How to Grow Old.
If only through my heart there flows
A tide of spring, blue days and gold,
To match the gray of winter snows
That gather when the year is old—
A breath from morning that I knew
Before the twilight's purple thrust
Across the hills when night is due
And fields are faint with starry dust.

What if the drifting years slip by
In grim parade along time's chart,
Or ghosts of winter blur the sky
If April lingers in the heart?
If one can march through fog and haze

To see the sunlight on the hill
And feel through winter's shadowed days
That spring is calling to him still?

Though age may come in with the tide
Where thinning hair, perhaps, is gray,
Young April whistles at my side,
A careless vagabond at play,
I'll take him with me for a mate
And make him share the growing load

Until we pass the final gate
That opens on another road.

Once again it is just as well to call attention to the fact that a football error or mistake on the field, even though it loses the game, is no sin that calls for eternal damnation. Football is still just a game, played for the health, recreation and physical upbuilding of the student. It is not a matter of life or death, honor or dishonor, where the fate of civilization is to rest upon any final score. Here is one game where you can be certain that each one is giving about 100 per cent of what he has 100 per cent of the time. And such mistakes as occur usually come from an over-eagerness to make good.

We recall again the story of a veteran, long out of harness, who was criticizing the judgment of a certain quarterback. "Well," remarked a more observing friend, "what play would you call now in this position on the field?" The veteran at last announced his decision. But in the meanwhile three or four plays had been run off. It's much simpler to be right, it seems, than the sideline when you haven't been thrown on your neck and can take all the time you need.

A Notre Dame Team.
There is usually one thing about a Notre Dame team. It is apparently soaked with football intuition and football alertness. Each man seems to know exactly what he has to do and why he has to do it, no matter what the situation. It is the most all-around mentally and physically alert aggregation that the observer sees in action. There is style and smartness, as well as speed and power. There is always dash and zip beyond any machine-like method.

The Army Test.
Yale will enter November a stronger looking organization than either Harvard or Princeton. In fact, unless the two latter hit a faster pace, it may be that Yale will find the Army harder to beat than the Blue's two ancient rivals. Only a first-class football array is going to nip the Army on Saturday. It will show better stuff than the team which fell before Knute Rockne's brilliant attack nearly three weeks ago.

Yale and the Army always put on a young war of dash and vivid color and this next meeting should be one of the features of the entire lot.

Lonesome Polo Pony
Runs Away, Breaks Neck

New York, Oct. 30.—Homesick for his old stall, Spaghetti, star polo pony, committed suicide today at the Mitchell field army reservation. Spaghetti, owned by Major Terry Allen, and ridden in the recent international military championship matches between American and British teams, had been turned out of his regular quarters to make room for the string brought by the incoming players.

Today, while being exercised by a groom, the pony broke away and raced toward his old stable. He collided head-on with a wire fence and died a few moments later of a broken neck.

Major Allen was said to have received an offer of $5,000 for the pony recently.

Bluffs Iowa Alumni
to Have Special Train

Council Bluffs alumni of the University of Iowa will be well represented at the Iowa-Michigan game in Iowa City this coming Saturday. Sixty prominent people of the Bluffs will make the trip on the football special to cheer the Old Gold eleven on to victory over the formidable Michigan aggregation.

The special will leave Council Bluffs at 5:30 Saturday morning, arriving in Iowa City at 1:50. The return trip will be started at 11:55 Saturday evening. The special will carry two compartment cars and one sleeper. Arrangements are being made to carry a dinner to and from the scene of battle.

Local Iowa fans firmly believe that Iowa has an even chance for victory over the great Yost team, and will back the Old Gold to the limit.

Villa to Fight Tremaine.

By International News Service.
New York, Oct. 30.—It was announced today that Pancho Villa, world flyweight champion, and Carl Tremaine of Cleveland, one of the leading contenders for bantamweight honors, will meet here on November 19. The bout will be at catch weights and Villa's title, therefore, will not be in danger.

Fog and Calm Halt Race.

By International News Service.
Halifax, N. S., Oct. 30.—Fog and absence of wind today caused a postponement until tomorrow of the second race of the international fishermen's series between the Blue Nose, Canadian defender, and Columbia, American challenger. The Blue Nose won Monday's race.

