

Ku Klux Wizard Rapped for Stand on Americanism

Omaha Jews, Catholics and Negroes Defend Their Patriotism Against Charge of Simmons.

Statements of Dr. H. W. Evans, imperial head of the Ku Klux Klan, made in a session of the Knights at Dallas, Tex., that Catholics, Jews and negroes in this country prevented a great assimilation of Americans, are all wrong, according to Omaha leaders in the respective denominations.

Rev. William J. Grafe, dean of arts and sciences of Creighton university, said:

"Dr. Evans is all wrong. Allegiance of the Roman Catholics to Rome is not in spiritual matters. It is not a temporal allegiance. The pope in Rome is regarded as a successor to St. Peter, head of the church. If a man or woman does not acknowledge spiritual allegiance to this head, he or she is not a Catholic. The same allegiance is taught in the parochial schools along with allegiance to the United States."

Rev. Rabbi Frederick Cohn declared:

"It is in the old life of Haman that only Jews are apart religiously, as all the denominations differ from one another, as they have a right to do in this land of religious equality guaranteed by the constitution. But politically, nationally, they are 100 per cent American. The highest interests of America are their interests. Politically they have no interests apart from the American republic, whose ideals of freedom, justice and humanity are their own."

Rev. John Albert Williams, pastor of St. Philip the Deacon Episcopal church, said:

"I do not agree with Dr. Evans. The negro has shown that he is capable of becoming a true American. He has shown that he is able to assimilate human culture, art and religion. The white man was first a savage just as the negro was. History has proven this."

Dawes Organizes U. S. Minute Men

"Hell and Maria" General Stops in Omaha on Way to Hunting Grounds.

Gen. Charles G. Dawes, first director of the national budget, visited Omaha friends for a few hours yesterday, en route to Wood Lake, Neb., with a hunting party. With the general were his brother, Rufus C. Dawes, and the latter's son, Charles, Evanston, Ill.; Knowlton L. Ames, president of the Booth Fisheries company; Glen Griswold, editor of the Chicago Journal of Commerce, and J. E. Otis, president of the Central Trust company of Illinois.

The general is a director of the Chicago, Great Western railroad, and Mr. Otis is a director of the Santa Fe railroad.

The general's interest is not piqued by any reference to "Hell and Maria," with which designation he was prominently identified during the war.

"I am interested just now in the Minute Men of the Constitution," the general said at the Omaha club. "This is a nonpartisan organization designed to organize a majority of the people into political constituencies, to

AT THE THEATERS

"THE Passing Parade," a spectacular revue with Fred Ardath and a cast of 25 people is the feature of the World Saturday. Supporting Ardath is Muriel Day, Sammy Weston, Grant and Adair, Francis Marchant, David Reese, Jack O'Brien, William Singer, and 14 Broadway beauties. The revue is the same bill will include "The Girl and the Company," "Dance 'Em Around," with Weston and company and Fred Ardath in "Much to Say About Nothing." The current six act bill with the Barton Revue and other attractions will be seen for the last time tomorrow night.

Everybody says that Billy Maine and his associate players at the New Empire are offering the most laughable entertainment of the season. The new records are being broken this week. Saturday afternoon matinee is scheduled, children under 12 will be admitted free with each adult admission. Next week, Billy Maine offers, "Private Childrick's Return," the adventures of the dumbbell after getting back to civilian life.

To the limited few who haven't been to the Gaiety in years a visit will be a revelation. Gone are the crudities, the silliness, the suggestiveness, the hollowness of the old days (and nights), when burlesque was especially produced to cater to male patrons, and in their stead is offered from week to week a delightful and as acceptable entertainment composed of musical comedy and vaudeville, as one would wish to see. This week's offering of Columbia burlesque is a fair sample of the weekly change, except that the current bill, "Whirl of Girls," contains more laughter than is really necessary.

