Lou Barry AT THE GAYETY

Outside

New York

Shows

By SIME SILVERMAN.

NEW York, Oct. 27.—In the box score records of the Metropoli-tan dramatic critics published in

'Variety" this week, James Craig of

The Mail." leads with a percentage

World," is second at .462; John Corbin of "The Times," is third at .455,

and Alan Dale of "The American,"

20 failures on Broadway since the new plays had been entered in the

The basis of figuring for the per

of the critics, right or wrong, according to the length of time the play on the opening show. Goldbrick in consummate "boob" as he was in the army and the adventures he en counters down in the little country village is a certain cure for the blues.

All the favorites, Billy Maine, Marie

Maine, Beulah Hayes, James Le Roy,

Ada Billsbury, Eugene Carey, George

Crabble, Fred Ford, Paul Landrum

and the dozen others are seen in roles that fit them like the proverbial glove.

Among the song numbers introduced

"There's a Mother Waiting Still,"

Should I Cry Over You," "You're My

Miss Hayes and the four harmony

The picture feature is of unusua attractiveness and serves to present production, "The Love Piker." Miss

Stewart is given exceptional support

An elborate production at the which plays that theater all

OLD MAN JOHNSON'S

ADDED

The Original

Jazz Band

by a big cast of well-known players.

his comedy work in this show las season. Bernice La Barr, last season

"Swinging Down the Lane," hounds.

"Great American Desert,

"Variety's" scoring is based upor fourth with .444.

.536. Heywood Broun of "The

New York Theaters By PERCY HAMMOND.

New York, Oct. 27. ET us be kind to Mr. Ziegfeld this week and talk as little as possible about the new Follies "publicly rehearsed" the other night at $22 each for orchestra chairs. In his enthusiasm over this his farewell revue, Mr. Ziegfeld had collected enough material for three shows some of it very good. A trustful fellow, it was his plan to depend upon the first-nighters to tell him what was worthy and what was not. Since the play continued from 8:30 to 2:15, these judges were confronted by sev-eral difficulties. The many virtues of the entertainment were at times obscured by its many faults.

Therefore it is only fair to Mr. Ziegfeld to defer a report of the final Follies until it has been made more presentable. Within a fortnight he will have separated the dross from the gold and the national institution will be itself again. It is a newsman's duty, however, to record that Mr. Ziegield's important comedians now include Hap Ward, in an exnumation of the ancient Ward and Vokes sketch, "Percy and Harold;" Miss Fannie Brice and-well, that seems to be about all. Most of the fun was made by a vaudeville team itherto unknown to the big shows-Bert and Betty Wheeler-in a briny surlesque of the "Mammy" songs. Of ourse the American girl was glorified thoroughly by Mr. Ziegfeld's rainnow tailors, and as a spectacle it was uandsome and immense. All it tacked was the leaven of laughter. Where a seemed to be lamenting, are Will Rogers, Bert Williams, Eddie Cantor, Frank Tinney, Don Barclay, Leon Errot, W. C. Fields and Jimmywas it Johnny-Dooley?

It is not, I trust, an impropriety to whisper to you that in one of Mr. Ziegfeld's lovely tableaux some slim and shapely ladies appear, wearing no way revues nude women are to be Miss Ethel Barrymore, Miss Neysa McMein, Frank A. Munsey, William Randolph Hearst, Herbert Swope, Miss Nora Bayes, Miss Cissie Loftus, John MacCormack, Lee Shubert, Victor Herbert, Miss Billie Burke, Frank rowninshield, Miss Catherine Calvert, Ring Lardner and Mrs. Charles Dillingham.