Cochran Wins From Conti.

By Associated Press.
New York, Oct. 30.—Welker Cochran of Los Angeles, today defeated Roger Conti of France, 500 points to 487 in the second match for the world's 152 ball line billiard championship.

rest, we have always figured Eddie Collins, Napolean Lajoie and Johnny Evers the leading trio.

Either one or two of this trio must be displaced or the limit must be extended to five men, to make room for Frank Frisch and Roger Hornsby.

Here are two worthy to wear the purple and step with the greatest of the masters. Both are great hitters, with Hornsby the better; both are great fielders, with Frisch in the lead. Larry Lajoie carried more grace than any of the lot, but Frisch carries more flame and dash. He is more of the great athlete in action than any of the others, largely because he is more of an athlete than any of the others, having been an All-American halfback in the Fordham days.

If he has the durability of Lajoie, Collins and Evers he may come out as the greatest all-round second baseman of the game, although only rare brilliancy will ever put any one above the phenomenal Collins, who in his 14th campaign is still one of the marvels.

Frisch, Mathewson and Dave Futz are the three who have starred to a greater extent in college football and major league baseball. Thorpe, a football star, was never a major league wonder to the other game. But Matty, Futz and Frisch held high rank in both sports, Eddie Collins, a Columbia quarterback, was still another. This is not the complete list of the double-barreled, merely the leaders.

In the list of great quarterbacks for 1923 Pfann of Cornell, will make any rival arise before daybreak and travel into dusk. Doble has shown that he can lose even a Kaw and still go marching on.

Think of all the relief from short missed punts, topped drives, out-of-bounds frenzy, slicing anguish and bunker wear the first snowfall will bring to harass humanity, throwing at last the ineffable mantle of serene peace around the duffer's tortured soul.

Proceeds From Firpo

Bout Go to Buy Jack an Apartment House

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 30.—Jack Dempsey's profits from his bout with Luis Firpo have given him and his manager, Jack Kearns, full title to a large apartment house here, which the pair took over early in the year, according to an announcement today.

Hunting Trip for Gibbons.

Lincoln, Oct. 30.—Tommy Gibbons, light heavyweight boxer, and his manager, Eddie Kane, will arrive in Lincoln Thursday for a visit and hunt with their friend of many years, George Koster, state game warden. Mr. Koster was advised today by telegraph. Gibbons and his manager are enroute from the west.

Carpenter to Set Sail.

Paris, Oct. 30.—Georges Carpentier will sail for the United States November 11, it was announced yesterday. Carpentier had been matched for a bout against Tom Gibbons, the St. Paul boxer, to be held in New York in December or January.

QUART OF WATER

CLEANS KIDNEYS

Take a Little Salt if Your Back Hurts, or Bladder is Troubling You.

No man or woman can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally says a well-known authority. Eating too much rich food creates acids, which excite the kidneys. They become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood.

Then we get sick. Rheumatism, head aches, liver troubles, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders often come from sluggish kidneys.