There isn't a loyal booster to Omaha who will not find it worth while to see Charles Ray, cleanest of youthful stars, in his depiction of the hero in a spoken dramatization of James Whitcomb Riley's famous poem, "The Girl I Loved," which will be presented at the Handkerchief theater for three days, starting Sunday evening. The play depicts life in Indiana during the formative years of America and the pioneer days of that famous state, and in scenic production every endeavor has been made to adhere strictly to historical details. Jacques Eisenman the producer, has secured an excellent supporting company for Ray, and believes that he has a vehicle which will give the young star an opportunity to display his dramatic gifts to the best advantage.

Although Sylvia Clark's name has long desired headline space in stardom, this wholesome miss is playing her first engagement before Omaha theatergoers at the Orpheum this week. Miss Clark is billed as "The Kissing Little Kiwi." She is a song buffoon, but her buffoonery is of the artistic sort. Miss Clark returns to the two-day from an excursion as "leading lady" with the "Greenwich Village Folies." Before that she was with Raymond Hitchcock in his edition of "Hitchy Koo of 1912."

Midland to Have Reunion, Nov. 2

Over 500 Guests Are Expected to Attend Big Homecoming Celebration.

Fremont, Neb., Oct. 24.—Midland's annual homecoming celebration will be observed on November 2, when the Grand Island football team and the Midland warriors will clash in the feature event of the day. Over 500 guests are expected to be in attendance at the homecoming party and Midland reunion.

The day's events will start off with a big "pop" meeting at the college chapel. Following this meeting a basket picnic will be held on the campus.

the streets will add to the festivities. A superior aggregation of celebrated attractions will be offered. It was announced. At 3 o'clock, the Midland-Grand Island football game will be called. Midland's record thus far this year is unspotted. Grand Island has a strong team again this season. Last season the Grand Islanders were the only ones to hold the Midland championship team scoreless.

Between the halves of the big game, two teams made up of old

M. men will stage a contest. At 6:30 in the evening a big family supper and reunion will be held at Hotel Pathfinder. Long speeches will be made. Entertainment of a unique nature will make up the program and moving pictures of the Creighton-Midland game will be thrown on a screen, according to present plans.

Fire Loss of $5,000.

Beatrice, Neb., Oct. 24.—Insurance men finished adjusting the loss at the Rialto theater, which was damaged by fire last week, and workmen at once began repairing the block. The loss was fixed at $5,000 and will amply cover the expense of improving the block.

Farmer Near Plainview Is Feeding 1,800 Sheep

Plainview, Neb., Oct. 24.—Sam Mortensen, living a few miles southwest of here, has received six double deck carloads of sheep from Belle Fourche, S. D., making a total of 1,800 sheep, averaging 50 pounds each, which he has bought recently for the purpose of wintering.

Hurt While Threshing.

Beatrice, Neb., Oct. 24.—Edgar Burroughs had several bones broken in his right foot when he got it caught in a belt while threshing at his place. He was brought to the city for treatment. He is a brother of A. L. Burroughs, who operates a grain elevator at Rockford.

THE STYLE IS ALWAYS RIGHT IN HART SCHAFFNER & MARX COATS

THERE'S nothing that you wear that attracts more attention than your overcoat. It ought to be favorable attention. It will be if the coat is right—in style, in fit, in quality and in price.

