

"Labor is in a bitter mood and a storm may break at any minute. dustry Must Undergo Change Demand for Action-Wets stch to The Or

Receives Ovation. seo. Cal., Oct. 18-N delegation, the other 36 delegates

When the storm breaks labor w march with a united front and at a iven signal." Further rioting at various indus trial centers gave new cause for alarm.

Lincoln, Oct. 18 .- The east is look At Mannheim, where 10 were re ing more hopefully upon the agriculported dead as the result of riots and clashes with the police last night, and where 100 met injuries, there was tural regions of the country, according to a statement of former Govcontinued unrest today. New out breaks were momentarily expected in spite of the fact that the death penalty was decreed by the military coma three weeks' trip to Chicago, Demand for any person guilty of inciting strikes or riots.

and Akron. At Gelsenkirchen the police head "Not infrequently it was said to me quarters were stormed by a mob of by prominent business men," Mr. Mc. satherings, the national dry act and the "law and order" conference with angry men and women. Three of the rioters were wounded when the po lice fired into the mob. Rioting, ascribed to the communists, get a breath of optimism we have to Saturday were the leading topics of dego west. Down here we are in the bate. broke out in the north German city of Heide. midst of gloom.'

Minor food riots were reported from "With factories running over-time. Leipzig. and with wages almost at the war

Claim Life's Savings Went

toHebb Motor Company the reasons become readily apparent. Lincoln, Oct. 18 .- Almeda S. Hin man of Wymore, Neb., testifying for "It is a fact that despite high wages and high commodity prices, the in-dustrial districts have not been getthe government in its case agains former directors of the Hebb Motore company, told today how she and her husband had invested the savting ahead economically. Wage earn-ers for the most part have been ings of a lifetime on the strength of spending all and more than their income, and manufacturers have been finding it increasingly difficult to comfinding it increasingly difficult to com-pete with imports that have been pro-duced at a very much lower cost. It nises of stock salesmen employed the company. She invested, in 1. $800 in liberty bonds and a real state mortgage valued at $2,000. duced at a very much lower cost. It is imminent, in the minds of the

Beatrice Man Charged

With Stealing Check that manufacturers in this country ocial Disputch to The Omaha Beatrice, Neb., Oct. 18 .- Frank Vicars was lodged in the county jail today charged with stealing a check amounting to $49.50 from the grocery spite the tariff. store of Montgomery & Pauley. He "This means one of two things: are made to wipe out the faking, he stoutly denies his guilt. He is out Either wages, manufacturing costs declared. "imposes a burden that is and commodity prices must come stupendous.") on $2,000 bond, pending a hearing of a former case in the supreme court, in which he was found guilty of a box car robbery a year ago."

Javhawkers Ready By Associated Press

Lawrence, Kan., Oct. 18 .-- Short 'dummy" practice completed the Jayhawkers' training this afternoon be fore they were to board a train for coln, Neb., where they will meet the strong Cornhuskers on Saturday. The Kansas eleven is regarded by portamen as one of the best teams urned out here in several years.

Another Full One

"That's fine," said Mrs. Kir-tenbrink, as she instructed a Bee ad taker to cancel her ] apartment advertisement. only ordered my ad in for three days, but I have rented the apartment, so please take it out.

Another full order of satisfaction served to a Bee Classified Ad user. We can rent YOUR apartment, too. Phone AT 1000 and try it.

IT'S RESULTS PER DOLLAR THAT COUNT or American Business Rally to Louisiana Will Suffer. Executive.

Special Dispatch to The Omaha Bee.

By International News Service. West Baden Springs, Ind., Oct. 18. in honor of President W R Pate of Prohibition today split wide open the Peru State Normal, and was atthe governors' conference. In spirited tended by nearly all of the school discussions, shoving aside those listed men of this part of the state. Presiin the regular schedule for the meet- dent Pate has the work well in hand ernor S. R. McKelvie, issued today, ing-taxation and agricultural relief at Peru and is very popular with the Mr. McKelvie has just returned from -lines were drawn sharply between normal faculty and students, as well the so-called dry and liberal state as with the citizens of Peru, as eviexecutives on the liquor law issues. denced by the action of the Commertroit, New York, Boston, Washington This subject became the paramount cial club in the meeting of last night. theme of the conference.