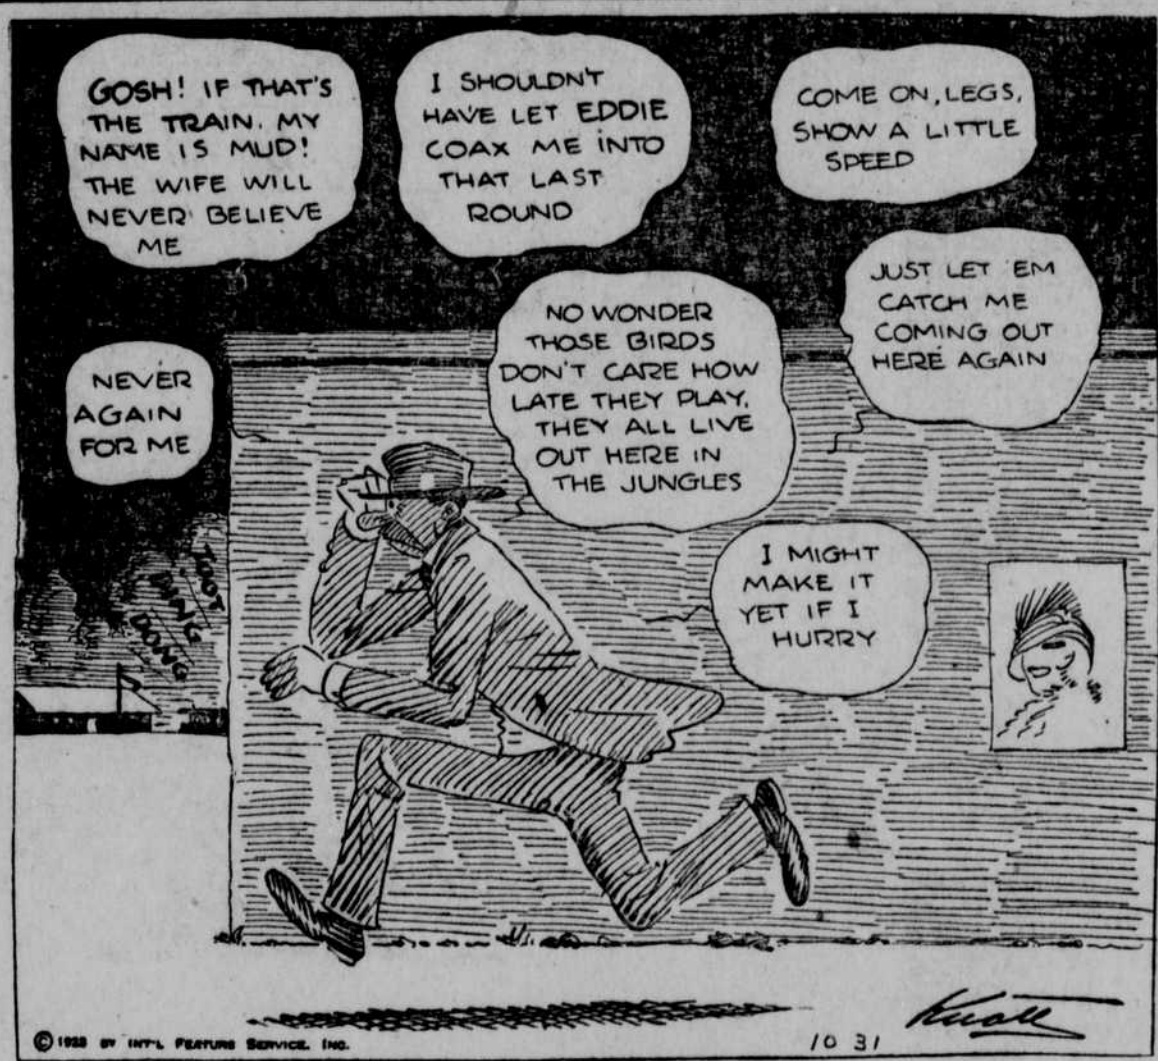

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys, or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, begin drinking a quart of water each day, also get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, and in a few days your kidneys may act fine.

This famous salt is made from the finest lithia, and has been used for years to flush and stimulate the kidneys; also to help neutralize the acids in the system, so they no longer cause irritation, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which every one should take now and then to help keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby often avoiding serious kidney complications. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

Vernon to Get Four Witches

By Associated Press.
Los Angeles, Oct. 30.—The Vernon baseball club of the Pacific coast baseball league has completed a deal for four of the Wichita (Kan.) Western league club, according to an announcement made today. The men are Alva Sellers, southpaw pitcher; Jimmy McDowell first baseman; Wes Griffin, second baseman, and Jim Blakesley, outfielder.

Vernon is turning over to Wichita Parry O'Brien, outfielder; Jim Jolly, southpaw pitcher, and Matt Bott, infielder, and a cash payment.

The Purdue squad is scheduled to play a regular game today, against the second string men. They are somewhat hampered with a soggy field.

Cochran is giving the Ohio team a thorough going over. Workman has been shifted to quarterback, and the program for this week is straight football and hard work.

Iowa Officials Plan Move to Enforce Law

By International News Service.
Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 30.—Plans for the law enforcement conference to be called by Acting Governor Hammill are complete today, but details will be withheld until all persons directly concerned at the conference have been notified, it was said at the executive offices here today.

