

Gibbon passed the leather. He hurled the ball straight for Mahoney, who Gibbon in the backfield and Neary was to the right of the line of battle. A Dakota player came in contact with the ball and the leather oval bounced the time picture of the time pi into the waiting arms of acting Cap-tain Gayer, who was downed on the Luepke tain Gayer, who was downed on the Jack Rabbits' three-yard line.

With the chalk line staring him in the face, Mahoney called upon himself to deliver the goods. He plunged head first into the mass of human beings on the opposite side of the line. Referee Thompson waded into the pile of gridsters only to find Mahoney over the line. "Mahoney again successfully booted the leather through the standards and the small group of Creighton fans breathed a sigh of relief as the Blue of Omaha took a seven-point lead.

Creighton took the field to start the second half full of what is known The in sport parlance as "pep." Creighton warriors no doubt had heard Coach Wynne tell them what was expected of them in the second half. Punts Exchanged. The two teams exchanged punts. and when South Dakota kicked to Creighton in the center of the field, Creighton in the center of the field in the c the Blue started for a touchdown. Another one of those spectacular passes, but this time Mahoney to Lower, was good for 36 yards. Ike flipped the leather through the air with plenty of speed and the fleet little Lower stuck his hands high into ittle Lower stuck his hands high into the air in order to catch the pass. He caught it and it didn't come down to earth until he was on Dakota's five-yard line. Yechout rushed head-long at the center of the Jack Rabbit line and it gave way. Now it looked like only few inches separated Creigh Mahoney called signals for a center plunge and again he took the ball plunge and again he took the ball over for a touchdown, and Creighton held a 20 to 7 lead. Just before the third quarter ended Creighton took the ball on downs on their own 33-yard line. The Bive (Heupel) ed Creighton took the ball on downs on their own 33-yard line. The Bire was holding. Creighton couldn't gain so kicked. So did South Dakota. Fin-ally Mahoney kicked out of bounds on the 20-yard line. Then came the imfracle feats, a series of forward passes that just fairly puzzled the Creighton players and caused the Creighton players and caused the Ldiy Creighton's 10-yard line. Owens fumbled on the next play and recov-ered. The Dakota fans held their breath. With the ball just a little way from the goal line, Dakota was penalized 15 yards for rough playing. It looked like the Jack Rabbits could not grore. Another conference was held. Two vass a failed and the third flip, Welch and the second second and Gayor on the line showed up best nneys Tigers rnam Alleys sman Hardware favette Cafe W. Ready Roofing is Elevator Co. ano Co. J. Murray B. Murray Starbeck Lippert Eckern Vanackeran Kinnamar Enceli Jones Stauffer Davis ayer (C) earn eman's eider Electric Co. dard Oil Co. Best O Cleaners H. Bath, Florist. mer for Cady, E. Weich, Bigert feily for E. Weich, Bigert Kelly for FitzGibbon, Speic y, Logan for Nolan, Bertogilo , E. Weich for Kelly. ae-Thompson, Drake. Hartma Referee-Thompson, Drake. Umpire-Egan, Grinnell. Head Linesman-Hartwell, Cornell.

LADIES METROPOLITAN LEAGUE. Standings. Kelley de Pleating and Button.11 by periods: Dakota

Stanton Huff Thoendel ELKS LEAGUE.

Co.

Individual Average. In Purshouse Karls 155 Woodbury 183 Vicek 189 Ham

The Turf Fixas Fixas Armstrongs Shorts Carmichaels Fitzgeralds Johnsons Yesterday's Results. LATONIA.

Individual Averages .190 Shields .189 Wills .189 Cox .188 Barron .185 Burke

BOOSTER LEAGUE.

.....

King Cole Oysters.....

antorium 12 ucks Five 12 ata Batteries 8 elson Electric Co. 7 erritt's Plumbing Co. 6 Sie Lochs 9 2018 Strain 191 artchow 191 artchow 191 artchow 191 artchow 191 artchow 191 Brannian 191 Wesley 1 artchow 183 W. Blomer Sciple 183 W. Blomer Sciple 183 Sciple 193 Constant Strain 193 Constant Strain 193 Constant Strain 193 Constant Strain 193 Constant 193 C

UNION PACIFIC LEAGUE.

Car Records Car Shops Store Department Division Engineers Machine Shope General Ouditors Audit of Freight Accounts.

Supt. of Transportstion Wenke 1771Meahan Norgard 1761Kent Storrs 176[Hehreps McAuliffe 170]Bloemer

PACKERS' LEAGUE.

.200

12

Won.

Pct. cessful and he kicked to Lewellen, sci who ran the ball to the Kansas 25-yard line, where he fumbled and Kan-tage sas recovered. wied, provided it was properly super-vised and not overdone. To take care of the large numbers that now are merely spectators he urged the further development of intermural ath sas recovered. Second Quarter.

