million-dollar gate," the old dream of baseball, is at hand.

Bush's three-hit game against the Giants goes into the record book. Bill James of the Braves beat the Athletics with one hit in 1914. Ed Reulbach of the Cubs led the White Sox down with two hits in 1906. Mordecai Brown of the Cubs also pitched a two or three-hit game today.

In James' game the Braves made seven hits off Eddie Plank, but the Red Sox won only 1 to 0.

The Yanks slugged the various Giant pitchers safely every inning to date. The seventh and eighth. Babe Ruth didn't figure much in the hitting of his club, which seems to be somewhat of a puzzle. It is thought as Ruth goes so the Yankees get out in scoring. If there is a pitcher who can't hit, it is not the pitcher, it is the Yankees.

Yanks May End Series Today.
If the Yanks can win today on the Polo Grounds the series is over. They will take to the world's championship, four games to two. The series will be over in seven days. It will be played at the Yankee field, which will accommodate more customers than the Polo Grounds.

McGraw will probably send Arthur Nehf after the game tomorrow. McGraw has practically exhausted his pitching staff and Nehf is his last hope. Huggins, on the other hand, can try tomorrow with Hoyt and still have his "ace," Pennock, in reserve.

The game today was the first the Yanks have won in their uniform. The Yanks have won in their uniform, the Rovers of the home team. The Yanks have won in their own field, the Giants say they can't hit at the Polo Grounds. They are both wrong, as events of the past few days have proven.

Persons always seeking a "goat" in a world series take a long look at Casey Stengel, the late hero, today, when he hits the go. He is a long fly. Subsequent events made Stengel's play a matter of no importance, and even now the "goat" hunters are gazing at John J. McGraw, the recent master mind, with a strangely hateful glare.

Gophers Win Again.
Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 14.—Minnesota nosed a victory out of its game with the Haskell Indians yesterday, 13 to 12. The game was a close one throughout. The Indians at times during the second half played the Gophers to a standstill and had them on the offensive in their own territory the greater part of this time.

Minnesota's two scores were made in the second period. Haskell scored in the third and fourth periods. The last Haskell score came just before the whistle that ended the game.

Ohio State Ties Colgate.
Columbus, O., Oct. 14.—Colgate from the east and Ohio state representing the west, battled to a tie yesterday in one of the most spectacular football games ever witnessed here, the Duckeyes trailing until the last minute of play, when with a final supreme effort they managed to stave off defeat, evening the score at 23-23.

Sox Even City Series With Win

Alexander and Cevengros Are Both Knocked Out of Box.

Comiskey Park, Chicago, Oct. 14.—More than 45,000 fans, the greatest crowd that ever attended a Chicago city series, saw the Sox beat the Cubs, 2 to 0, in the fourth game of the series here today. The victory of the Sox evened the series at two wins each.

Seventh Inning.
Giants—Young bunted poorly and went to Pipp to Bush, on a close play. Meusel singled to center. Stengel filed to Witt. Kelly walked. Gowdy forced Kelly, Ward to Scott. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Eighth Inning.
Giants—O'Connell batting for Barnes, was struck out. Bush also struck out Baneroff. Groh was out on a grounder to Pipp, unassisted. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Ninth Inning.
Giants—Dugan threw out Frisch. Young filed to Witt. Ward chucked out Meusel.

Bluffs High School Loses Hard Game
Missouri Valley Saturday defeated Abraham Lincoln high in a slow game by a score of 3 to 0. The Lincoln team fell far short of the form it displayed last Saturday against Omaha Central. A week ago it might have featured the general play of Lincoln.

Lincoln was completely outplayed by Missouri Valley during the first quarter. Missouri Valley twice forced their way inside the 10-yard line, one through the use of the aerial method when they completed a 40-yard pass. The second chance came through a poor punt by Walsh, but each time Lincoln braced and gained possession of the pigskin on downs. At the start of the second quarter Lincoln pepped up and covered the field with a place kick from the 25-yard line. Lincoln fought hard during the rest of the game to score, but fumbles and intercepted passes ruined whatever chance they had to win. The end of the game came with the ball in midfield and Missouri Valley had won a much deserved victory.