None of them, however, endured the more patiently than did Mr. Ziegfeld's rival impressarios. Comfortable smiles were to be seen upon the visages of Sam H. Harris and Irving Berlin, of the Music Box Revue, and George White of George White's Scanlals, almost laughed himself to death tics, and Earl Carroll, of "Earl Careasily when it is at the expense pect that the slowest items in the thor of "Aren't We All?" in "The isles. Bridegroom" and "The Spring Clean-

Your correspondent is not among f not having a sense of humor. By axing the Broadway first-nighters $22 for a seat, he proves, I think, that laughter ripples in his sleeve. York he knows, is the dogtown de luxe and its little servile barks of disapprobation disturb him but for a moment. An honest, a proud and liberal man, he spends derson. upon his productions as much as it s possible to spend. But in case you featured. think that he is only a solemn ac-torial chap, not knowing a joke when he sees it, I must tell you of an inident of the first, or $22, night of the Follies. At 1:30 a. m., when the proceedings were growing a bit tedious, a disturbance occurred in the fifth row of the parquet. Eddle Cantor, an erstwhile employe of Mr. Ziegfeld, was to be seen with hammer and hisel, digging up his orchestra chair. When agitated ushers endeavored to pede him he brushed them aside. I pald $22 for this seat " he shouted 'and I'm going to take it home."

Other plays have been presented in New York this week, but none of ourse, so newsy as the Ziegfeld Fol-Mr. Richard Bennett, in "The Dancers," appears now as a noble live-keeper in the Canadian north-west, and then as Lord Anthony Chevieley, madly tossed between his onk-a-tonk girl (Miss Kathlene Macionnell) and a neurotic patrician shimmieste of Hyde park London Miss Florence Eldredge). Sir Gerald iu Maurier wrote it and he has had of a tragic jealousy on a snowbound North Dakota prairie, wherein a mean young Irishman, envenomed by his own petty suspicions, murders at the end his true, but human, wife (Miss Beth Merrill). . . . Miss Frana work by Frank Mandel and Guy Bolton, illustrates again the hazards that beset an artistic village maiden who comes to New York, determined to be successful, though vir-She has remantic troubles with a banker, a broker, several art editors, a musician and a hick boy from the home town; but at the end she appears to have got away with Next week Sir John Martin-Harvey, in the "Oedipus Rex" of Sopho cles, and other classic entertainments

There isn't a chance to dodge the name of Fairbanks. The nimble press agent of Douglas fr., advises us with bated breath that the lad has all his dad's versatility-he starts us off with the hint that the boy is an expert trap drummer. So there.

Joy Sutphen declares that someon is pulling the unfounded rumor stuff, "The Covered Wagon" will not play any other Omaha theater this year, he says-and unnecessarily adds the word, "positively."

What the Theaters Offer

He is supported by 35 other players garments whatsoever. In other Broad most interesting adventure of a great including Sammy Weston, Muriet legitimate race. American is now brought out by Dae, Billy Grant, Ruth Adair, Wilseen, but not so completely as are Charles Ray, who has the leading liam Singer, Francis Marchant, Jack centages was on the written opinion those in the new Follies. Yet so ar-tistic are the disclosures and so in-the stage from James Whitcomb Betty Barrett, Little Yoshii. Phyllis ocent withal that they evoked from Riley's poem, "The Girl I Loved." the first night spectators no outcries Tradition has it that when it became of shocked modesty. Lest you think known that Riley had written of his of shocked modesty. Lest you think that these onlookers were hardened drew it from circulation as far as he dances and music. Making up the of me sat 18 respectable New York do the greatest acting of his career irramatic crities, including myself; in "The Girl I Loved," which comes a few of them were. Within 20 feet could do so. Charles Ray is said to vaudeville portion of the bill are a to the Brandeis theater for three days beginning with the performance to-the principal cities, has mounted the play lavishly and in scenic production every endeavor has been made to ad. Betty Barnett. here strictly to historical detail. Every member of the company has lar type and the cast is an excellent

Y'Spice of 1922" will be presented at the Brandeis theater for three nights beginning Thursday and with a Sat. star, mistress of every mood and urday matinee. There has never in some of the duller moments of the been a No. 2 company of "Spice" lines the bill at the Orpheum this play. John Murray Anderson, of the and the original company has week. Omahans will remember Miss Greenwich Village Follies, appeared been held intact. The critics of the White for her clever work in associao be pleased by the more stupid an Pacific coast have been outspoken in tion with the late William Rock. roll's Vanitier," managed to chuckle best and funniest production ever two-a-days after starring in Ziegfeld Gayety is promised in the while others yawned. They, perhaps, sent out from New York. The com- Follies, Greenwich Village Follies. Tons," like Mr. Ziegfeld and other revue pro-ducers, laugh easily. They laugh even tinental tour, ranging from coast to Harry B. Watson and Reg. Merville Barry, who will be remembered for coast and back again, in Phi of an opponent entrepeneur. I sust the coming Christmas week. After edy production, "Fifty Miles from new Follies are the contribution of until next summer, when it is an son's big vaudeville productions, ties," occupies the same role in the George M. Cohan, in "The Farewell ticipated that it will be sent across There is a big company, lots of mu- "Bon Tons." Case," and Frederic Lonsdale, au the Atlantic for a tour of the British sic and dancing and many novelties favorite, is the soubrette, while Sam