On all sides, especially in informal

Kelvie declares, "that "if we want to President Coolidge at the White House Wide confusion existed among the state chiefs on the challenge of Governor Pinchot of Pennsylvania, charging President Coolidge personally level, it is at first difficult to under- with full responsibility for the enstand this, but on a closer analysis forcement of the dry law. In characteristic Rooseveltian fash ion, the Pennsylvania governor, who acted as spokesman for the "bone dry" element, denounced the present system of enforcement and demanded that in order to make America thoroughly arid, the federal administration extend greater and more har

He lashed verbal rights and lefts at the methods used by the prohibition most thoughtful business executives, unit in Washington in issuing withthat this condition cannot continue, drawal permits. Thousands of the perwill feel increasingly the pressure of mits, he said, are being forged, with competition of foreign countries as the result that liquor is being flooded rapidly as the latter get back to work over the country in violation of the and begin to enter our markets, de- laws. To ask the states to stop this traffic, unless more strenuous efforts "This means one of two things; are made to wipe out the faking, he

He thought that the most suitable down or the domestic market will be Pinchot promised to lay bare this entered largely by the products of condition to President Coolidge at the foreign factories. With labor thor. White House gathering, with the addioughly organized and militant in tional warning that he intended to many lines, manufacturers dread the speak "straight from the shoulder." thought of readjusting wages down- The more liberal forces ralli-The more liberal forces rallied ward, for it means strikes and almost around Governor Parker of Louisians.

When Pinchot remarked that the interminable labor troubles. "fight against liquor is just begun," "Moreover, there is a good deal to be said on the side of the laboring Parker prophesied that "prohibition seems certain to become the major man, for rents are high and will conissue in the 1924 presidential camtinue to be so for some time. Also, paign, and in both parties." living costs, generally, are high. In Parker held little hope for "100 per that labor represents the major porthe cent enforcement."

tion of the cost of production, cost of living will decline somewhat as wages decline, but this is a ques-way to rid the country of the "prohition that is very difficult to argue, bition mess" would be to repeal the and the employer of labor is in Volstead act, to permit the manufacvery unhappy state of mind on acture of wine and beer, under the count of the dark cloud that looms strictest governmental supervision. up before him. Under the Parker flag were Gov-

I called upon President Coolidge ernors Hyde of Missouri and Silzer of it the White House and was invited New Jersey. to dine with him. Frankly, I did nost of the talking, but I was Whatever may be the political prompted to do this by questions that significance of Pinchot's moves, he were asked by the president, and the made it quite plain today that he pronature of these questions assured me poses to be one of the "dryest of at once that my interrogator was the drys." He intends to carry the quite thoroughly informed upon the dry battle cry all over his own state nost pertinent questions of the mo- and join with the citizenship conferment, relating to the farmer. Finally, ence in the nation-wide campaign to I asked him what he thought would enforce the liquor law to the very

Honor Guest at Dinner e. Neb. Oct. 18 -- Ches ter Porter, farmer living 15 miles Brock, Neb., Oct. 18 .- The Peru southwest of this city, is in a critical Commercial club gave a chicken pie condition from a bullet wound redinner at the Methodist church parceived from a revolver in the hands lors for the school men of southeastern Nebraska. The dinner was given of Tom Howard, who had been em-

It is said that both men, while under the influence of liquor, started to better their condition rather than platform. for North Platte, and when four injure them, as has been charged by miles south of town became involved in a dispute. Howard asked to be let out of the car, and as he stepped to the ground. Porter says Howard and the only reason that they have pulled a gun and shot him, the ball lived in cottages was the fact that odging in the back. Howard then walked away and Porter, though suf Day of Broken Bow Name fering intense agony, drove the car to Will Be Alumni Event the sheriff's office and reported the Aurora, Neb., Oct. 18-At the Rot. shooting. Sheriff Berthe and two ary club meeting it was decided that deputies started a search for Howard, in effort would be made to have all which continued all night and until n effort would be made to have all which of the business houses in town close noon today, when he was discovered during the afternoon when the foot in a canyon about 15 miles southeast ball team of Aurora plays the Broken of where the shooting occurred. How Bow or Hastings here. The day will ard has lived in this section of the be made a homecoming day for alum state for several years, and at times ni of the Aurora high school, and has gone under the names of Fred with all of the business houses closed. Teal and Fred Biehl, and is said to it is anticipated that there will be a have been involved in a shooting afarge and enthusiastic crowd at the fair between two gangs of rival bootootball game. leggers at Grand Island.

Headline in evening edition: "Says down street to a fire. Feel sorry for litics" in appointing and retaining of wife wanted his money; sues for di-vorce." Know a man right here in horses.

Omaha whose wife is always asking him for money. Doesn't know what she does with all the money she asks rant. Man middle aged; woman younger, gaudily dressed and handpainted. Stricken look on man's face; disdainfor. Hasn't given her any yet. To dinner with little party of thea. Stricken look on man's face: disdain-trical friends. Jolly folk. Seem to ful look on woman's face. Heard be as human as the rest of us. Pre-fer their company to that of some long enough to ruin another man's people who profess to look down on life." Sensed a tragedy, with perstage folk. haps a broken-hearted wife and moth er in the background, but went on Interrupted Edson Rich yesterday while he was trying to untangle knotty legal problem for Union Pa-cific. Long since discovered that the higher up you go the easier it is to if the since discovered that the since the since the since the since discovered that the higher up you go the easier it is to secure a hearing. My opinion is, that is one of the reasons men get to be among the higher-ups. Valuable sug-gestion here for some clerks in Oma-Wonder if the casual and brief visitors do not get the impression that ha stores.

