

Driver License Law Is Gaining Ground in City

Civic Bodies, Police Head and Others O. K. Plan as It Nears Goal of Passage.

The proposed individual motor license ordinance of The Omaha Bee has passed the "good idea" stage and is being considered seriously by men and organizations instrumental in city government.

Police Commissioner Henry Dunn has a copy of the proposed ordinance and is highly pleased with its wording and scope. "I believe the ordinance proposed by The Omaha Bee would do much in adding the prevention of automobile accidents caused by negligence," he said.

The Pontenelle Improvement club already has passed a resolution endorsing the plan.

Victor B. Smith, chairman of the traffic safety committee of the Omaha Chamber of Commerce, is investigating the action of a similar law in other cities and his committee is considering the presentation of the Omaha ordinance.

Hundreds of prominent Omahans through their votes on the question, in a questionnaire printed by The Omaha Bee, have given the contemplated action the stamp of their approval.

Several Omaha clergymen have announced that they will urge acceptance of the ordinance from their pulpits.

Nebraska Beef on U. S. Vessels

Cattle Were Sold by Irwin Rancher to Former Governor Cox of Ohio.

Gordon, Neb., Oct. 23.—Cattle raised by J. C. Carson of Irwin, Neb., whose ranch is 10 miles east of Gordon, were sold to be used as beef in the dining rooms of ships operated by United States shipping board, according to a copy of a Dayton (O.) newspaper received by Mr. Carson.

The cattle, Hereford calves, were sold last November by Mr. Carson to former Governor Cox of Ohio, who shipped them to his ranch in Butler county, of that state. At time of purchase the calves averaged 500 pounds and after 242 days of feeding at Governor Cox's ranch they weighed 1,360 pounds and sold at a premium above fancy cattle at the time of the sale.

The Ohio paper praises the sand-hill cattle country of western Nebraska highly and states that Governor Cox expects to secure approximately 100 hundred head of calves here this fall.

Conductor, Hit on Thumb by Ball, Off Work 4 Months

Wymore, Neb., Oct. 23.—M. J. Lively, conductor on the Wymore division of the Burlington, has returned to work after losing four months on account of being accidentally hit on the end of the thumb with a pitched ball while he was catching for a ball team composed of members of his crew. It was necessary for him to go to a hospital at Rochester, Minn., where the right thumb was amputated. It was thought for a time that he would lose his right arm.

Prairie Hay Selling for $14 a Ton; Alfalfa 16

Washington, Kan., Oct. 23.—Prairie and alfalfa hay is now being shipped from this county quite briskly. The hay is all baled. Eight carloads have been sent from here, and 10 from Morrowville, just west of here, in the last week, besides six cars from Hadam and Emmons. The farmers are getting an average of $14 a ton for prairie hay and $16 for alfalfa. The shipments are moving to Omaha and Kansas City.

Fancy Hogs Bring $75 Each at Swine Breeders' Sale

Dewitt, Neb., Oct. 23.—In a sale here by several farmers of this vicinity, under the name of the Durcoo Swine Breeders' association, 30 fancy hogs were sold at prices averaging $75 a head. Eleven of the hogs were shipped by express to Norfolk, the others, with the exception of a few local purchases, going to points in the north part of the state.

AT THE THEATERS

WHEN you go to the dentist's with George LeMaire you get an altogether new conception of the amount of dental work that can be done in a short time. At the dentist's, LeMaire, one of the funniest comedians in the two-day, casts a new light on it entirely. "At the Dentist's" requires 16 minutes and it is 16 minutes of laughs to the minute. LeMaire left vaudeville a few years ago to be a dentist. He has been a comedian with Zigfeld Folies and his star twinkled brightly that he remained in the Zigfeld Folies for some time. They followed a starring tour in "Broadway Boulevard," and then an engagement with George White's "Scandals."

J. Jacques Eisenman announces the return to the speaking stage of Charles Day in the spoken play depicting James Whitcomb Riley's "The Girl I Loved." It is the heart story of a clean youth, and the proper person to play it is one who understands that type of clean, hearty, boyish love. "The Girl I Loved" will be his attraction at the Strand for three days beginning Sunday night, next, with a matinee on Tuesday.

Creating a new record for laughs, Billy Main and his comedy partners at the New Embassy have crowded that theater to the doors this week. As "Private Goldbrick" Main is a comedy riot. He is given great support by George Crabb, Hugh Main, James LeRoy, Mario Main and the others of the big company.

The fundamental purchase of Columbia business being to create laughter in a clean way. It may be said that "Whirl of Girls," now at the Gayety more than fills the requirements exacted by the circuit officials whose never ceasing work is to win and hold the confidence of the amusement loving public. Gayety goes into a season of "The Fun and Frolics" under the leadership of Fred Fisher Binder and the principal mirth-makers and they do the work well. Ladies' matinees at 2:15 daily.

Horse Dies of Swamp Fever; Farmers Take Precaution

Stark Valley, Neb., Oct. 23.—Mrs. F. W. Schmidt, living on a farm in this community, lost one of her horses which died with swamp fever. A veterinarian is attending one of her other horses afflicted with the same disease. The recent heavy rains have made the marsh malaria quite prevalent, and the farmers have been taking extra precaution against the spread of swamp fever, which results from this condition.

Blaze Follows Pool Hall Robbery; Report Oil Used

Columbus, Neb., Oct. 23.—Following a fire which swept the C. F. Willits pool hall at Silver Creek, Neb., during the night, but which was put out by volunteer firemen before the building was destroyed, it was discovered that the place had been broken into and looted before the fire. Coal oil had been poured on the floor and three pool tables and near the back door, where entrance was obtained by the thieves, who are said to have obtained $150 in cash and merchandise valued at $300.
