

House Prowler Has Record for Avoiding Jail

Tubby Clark, Slim, Alert, Shifty, Has Been Often Arrested but Seldom Convicted.

Glenn (Tubby) Clark is not "tubby" at all.

He is quite the contrary—slim, alert, shifty—one of the most arrested and least convicted of Omaha police characters, according to Detectives Walter Lickert and Bob Donohue, who have, they believe, at last got him "with the goods."

Tubby's police record dates back to the days when he was a messenger boy. New detectives on the force as far back as 10 years ago remember him for his petit larceny "jobs."

Often "Vagred." He has been arrested numerous times as a "vag." He has been in police toils, charged with theft of automobiles, but usually got clear and never has been convicted for terms longer than six months in the county jail.

He is known to detectives as one of the hardest alleged crooks in the city to catch, and even when caught is lucky in escaping full penalty of the crime with which he is charged.

His most prominent escapade was alleged complicity in robbery of the Empress theater three years ago, when more than $5,000 was taken. He was tried but never convicted on that charge.

His depredations, say police, are confined in the main to petty thievery, and since acquiring the drug habit a short time ago he has been under surveillance almost constantly for thefts from parked autos and apartment houses.

Caught in the Act. At one time Motorcycle Sergeant George Emery and Jasper Kirk lay in wait and caught him stealing a robe from a parked car. For that offense he did a light sentence. His name is interwoven in almost every type of petty crime known to police of the city.

It appears in records of violation of the Harrison act, in those of the auto theft department, among the "vags" and those held for highway robbery.

Since his arrest Friday, detectives say they have recovered more than $5,000 worth of jewelry and wearing apparel stolen by him from apartments in the last three months. He is held in $2,500 bond while hundreds pass through the chief of detectives' office and identify loot recovered.

Ex-Congressman Is Sent to Prison

Toledo, O., Oct. 20.—Former Congressman Benjamin F. Welty, of Lima, was sentenced to one year in the workhouse and to pay a fine of $500 by Federal Judge Paul Jones last night.

Welty was found guilty by a jury on a charge of charging excessive fees in securing compensation for a disabled soldier. The evidence disclosed Welty charged $1,200. The law allows but $2.

Welty gained public attention several years ago when he joined Congressman Dial in an effort to unseat Judge Landis from the federal bench when he was appointed baseball commissioner.
