Register Financial Gain

When you look back over the past few years can you be really honest with yourself in saying that you are gaining? Or do you find that you have had a good job, a good wife, a good time, but not even a respectable bank account? Just the receipts for a young fortune passed on to your landlord?

Check over your last year's rent receipts, add them, then just for the sport of it, compare the total with the cash needed to buy some of the homes advertised in the real estate columns