The company aggregates 100 peoing." How was Mr. Ziegfeld to know antil we told him that they were lish comedian, and his singing partner. In "The Awkward Age," between of followers in this city. There are he many who suspect Mr. Ziegfeld then known as Cuddles; Arman Kaliz, is presented by Eve Lynn, Clyde Dil- sprightly musical numbers. Particu-Alice Ridnor, Martha Browne, James Gaylor, Maris Chaney, Eddie Fox, Eddie Cornell and George Anderson. There is also a chorus of the season will be presented by Carl40, and the eight Pepperpots are also ton Emmy with his "Mad Wags". dy, "First Year," here at the Branton Emmy with his "Mad Wags".

> Billy Maine, comedian at the New Empress theater, has an enviable record. Enlisting in the One Hundred Eleventh engineers, Thirty-sixth division, at the first call to arms, Maine's discharge papers show 60 consecutive days in battle, including St. Mihiel and Argonne. Maine has been in theatricals 15 years. He got his start as a youngster with Gus Edwards' "School Days."

> Tommy Gibbons, whom sport writers have labeled the "smiling hero of the ring," appears in person at the World theater next Saturday as the feature of a six-act bill. Gibbons skips rope, does some shadow boxing. demonstrates in slow motion some of the blows he used in the Dempsey Gibbons affair, and for a finish boxes three fast rounds with Bill Hart, his sparring partner.

What the World theater management regards as a distinct achievement is appearance at the World this week of the musical comedy extrava-

THE WORLD'S GREATEST

LIDDEN away from most of his ganza, "The Passing Parade," featurtellow countrymen for years be- ing the comedian, Fred J. Ardath. Paige and 16 Broadway beauties. Offered in seven spectacular scenes, of the ordinary balancing and contortion is supplied by these wonder J. Jacques Eiseman, under whose direction Ray is making a tour of the principal attimum and the Francis Marchant, Madge Miller and

Matis Chaney AT THE BRANDEIS

Immediately preceding the big show Fred J. Ardath has much to say about been especially chosen for a particuthur Hays offers a new organ nov-"A Wife's Romance" with an Sweet Mamma Now" and specialties by all-star cast is the photoplay feature.

Frances White, musical comedy emotion known to stage art, headdeclaring that "Spice" is the biggest, Miss White has just returned to the Harry B. Watson and Reg. Merville Barry, who will be remembered for Philadelphia, the company goes south Broadway," which is one of the seain staging and effects. Nate Leipzig, Raynor, Louise Wright, Walter Lamaster card manipulator, has a kit Foy and Eddie Simmons are all old Flo Bert! Georgie Price, remembered childhood and maturity, Herbert Hall two acts and twelve novel and color from his juvenile days when he was has dealt most effectively with this ful scenes in the show which are enthe vaudeville partner of Lila Lee. age in his playlet by this name, which livened by a dozen tuneful and equally at home in light opera and son and Lillian Lee Anderson. Ben larly true is this of the "Wine, Wom vaudeville; Jack Trainor, Florence Ryan and Harriet Lee offer a skit an and Song" scene, "the Lingerie entitled "One and Won is To." Haw scene," "the Jewel scene," and "the Throop, Arthur Corey, Elsie Wachta, thorne and Cooke are two comedians Chorus Girls' Dressing Room scene." Downing, Johnny Berkes, on a hunting expedition. Their I. B. Hamp, the well known writer, Thomas Morris, Dolores Suarez, laughs are their game. Their am- is responsible for the book. Today's ious." One of the surprise acts of munition is called, "Make Me Ser- matinee starts at 3:00. The setting and introduction of this deis theater for a week starting Noset is novel and unique. Pathe News, vember 11. Golden characterized the Topics of the Day and the always comedy as a "comic-tragedy of marentertaining crazy cat series, "Aesop's ried life," and when it opened for its Fables," also are on this week's bill, run of two calendar years on Broad-Billy Maine, the original laugh way, it was a sensational success naker now at the New Empress and mostly because of its lack of sensahis big company of players, start the tionalism. At the head of the cast second week of their limited engage- will be: Scott Welsh, John W. Ranment here offering Charles Morton's sone and Patricia O'Hearn,