Omahans live to est. My idea of embarrassing a man is Across the brakfast table from for his wife to delegate him to pur- Robert E. Lee Herdman. A little older chase something for her in the woman's wear section of a big depart- pretty accurate track of things politibut doesn't look it, and still keeps ment store. cal. Recalled some old battles in which Met A. A. Miller and J. C. Pedersen we fought together, he with a commis from old home town of Gering. Both sion and me a buck private. No oc here on important business and both casion for pernicious activity these hoping that business will hold them days, so conversation did not turn noping that builded as the builded as the conversion of politics. home by way of Lincoln and see the football game. Often wonder if this a small purchase. Hope some day Arthur B. Went, was granted a di-tootball game. Often wonder if this a small purchase. Hope some day Arthur B. Went, was granted a di-tootball game. Often wonder if this a small purchase. Hope some day Arthur B. Went, was granted a di-tootball game. Often wonder if this a small purchase. Hope some day Arthur B. Went, was granted a di-tootball game. Often wonder if this a small purchase. Hope some day Arthur B. Went, was granted a di-tootball game. Often wonder if this a small purchase. Hope some day Arthur B. Went, was granted a di-tootball game. Often wonder if this a small purchase. Hope some day Arthur B. Went, was granted a di-tootball game. Often wonder if this a small purchase. Hope some day Arthur B. Went, was granted a di-tootball game. Often wonder if this a small purchase. Hope some day Arthur B. Went, was granted a di-tootball game. Often wonder if this a small purchase. Hope some day Arthur B. Went, was granted a di-tootball game. Often wonder if this a small purchase. Hope some day Arthur B. Went, was granted a di-tootball game. Arthur B. Went, was granted a di-tootball ga tired business man stuff gets by with to inquire of floorwalker for directions Friend Wife. Just like a cool breeze without a quiver in my voice. Then here this week. through the open window to meet this over to bank to buy draft, very small. The allenation suit was carried to pair

Hope some day to arrive at position the supreme court and the Plaintiff Friend tells me he asked for two whereby I may feel I really don't was awarded a judgment of $3,000 pats of butter with his hard rolls have to take off my hat when ap- against the woman who later married vesterday morning, and the girl proaching a banker at his desk. wanted to know if he was the fellow Feeling somewhat abashed. Asked case was one of the most sensational which the that stuff for The Omaha young lady in store to wrap a parcel divorce trials in the history of the Bee. Feel flattered myself, but won so I might send it by parcel post. county. der how my friend felt.

Request complied with, but young Nothing exciting about fire trucks lady smillingly refused modest tip of Wendt, she was awarded $1,000 allmotor driven racing down street, fered. Unusual experience and somebe done for the farmer at Washing, letter. He politely refused to discusa motor driven racing down street. fered. Unusual experience and some mony, custody of their children ton, and he promptly replied that so the possibility that he might be the Younger generation will never know what flustrated me. Must recom- $25 a month for their support. far as he was concerned everything political standard bearer for the dry the real thrills we oldsters had when mend young lady for promotion. would be done that seemed feasible." wing of the republican party in 1924, the big fire horses went galloping W, M, M

Grand Island, Neb., Oct. 18 .- Ac- ka's girl cadets, already flushed from voted 1 for and 21 against the Kendtion taken by the state board of control in ordering aged veterans and their wives living in rented cottages can Legion here, rose to their greatadjacent to the soldiers' home here to est triumph today when they were de- down, was submitted by E. W. Whitmove into state quarters during the corated by Alvin Owsley, national le-coM winter months was an attempt Commander Owsley personally pin-certain persons living here. The average veteran is past $2 years of age: Practically all are feeble Jones, while a battery of cameras ligion and politics, and perpetuated the event and thousands home for them. This summer the new hospital was to the convening of the morning ses- politics of the members, now, there ompleted at the home. The quarters, sion.

of the old hospital have been ar-The cadets performed last night ranged into barracks, the board of before 15,000 gathered on the convenontrol believing that those outside tion floor and gallery of the Knights the home would be better satisfied. of Columbus show and dance. When the service man irrespective of be-In many quarters it is charged that their drill was completed they were lief in religion or politics and welwners of houses rented by the vet- accorded an ovation that lasted sev- comes all such to its fold. That with rans adjacent to the home are beeral minutes.