there's plenty of ease and freedom in every one of them

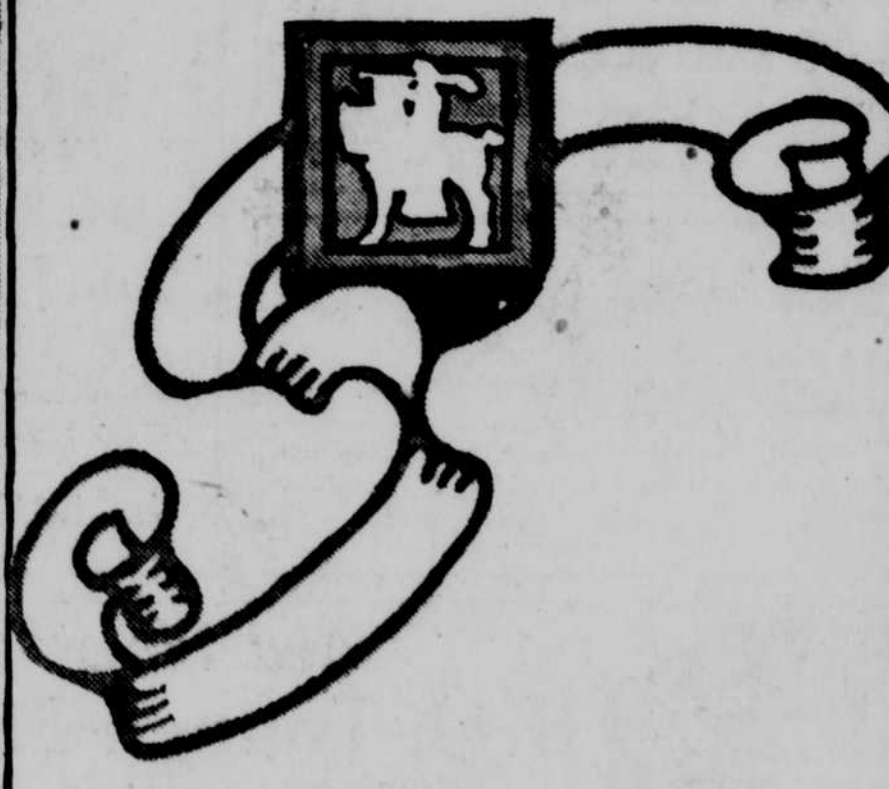

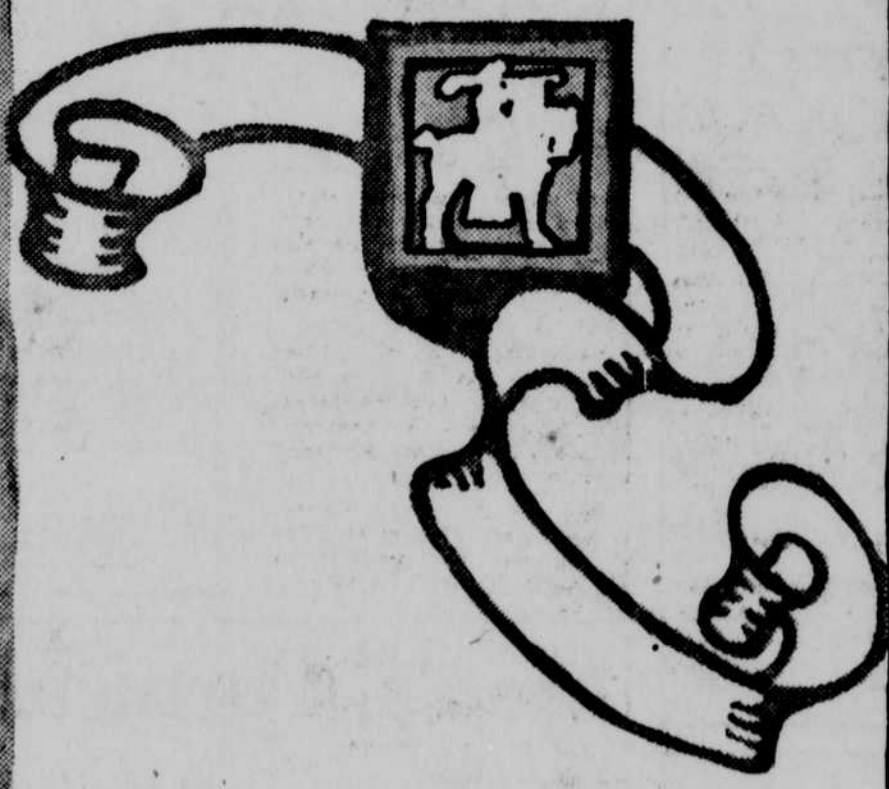

You may like the belted coats; they're good; half belts at the back; or three quarter belts or belts all around

The full coats that hang generously from the shoulders are especially stylish; single or double breasted models

Our name in the coat takes care of everything; it guarantees satisfaction

Several of the new coats are pictured here. They are all loosely draped;

Choose whatever coat you like: if our label is in it—it's right