BURLESK Twice Daily All Week Ladies' Pop. Price Mat. 2:15 Wk. Days

50 People 35 or 45 50

MUSICAL ORGANIZATION OUSAHIS DAND

Auditorium -- Saturday, Nov. 24

TWO POPULAR CONCERTS

Music for the Masses-Selected by the Master

IN AN EASY-TO-TAKE CAPSULE OF MELODY, MUSIC AND MONKEYSHINES

Today's Bargain Matinee at 3 BEST 50c

When you see a show here you POSITIVELY get the New York Cast and Production—no No. 2 company; no small town outfit foisted upon you; no make-shift aggregation to steal your time and money. Instead, the Identical Organizations that play ALL the big cities. This week with .166.

Alexander Woolcott of "The Herild." stands fifth at .333, the same percentage gained by Burns Mantle

Fannie Ward, the champion face foreign Riccordi company he has quotations as a news item, not as adseason opened. Until this week 49 just heard that some years ago, over vertising.

remained in Times Square. Where night. Induced to return to the stage no opinion was expressed it counted against his judgment, and $1,000 weekas a cipher and figured in the total ly being the great inducer, Ward now Through that, Percy Hammond, of threatens to sue Ziegfeld for $15,000. the Tribune, who failed to give a positive decision on several plays. dropped to the bottom of the list, Amsterdam theater for that one eve-

of "The News."

much salary. uplifter of two continents, has informed friends the reason she no. longer smiles is that it might ruin her latest operation. As she has gone the limit, there is no next operation available for her phiz.

'Avalon' and "Cho Chow San" upon his pet operas. "Tosca" and "Madame Butterfly. The foreign Ric cordi admits it might have happened but passes the buck to the New York Riccordi, an independent branch.

Dialogue previously never heard on the American stage of late has been rampant in New York's playhouses and action is threatened. "Variety" this week is editorfally warning the producers of ribald box office plays they are endangering the entire show business through this manner of pro-

Three more shows fold up this week in the theatrical section. "Launzi" is one, a Molnar piece of a week's duration. Molnar's "Swan" opens Tues. rect and show them how to act for day night in New York and may have a life although Montreal and Detroit walked out on it- Another is 'Tweefles," the Booth Tarkington play, his second failure so far of this young season. "Zeno," a mystery piece, came in behind scheduled time for its class and is also departing.

Hap Ward opened and closed with Ziegfedl's new "Follies" Saturday "The Follies" opened to a $22 top scale that drew over $24,000 into the ning. Ziegfeld is now charging regularly $5.50. At the price he can do $44,000 weekly at the Amsterdam. Last week Ziegfeld sent out his annual squawk about actors getting too

Prohibition Commissioner Haynes in Washington this week instructed his legal division to proceed against The Clipper for publishing weekly in its prohibition pages the current liquor prices around New York. The Puccini in Milan has notified the Clipper publishes the bootleggers'

and Monday and Tuesday Three Days Only

SPECIAL POPULAR MATINEE TUESDAY, 2:30 P. M.

-His Greatest Triumph CHARLES

(IN PERSON) Supported by an Excellent Cast in the Spoken Play

Adapted for the Stage from the Poem by James Whitcomb Riley-

TOUR UNDER DIRECTION J. JACQUES EISEMAN

This Will Mark the First Personal Appearance in This City of Mr. Ray in a Spoken Play

Next Sunday Afternoon, Nov. 4, at 4 O'Clock PRESENTS

Membership Seat Sale, Monday, October 29th. Public Sale, Thursday, November 1.

