

Pioneer Wymore Resident Is Found Dead in Bed

Wymore, Neb., Oct. 20.—Jim W. Sampson, 57, pioneer resident of this city, was found dead in his bed at the home of his mother, Mrs. J. B. Watts, a widow. He had lived in Wymore nearly all of the time since the city was platted 42 years ago. Thirty-nine years ago he is said to have been a brilliant student at school, and one day became overheated while playing ball, placed his head under a pump spout and pumped cold water on the back of his neck, the sudden shock retarding the development of his mind and body, physique. He seldom spoke a word but remained cheerful and sunny of disposition. Besides the mother, one survives. sister, Mrs. Ike Willis, of Wymore.