Illini Trim Butler, 21-7.
Urbana, Ill., Oct. 14.—Harold Reed, Grace, fleet University of Illinois half back, ran through Butler College's team for a pair of touchdowns in fourth quarter yesterday to give Illinois a 21 to 7 victory in the last football game to be played on Illinois field.

Illinois scored early in the first quarter when Butler lost the ball on downs on its own 20-yard line and Crawford took the ball over on a series of line plunges and for the rest of the half it looked as if that might be the only score of the game.

Butler hopes rose high in the third quarter when Middlewood passed to Blessing for a 25-yard gain and a touchdown.

Grange, who was sent for Mater at left half for Illinois, ran 22 yards around right end for a touchdown in the final period.

The ZR-3, a German-built airplane for use in the United States, has been expected to leave Friedrichshafen early in November for her transatlantic voyage to her future home at Lakehurst, N. J. The route will cover 4,500 nautical miles, and at her average "gait" the ZR-3 is expected to take 140 hours for her homeward trip.

Jarvis Is Peeved Over Remarks Says That Joel Is Jealous Because His Papyrus Is Not for Sale.

New York, Oct. 14.—The following statement was made public tonight by the Jockey club:
"J. B. Joel, who had offered $200,000 for Papyrus before the St. Leger, makes no friends for himself by the interview he gave out on the international race prior to sailing yesterday for England, in which he made the statement that he was going home because Papyrus would be unfit to race against Zev in that event."

On being shown Joel's statement, Basil Jarvis, who trains Papyrus, said:
"My horse is all right and will be ready to race. Joel phoned me some time ago that he was in this country on business and would not be able to stay for the race. I shall see Mr. Joel when I go home."

"Since my arrival here I have tried to give every chance to see Papyrus and many persons have come both morning and afternoon daily. As the day of the race approaches, however, I must ask the public, who have known such friendly interest, to come to the course in the morning when the horse is on the track, to see him today. I shall have to decline to show the horse at 4:30 o'clock, as heretofore. This is being done in the interest of Papyrus, as well as of Mr. Irish, the owner, and myself, as we want to be ready on Saturday and there is a lot to do between now and then. I am sure the American public will understand and absolve me of any dishonesty."

Informed of Joel's statement, Major August Belmont, chairman of the Jockey club, declared that Papyrus was in excellent condition and indicated that the Irish turfman might have been influenced by his disappointment over the refusal of his offer to purchase the animal.

Papyrus jared his ankle last Tuesday, but demonstrated in workouts Thursday and again this morning that he had practically recovered from all effects of this slight injury, caused by the hardness of the Belmont park track, said Major Belmont.

"My information is that Papyrus is in satisfactory shape and will race Zev next Saturday."

Basil Jarvis, trainer of Papyrus, who acknowledged the famous racer still displayed an aversion for the hard tracks of America, asserted Joel's statement that the race probably would be postponed or cancelled was "all poppycock."

"As long as the horse keeps fit, he'll race," Jarvis asserted. "The public knows the whole thing. He's had workouts that showed his condition and displayed real speed, but everybody knows he doesn't like this hard track. How far that will affect him, I don't know. He has a nice gallop this morning and I was told his form was good."

Unofficially Papyrus was clocked at 2:39 3/5 for a mile and a half, which he did under wraps.

Zev also worked out in the fog. Sam Hildreth and other trainers were reported to have clocked the American animal in a half mile spin at 45 seconds.

Michigan Wins.
Ann Arbor, Mich., Oct. 14.—Michigan rode to a 3 to 0 victory over Vanderbilt on Jack Blott's toe yesterday. His place kick from the 15-yard line being all that prevented a repetition of last year's scoreless tie. Blott was called back from center for the play only after Michigan, getting the ball to Vanderbilt's 7-yard line, had lost yardage in two pile-driving attempts to puncture the adamant Vanderbilt defense.