THREE NIGHTS NOV Beginning Thursday, MATINEE SATURDAY

1923-TRANSCONTINENTAL TOUR-1924

Combined with this Extraordinary Array of Talent Brendel & Bert, Georgie Price, Arman Kaliz, Jack Trainor, Florence Browne, Alice Ridnor, Johnny Berkes, Martha Throop, Evelyn Downing, Arthur Corey, Thomas Morris, Dolores Suarez, Elsie Wachta, Maris Chaney, Jas. Gaylor, etc.

SELLING

By JACK LAIT SEATS NOW

With the Original Cast and Scenic Investiture.

32-GORGEOUS SCENES-32 40-PICKED CHORISTERS 40 100-PEOPLE-100

Biggest Show Ever Routed on a Transcontinental Tou

Prices: (Plus Tax) Nights, 50c, $1, $1.50, $2, $2.50 Special Sat. Mat. 50c, $1, $1.50, $2

NOV. 4 ENTIRE WEEK Starting Next Sunday Evening Twice Daily Thereafter

Metro

A Rex Ingram

Production

With ALICE TERRY, RAMON NOVARRO, LEWIS STONE And an All-Star Cast Reserved Tickets on Sale Tomorrow 10 A. M.

Louise Will Make Pictures of Omaha People Next Week

Omaha will be given the opportunity during the week commencing November 4, of seeing a motion picture made and screened with local people as the stars in a scenario which will be made. Miss Louise Lovely, stage and screen star, will appear at the Orpheum with her own company, prepared to screen local talent. She brings a full studio equipment, di rector, cameraman and electrician. Young ladies and gentlemen with creen personality will be chosen by the star and she will personally dithe screen. It will be the chance for many to know if they are suited for the most lucrative profession in the world.

During her recent tour of the Pacific coast and Canada, Miss Lovely discovered many clever girls apmen, and already some are in positions in the studios, on the way up the ladder of fame. At the matinees Miss Lovely will direct children, and it will afford mothers an opportunity to determine their children are of the type of Jackle Coogan and Jane and Kather ine Lee.

Miss Lovely works with adults a n the morning prior to her opening performance in the foyer of the theater and greet the aspirants to screen fame. A booth will be mainfined in the foyer of the theater for local candidates to make application for a trial before the lens.

Ruth Stonehouse returns to pictures in "Lights Out.

YOU WILL SEE IT AS A PHOTOPLAY Next

Sunday

The Dumb-bell Doughboy Back to His Home Town!

Gosh All Hemlock How the Hearts of the Village Belles Fluttered

The Most Talked About Comedian Ever Here, and His Associate Players in

"GOLDBRICK'S

RETURN"

A New Farce Comedy With Musical Trimmings

In the Clever Comedy Story by Frank R. Adams
"THE LOVE PIKER"

Ends Sat.

Ends

Standard Vaudeville-Exclusive Photoplays

This Week

GLOOM TOPPLED FROM ITS THRONE

The mighty musical extravaganza of bewildering beauty, lovely ladies, lingering laughter and spectacular settings.

With the noted comedian,

AS FULL OF WONDERS AS ALADDIN'S LAMP-

Other Star Vaudeville and Pictures

NEXT SATURDAY—IN PERSON

Eddie Kane presents the idol of the hour,

ORPHEUM CIRCUIT VAUDEVILLE A Top-Heavy Bill of World Renowned Stars

COMMENCING WITH TODAY'S MATINEB

THIS WEEK

MISS MUSICAL COMEDY STAR

CARLTON EMMY With His "Mad Wags"-A Most Artistic Comedy Offering

RYAN & LEE

HAWTHORNE & COOKE

In "Make Me Serious" EVE LYNN-CLYDE DILSON & CO.

NATE LEIPZIG Of International Repute "A Young Man to Be Watched"

"50 Miles From Broadway"

HARRY B. WATSON and REG B. MERVILLE

Aesop's Fables

Topics of the Day PRICES - Night 17c, 25c, 50c and 75c

The Famous Motion Picture and Screen Star LOUISE LOVELY

In "A DAY AT THE STUDIO"

Assisted by Olga Woods