Locke went in for Lewellen at the letics, and pointed out that intercolstart of the second quarter. G. Smith legiate athletics, splendid though they punted and it was Nebraska's ball were, must be carefully watched and not unduly commercialized. on their 38-yard line. Three attempts Senator C. B. Carney, chairman of to make first down failed and Locke punted out of bounds to the 50-yard the board of administration of Kanline. A pass, Black to Griffin, net-ted 7 yards, Burt put on 2 more, and clared that "There was a mighty com-Black crashed through center for radeship and fellowship between the first down. A succession of forward two states." passes failed and G. Smith stepped The exerci-The exercises were concluded with back for an attempted dropkick at the playing of Kansas and Nebraska goal, which fell short. With the ball in their possession on their own 20-yard line, Nebraska last strains of the Nebraska anthem been worn by the hoofs of the horses again looked like a winning team by died away the two university bands in three other races. naking four successive first downs, joined in playing "The Star Spangled wide end runs and drives through colors were raised from half mast to milling around at the post when more tackles and guards, that brought the full staff. Noble and Locke taking the ball for ball to the Kansas 4-yard line. It was The exercises were preceded by a race. first-class football and the Nebraska mile long parade through the streets Grim Mars Cassidy, apparently rooters were on their feet, crying for of Lincoln, in which the university viewing this race as no more impor-

a touchdown. However, the neces. R. O. T. C., representatives of the tant, at least from a starting standsary punch was lacking, and Kansas colleges of the university, and Kanist took the ball on downs. G. Smith sas university undergraduates who his rubber bar when the horses were immediately punted and the ball rolled are here for the football game, took in motion a couple of lengths back jogged their horse's back to the part. The exercises were well at of it, with his usual gruff shout judge's stand. out of bounds on the 50-yard line. Nebraska advanced the ball to the tended, the east stand being practical-Kansas 25-yard line, where it was ly filled.

lost on downs as the whistle blew for the finish of the half.

Third Quarter.

Minneapolis, Oct. 20 .- Minnesota Lewellen came back into the game, maintained unspoiled its much cher Locke going out. Kansas kicked off ished tradition of an annual football to H. Dewitz, who ran it back from victory over North Dakota by a 27 the 5-yard line for 18 yards. Noble to 0 win over the veteran Flickertail made 7 yards and H. Dewitz made it eleven at Northrop field today, which first down with a 3-yard gain. A left little doubt as to the tremendous pass. Lewellen to Noble, was inter-cepted by G. Smith on Nebraska's machine.

30-yard line." Three successive passes It was the 13th consecutive victory failed, and G. Smith tried his second in as many years for the Gophers dropkick, which went wide of the over North Dakota.

mark. Collier went in for Shannon. The powerful running attack of the Lewellen kicked to the Kansas 40-Gophers, a sampling of which was yard line, where Wier recovered the seen in both the Ames and Haskell ball. After a pass, Rhodes to Noble, games, was working like a unit had failed. Lewellen made 10 yards against North Dakota, and before it and first down. Fraker went in for the Flickertails were helpless. Led Freese, who was injured. After No- by Carl Lidberg, a pile-driving halfble and Lewellen had put on 9 yards, back, who was capably aided by Nebraska was penalized 15 for hold- Peterson, Oster and Captain Mar ing. A long pass, Rhodes to Noble, tineau, the Minnesota backfield ripped brought the ball to the Kansas 7 yard off gain after gain through gaping With four downs to make a holes in the Flickertail forward wall. line. touchdown, Noble and H. Dewitz Numerous gains of 10, 20 and even failed by 6 inches of getting the cov. 30 yards were credited to Lidberg and most of them were made on tereted 6 points. G. Smith punted to H. Dewitz, who rific charges through the line, 176 169 ran it back 8 yards 168 sas 40-yard ling. Noble broke through 168 for 11 yards and first down, but on 165 for 11 yards and first down, but on 165 for 11 yards and first down, but on 165 for 11 yards and first down, but on 165 for 11 yards and first down, but on 165 for 11 yards and first down, but on

NORTHWESTERN BELL LEAGUE.

MERCANTILE LEAGUE.

did Papyrus show any speed. The time of the race was 2:35 2-5. in front, holding this advantage going

Chris Fitzgerald, the man who into the home stretch, where Papyrus went to England to induce Ben Irish, and the hopes of the most optimistic owner of Papyrus, to send the winner Papyrus supporters died away comof the English Derby over here, says pletely. this is slow time.

Zev a Favorite.

Zev was favorite at 4 to 5 in the betting when the horses went to the post. Papyrus was at even money. The condition of the track changed the odds. Papyrus was at one period er grip in the ground. favorite. Zev's reputation as a "mudrunning' fool" came to mind when anthems, during which the colors of the spectators looked down upon that the universities were raked. As the slimy track, especially after it had

The horses were sent away without Papyrus couldn't get a real good foot Banner" during which the American hesitation, without the customary hold to stretch his speed muscles.

point, than a selling race, snapped

"come on!"

Papyrus had been in front more. little pony, who always leads the than a few strides when the white horses out of the paddock at Bel booded head of Zev-the hood is the mont, escorted them back down the badge of a "rogue" horse, a bad track as he had escorted them out actor-pushed ahead of the dark few minutes before.