No inkling could be gleaned of the methods to be followed at the conference, which will call together law enforcing agents of state, city, county and federal forces. The meeting is the outgrowth of the recent governors' conference and President Coolidge's request.

As Hammill will leave office tomorrow for Governor Kendall to resume duties on the first of the month, the conference probably will be in charge of the latter, although there was a possibility Hammill would preside.

Chicago Police Nab Gamblers in Hotel

By Associated Press.
Chicago, Oct. 30.—Lottery tickets, racing forms, cards and punch boards and letters from agents in many cities were in the hands of the police today after a raid on a downtown hotel.

The prisoners were in rooms supposed to be occupied by the "A. B. C. company," ostensibly a specialty advertising concern. Letters from supposed agents in Honolulu, Havana, Washington, Pittsburgh, St. Louis, San Francisco and other cities were found.

A list of names believed to have been patrons of various gambling forms were seized.

The prisoners gave the names of John T. Rings, Emory Hammond and M. A. Halloran.

Klan Used Cart Wheels to Kill, Witness Says

Deposition Declares Two Men Were Murdered by Being Rolled on Cart Wheels.

By Associated Press.
Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 30.—Assertion that J. J. Brucewell, a Ku Klux Klan investigator had told him when he went to Bastrop, La., to investigate the disappearance of two men "there was no use for him to go to Mer Rouge; that the two bodies found in the lake had been tied or 'spread eagled' on logging cart wheels and rolled down the hill and that that was what crushed the heads off the two bodies," was included in the deposition by S. N. Littlejohn read today at the hearing of the suit of E. M. Rittenhouse and others for re-employment for the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

Littlejohn said that he was employed at the time as an investigator for the Ku Klux Klan. He was sent to Bastrop about January 12 to make the investigations.

Littlejohn said that Captain Skipwith at Mer Rouge urged Imperial Wizard Evans to keep him (Littlejohn) on the job there. Littlejohn said that he was detailed to work under the direction of Captain Skipwith and that all other investigators were sent away and that his instructions were "to work with the end in view that there might be no indictment."

John Barry, comedian of the "Bon Ton" at the Gayety theater twice daily this week, is not anxious to leave the burlesque field, where he has been for the last six years. He has refused a number of offers to appear in musical comedy attractions that are scheduled for Broadway productions and gives some very valid reasons for his action.

"The Passing Parade," with Fred Adair, the versatile comedian and a big supporting company, is creating a big impression at the World theater this week. Starting Saturday, the World presents as the feature a six-act vaudeville bill, the popular boxing star, Tommy Gilbride, Gilbride is one of the most illustrious men that ever donned a pair of gloves, and his act is said to be the most entertaining.

Billy Maine, the quaint comedian now at the New Empire this week, is offering a splendid rural farce comedy called "Goldbrick's Return," being the further adventures of a prize stumbler. In the supporting company Marie Maine, Beulah Hayes, George Crabbe, Ada Hillberry and the numerous others do clever work. Anita Stewart in "The Love Piker" is the fall length Photoplay feature.

After many seasons in musical comedy, Miss Frances Weis, one of the stage's most distinctive personalities, has returned to vaudeville and is seen at the Orpheum theater this week in a program of songs and dances. Miss Weis was for a number of seasons a great favorite in vaudeville, her last Orpheum circuit appearance being in association with the late William Rock. She is a sincere actor-studies her own most characteristic fashions and gives some conspicuous figures on the stage today.

AT THE THEATERS

OWING to the size of the production and the length of the performance, no encore will be permitted during the three nights beginning tomorrow, with Saturday matinee. The entire cast and scenery will be given exactly as it was presented in the New York Winter Garden and as this is a full three hour show, without encore, the management deems it advisable to terminate the show to permit the audience to see the full show and get away from the theater before midnight. There are no less than 22 scenes which are presented with a brief intermission by a company of 160 people, including Brendel and Bert, Georgia Brown, Johnny Burke, Alice Edinger, Arthur Corey, Martha Throp, Evelyn Downing, Fiebe Wachtel, more than a score of other principals and a chorus of 40.
