Win Pennants Credit Bank Big Aid to Country Bankers, Claim

Enables Them to Put Capital Where It Will Aid Farmers, Says Farm Official.

Lincoln, Oct. 28.-Western Nebraska bankers do not appreciate the at the office of the county extension value, to them, of the Federal Intermediate Credit bank, according to C. G. Steward, director of the Nebraska Banners were given for judging and Farm Bureau federation, who recently attended a meeting with officers of the new government institution.

In his opinion, the credit bank can inches, and the pennants are lettered be used to supplement the local bank, in white on red flags, about 14 by 30 by handling production loans, whoch are made for long periods of time while the local bank attends to short time paper, negotiated to enable farmers to hold their grain or to finance feeding yards.

"The country banker can make 1½ per cent on transactions with the credit bank." he said. "and their working capital is placed where it should be, in loans that mature rapidly. With the credit bank they can handle customers who want long time loans to buy stock or farm equipment, and still get the rapid turnover that comes with the short-time note. Association Necessary.

"Farmers can borrow from the redit bank if they form a credit ascfation, but the bank demands that $10,000 be put up by members of the association and this is more than the majority of farmers can stand at this time. The logical place to put credit bank loans is through the local the best livestock demonstration. The banker, who knows what moral risk Nimbler Thimblers' Sewing club of is involved and is, in general, in bet-Dakota county won the pennant for ter shape to negotiate the loans than

"If Nebraska bankers can be made to realize that the credit bank is not going to injure them, but really as sist them, then the farmer will get the City, where, in competition with teams true benefit of the credit bank. The from 13 other states in the middlewest bankers is, or should be, just as much Clay county boys won third and interested in the prosperity of the farmer as the farmer himself, because upon the success of farm products de pends his success or failure, and if getting lower rates of interest on production loans, he will be helping him elf at the same time." Warehouse Receipts Collateral. The real value of the announcement that the credit bank will consider warehouse receipts as good collateral, said Mr. Steward, is that country bankers will be more willing to lend money on grain stored in inspected

"If the country bankers know that hey can always get their money if they have to have it, by turning over receipts to the credit bank," he said, "they well much more Leadily lend to the farmer who wants strongest boosters for Central City Mr. Steward did not feel that di and Merrick county and a leading rect placing by farmers of warehouse real estate dealer here, is Martin A. receipts in the credit bank would be Larson, who is trying to discourage the general practice, because, although 7 per cent is charged as opno effort to secure listings except posed to a general rate in Nebraska in cases where it is felt that the land of 10 per cent, the credit bank requires that the note negotiated be for Now is no time to sell," asserts six months and cannot be taken up Mr. Larson, "but it surely must be a until six months have expired.

"The majority of farmers," he exgrain six months, and hence hesitate 311 8, 33d, new funeral home. HA, 0413 to turn over title to the credit bank He says that two years ago when for that period.