Sande was some distance in front muzzle of the English horse. At the first turn, with most of the on the return trip. Sande politely hauled up and wait 60,000 people standing up babbling their thoughts, their hopes, aloud and ed for Donoghue to get alongside. with no one paying any attention to They jogged along together for a few what his neighbor was saying, Zev steps, exchanging conversation, Donoghue congratulating Sande and Sande was leading by two lengths.

Donoghue Small.

telling Steve he was sorry, but, etc. Sande was the first to raise his Donoghue, who looked like a little boy in the saddle, moved Papyrus up riding bat to the judges. Then the until his horse lay "nose to tail" with two jockeys sat on their horses for Zev, and then ran this way for a a moment and let the moving picshort distance. ture machines grind out turf history. Entering the back stretch, Papyrus Then they dismounted, lugged their was almost on even terms with Zev saddles under their arms to the scales for a couple of strides and the vague in the judges' stand, and were duly hopers in the stand began their: weighed out. The crowd, which had been cheer-

"Go on, Sande!" retorted the rooters ing intermittently from the instant for Zev, far outvolcing the others. Zev whipped by a winner, cheered Zev began drawing away. Papyrus again as Sande and Donoghue trudged aught up again for a stride or two, back to the paddock along the muddy then the white hood began definitely path just inside the fence. The great shoving ahead. Half way around the race, such as it was, was over. (Copyright, 1923.) track Zev was clear by two lengths.

Racing down the back turn Papy-rus once more edged up, but Sande promptly asked Zev for more speed, and the speed came. At the middle

3 o'Clock-Western League Park

And Many Other Collegiate Gridiron Stars

GENERAL ADMISSION $1.10-Tax Included

Swanson Nebraska

Leahy Creighton

Shearer Nebraska Healy Creighton Pid Purdy Beatrice

Coach Drennan of Creighton high school is working with a big squad of tanksters and should have a strong team in the meet. Robt. Diesing. Myles O'Rellly and Bill Baumer should help bring some medals to the Horsemen say that the adherence of Hilltoppers. Basil Jarvis, trainer of Papyrus, to Coach F. H. Gautsch of Lincoln old English methods, was responsible high school has promised a stronger for Papyrus' showing. A horse racteam than ever and should give the ing on a muddy track must be shod

Omaha schools a hard run for the with shoes that have little cleats so team championships trophy. that the horse's feet may take a firm Team trophy has been presented by Elmer Beddeo and medals are Papyrus was shod with smooth alu- furnished by the Omaha Athletic minum plates, the same kind Jarvis club. The meet will be open to the uses in racing on the turf at home, public. which horsemen say are useless in old-fashioned American mud. Poor Churchmen Tie

Papyrus Has Aluminum Shoes,

The man in the red coat, on the

With Coyotes, 0-0

Vermillion, S. D., Oct. 20 .- Resort-After they passed the judges stand, Zev far in front, the jockeys ing to punting continuously, with went away down the track easing neither team able to advance the ball into their opponent's territory by their horses down to a walk. A crowd immediately rushed out on the track and surrounded them. The consistent gains, South Dakota uni versity and Nebraska Wesleyan fought to a scoreless tie on Newman spectators were soon dispersed by the police. Then Sande and Donoghue field today.

Alabaster, fleet Wesleyan quarter-

Even obstinate, unruly or sham pooed hair stays combed all day in any style you like. "Hair-Groom" is a dignified combing cream which gives that natural gloss and wellgroomed eect to your hair-that final touch to good dress both in business and on social occasions, "Hair-Groom" is greaseless; also helps grow thick, heavy, lustrous hair." Beware of greasy, barmful imitations

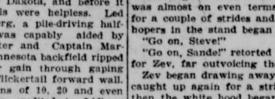

Fourth Quarter. vania outplayed Columbia in all de-Lewellen going out. Kansas elected partments, scoring all its points beto punt and it was Nebraska's ball fore the first half closed. Columbia on their 45-yard line. Noble and R. braced in the last half and fought Dewitz made first down in three Pennsylvania back by means of a pass, this time on the 50-yard line. A long pass, Black to Griffin, failed, but it was called again, and this time gained 35 yards for Kansas. The little contingent which had come up from Lawrence for the game leaped up and plead for a touchdown, the 176 up and plead for a touchdown, the 176 first real chance to cross the line 177 that Kansas had had. A short pass first real chance to cross the line penalized 15 yards for holding. A lumbia football team on Franklin pass, Lewellen to Noble, was inter- field today, 19 to 7. The home eleven cepted by G. Smith on the Kansas scored three touchdowns while the 23-yard line.

Locke came back into the game. plays, but on the next Locke was thrown for a 10-yard loss. For the third time G. Smith intercepted a

SEE

and a second secon

Pennsy Beats Columbia Philadelphia. Oct. 20 .-- Pennsylvania defeated Percy Haughton's Co-losers made one. In the first two periods Pennsyl-

Football Today

Minnesota Wins Again