It was a narrow margin of victory, and the teams battled so valiantly before 30,000 spectators. Both played scrappy football, the fumbling that tended to mar the game being more than offset by swift, dashing interception of passes while the work of the linemen on both sides was at top form.

High School Foot-Ball.
Sidney, Ia., Oct. 14.—Sidney high school defeated Labor here yesterday by a score of 21 to 0. Sidney scored three touchdowns in the second half. The game was never in scoring distance. Rain set in during the second half, stopping the scoring. Sidney is coached by Irishman Young, former Hastings college four-year and all-state star.

Clairton, Ia., Oct. 14.—Clairton high school played Blanchard yesterday in a game that was a real test of the 14 in favor of the visiting team. The game was a close one. The first half was a tie, 0 to 0. The second half was a 14 to 0 victory for Clairton. The game was a real test of the 14 in favor of the visiting team.

Red Cloud, Neb., Oct. 14.—The Red Cloud high school football team won from the local Rock high school team here yesterday by a score of 28 to 0. The game was a real test of the 14 in favor of the visiting team.

McGraw vs. Ruth

First Inning—Scott pitching. Wide curve, strike, swing ball, inside ball, outside, strike, called, low curve, low curve, corner. Strike, called, low curve, over outside corner.

Second Inning—Ryan pitching. Foul, slow curve; ball, fast one, close; slow ball outside; ball, slow curve; ball, slow, wide; Ruth walked.

Fourth Inning—McQuillan pitching. Strike, called, low curve; ball, high, wide; foul, slow curve; ball, wide, slow; foul, slow curve; ball, wide, fast; strike, Ruth taking a swing at slow curve for a third strike.

Eighth Inning—Jonnard pitching. Ruth hit the first ball pitched, a slow curve, for a double to right.

Carroll Pros Are Victors in Game
Carroll, Ia., Oct. 14.—The fast Carroll professional football team defeated the Atlantic team here this afternoon, 25 to 0. The Atlantic team is the same as it has been for the last five years. Each team are composed of former college and high school football stars.

The game yesterday was featured by the plays of the Carroll team. The first touchdown was made by Lowry after a successful forward pass, Ashbaugh to Lowry, and a run of more than 20 yards. The second touchdown came when Heath intercepted a forward pass and carried it down the field.

Atlantic, usually a strong team, failed to get started. Their playing was not up to standard and none of the men seemed to have their heart in the game.

The Carroll team is to play the Olympics at League park next Sunday. The game promises to be good with the Carroll aggression fresh from a victory and the Olympics one of the strongest teams they have yet had.

Nick and Al Play Polo.
New York, Oct. 14.—Devotees of polo and horse racing who came to the Yankee stadium today were surprised with their favorite pleasures.

Nick Altrock and Al Schacht, the Bolivers of baseball, furnished both. They amused the early crowds with their two-man horse polo game, played with all the dash of Derwent Milburn, the internationally famous back, prancing about on a thorough bred pony.

Nick and Al were their own ponies. They fitted themselves into garments representing back horses on Broadway at 3 a. m. and smashed a horseball around the using their bats for mallets. Then in the afternoon they galloped out to a starting point on the running track that furnishes a border for the playing field and gave a foretaste of the international race to be held next week, between Zev, the American 2-year-old, and Papyrus, the champion English horse.

Curtis Aggies Win.
Curtis, Neb., Oct. 14.—In a game featured by many long runs the Curtis Aggies won from Cozad here yesterday, 25 to 0. Although never seriously threatening the Aggie goal the visitors, with Smith's hard ball smashes, and Cozad and Halverstad's short end runs worried the Aggie line-men.

Wymore and Nicolai, Aggie tackles, proved to be the defensive stars of the game while Razez with fine interference work and several long runs, J. McConahay with many short gains and one run of 80 yards for a touchdown, and Bobbio with several dazzling side-stepping sprints or various gains, were the offensive leaders.

Touchdowns were scored by L. Miller, McConahay, Razez and J. Nicolai. Bobbio dropped-kicked a field goal and one try for point. A place kick by Smith of Cozad missed scoring by inches.

The Curtis Aggies mix with Cambridge next Friday.
