Recital. A piano recital for Monday evening November 13, is being arranged by Matthew H. Slater, who will be assisted by Miss Faustina Arany Ingwerson and Stanley Jan Letovsky of Omaha.

Attractive Party. Mrs. William J. Heiser and Mrs. Xenophon W. Kynnett completed a series of affairs with an attractive luncheon and bridge for 16 guests last Wednesday at Mrs. Heiser's home.

A color scheme of yellow was carried out in the decorations and menu and at bridge the prize winners were Mrs. A. V. Hennessy, Mrs. Thomas Green and Miss Gertrude Weeth of Omaha.

Event to Come. A dinner at the Grand hotel for 42 couples is being arranged by Mr. and Mrs. Pusey McGee and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lindsay before the next party of the Tuesday Evening Dancing club, which will be on November 6.

American Legion Fete. The annual autumn festival planned by the American Legion auxiliary at the Auditorium on Wednesday evening will dominate all other social activities this week, and great preparations are being made by the many Council Bluffs and Omaha citizens who expect to attend.

The hall will be luxuriously decorated for this auspicious occasion and some delightful entertaining features will be provided during the evening, with a number of novel ideas to make the event a great success.

Strictly speaking, this will be a fancy dress masquerade affair, and prizes will be awarded on the costumes, but any one who wishes to attend may do so by wearing a mask on the dancing floor until 10 o'clock, when they may be removed. Gallery seats will be furnished spectators, a popular orchestra has been engaged for dancing, and any guest wishing masks, horns and other novelties suggestive of Halloween may secure them at a booth which has been erected in the building.

Society is giving its fullest support to this affair, which will be a very colorful one.

To Furnish Music for Picture. The celebrated proteplay, "Fabiola," is to be shown at four performances this week in St. Francis auditorium, and on Monday evening, music especially written for the picture will be furnished by Mrs. R. K. Wernsdorff, a talented and accomplished pianist who has recently come to Council Bluffs to reside.

Game to Draw Large Crowds. Council Bluffs will be well represented at the Iowa-Michigan football game next Saturday as a large number from here plan to leave for Iowa City on Friday evening in a special car, returning to Council Bluffs on Sunday.

Needle Work Guild

Garments Needed for Disabled Soldiers. The annual meeting of the Omaha section of the Needlework Guild will be held November 8 and 9 in the Scottish Rite cathedral at Twentieth and Douglas streets.

The object of the Needlework Guild of America is to collect new, plain, suitable garments to meet the need of hospitals, homes and other charities, as well as individuals.

Membership in a branch consists of an annual contribution of two or more new articles of wearing apparel or household linen, or a donation of money. Men, women and children may become members.

The Omaha branch was organized in 1917. Three of the charter members of the organization Mrs. W. G. Templeton, Mrs. W. A. Smith and Mrs. J. O. Philippi are still devoted workers. That the growth of the organization has kept pace with the growth of the city these figures bear evidence: In 1917, 642 articles were collected; in 1922 there were 9,993 articles distributed among 26 organizations and also to private cases.

These private cases are cared for through a special committee, principals of schools or other responsible persons vouching for each case.

This year there is a special call for garments for disabled soldiers.

The officers of the Omaha branch of the Needlework Guild are: President, Mrs. W. W. Carmichael; vice president, Mrs. Charles R. Sherman; secretary, Miss Elsie Goetz; treasurer, Mrs. George Henderson.