hind the protest filed with the state board of control. Everyone conversant with the situ- vention platform yesterday morning that the spirit of tolerance and good. tion knows that the board of con- and set a second precedent in being will be extended to all, irrespective trol, in building the new hospital for the purpose of getting more room for according to regular attendants at any society or organization whatsoquartering the rapidly aging veterans | legion conventions. and their wives, was actuated by the Mayor Rolph has given the girls A majority of the officers at the cial legion cars have been placed at best motives.

their disposal, nome are republicans, the board thus far absolutely refusing to "play polficials in any of the state institutions

The fact that Governor Bryan has partment of the legion. Most of the 360 visiting legionome out in favor of property owners inxious to continue collecting rentals naires from Nebraska will leave for from the old soldiers is looked upon their homes at the conclusion of Friwith suspicion by many residents here day's final session. In most cases as a pretext to force the board of they will take the route via Los Ancontrol to oust republican office holdgeles, permitting them a short stay ers and replace them with "deserving there and in the Grand canyon. . democrats.

Record Stock Shipment Aged Man Is Badly Burned While Lighting His Pipe

Special Dispatch to The Omaha Be

Beatrice, Neb., Oct. 18 .--- While ighting his pipe for a morning smoke at his home eight miles northeast of of Cheyenne county hogs for ship-Beatrice today, John Watjes, 87, was Beatrice today, John Watjes, 87, was seriously burned on the chest, left ide and abdomen when the match side and abdomen when the match ignited his clothing. It is thought he will recover.

Woman Who Won Spouse of Another After Balm

gion commander, on the convention a member of the klan, The resolution follows:

"Whereas, the convention of the ned the legion decoration on the American Legion 'recognizes the breast of each of the Hastings girls rights of the members thereof to their and their commander. Mai, Lawrence own free opinion in matters of re-

"Whereas, the basis of member entering below the stomach and there was not sufficient room at the of delegates and guests applauded, ship in the American Legion is serv-The decoration took place just prior ice, irrespective of the religion or fore, be it resolved, that

For "Tolerance, Good Will."

"The American Legion adheres te ts original purpose and stands for in this fold the question of such be The cadets began establishing prec- lief or affiliation be never raised to edents by parading across the con- the preudice or hurt of any one, but decorated by the national commander. or their belief in or adherence to ever, so long as the same does not conflict with allegiance to God and the government of the United States. Major Kendrick accused the Le gionnaires of "pussy-footing" on the So pronounced a hit have the girls made that a movement is now on foot among the 22 Nebraska delegates to the mask off things and see just nounced that he was there "to tear have the cadets recognized as a per- where we are. Far be it from me to manent institution of the state de inject into the convention a religious issue. However, much as I destre that such not be the case, there is a religious issue here and there has seen one for more than two years. The only way to meet the issue is to meet it squarely, meet it face to face, the same as we met other issues in times gone by.

"We can't pussy-foot in this or canization and get anywhere. Let's tear the mask off of things and see ust where we are.

Sidney, Neb., Oct. 18 .- At one time this week, there were 600 head of cat-"You all know just as well as I do, what happened in New Orleans tle in the Sidney stockyards for ship-You know perfectly well that Bill ment to St. Joseph, Mo., and 600 head (William) Deegan's candidacy was proposed down there and the most mportant factor regarding him was his religion."

enne county and the first time since the "cow days" that so many cattle Major Kendrick withdrew the state ment when it was objected to by California delegates and said: withdraw the statement that you all know it and merely that I know it Body Meets at Bethany and let me get a little closer to home Bethany, Neb., Oct. 18-The Ne-raska Ministerial association of the was proposed throughout the convention as candidate for comman and all sides I found my religion was Newens is the chief lecturer on the of vital interest to men in deciding whether they should or should not consider me as a possible command

"This is not a small matter to some

The Weather

were shipped at one time.

Handled at Sidney, Neb.

Hourty Temperatures

little village; it has got so that a great state had to declare martial For 24 hours, ending 7 p. m. October 10. Highest, 85: lowest, 44: mean, 50: nor-nal, 54. Total excess, deficiency since January time, that the way and it is high escess, deficiency since January time that the American Legion. if Relative Humidity, Percentage. Relative Humidity, Percentage. Son. 47 9, 10, 48 colutation, Inches and Hundredits cal. 4 Total since January 1, 29,71; it stands for, if it has what we thought it had in the war, if it has courage on both ends of the gue, if it has footing and come out in the open about these things that are desitruetive to our American government and is to our constitutior

Suit, Awarded Divorce West Point, Neb., Oct. 18 .- Mrs. Rose E. Wendt, who a few years ago

Christian churches of Nebraska met in annual session here. Dr. Adrian the plaintiff's former husband. The

In the decree just granted Mrs.

mony, custody of their children and Mr. Wendt figured in two divorce

W. M. M. suits prior to the one this week.

Christian Ministerial