⇒BRADFORD WILL DIVIDES $500,000

Bulk of Estate Is Placed in Trust Funds for Wife and Children.

The will of the late D. C. Bradford, resident of the Bradford-Kennedy Lumber company, filed yesterday afternoon, disposes of an estate worth more than $500,000.

Charles H. King of Los Angeles, Cal.; Oscar F. Hartge of Kansas City and H. H. Baldrige of Omaha are named executors and trustees. Baldrige is given $10,000. If the will is contested Baldrige is to defend it without cost.

The will places $200,000 in a trust fund, the income to go to the widow as long as she does not marry again. If she marries, she shall receive only one fourth of the income. Another $200,000 is placed in trust for the four children, the interest to be used for their education and the principal to go to them in sums of $10,000 each when they reach the ages of 21, 25 and 30 and thereafter. He leaves to Belle Bliss, stenographer, $5,000, and the following sums to other employes: Fred Toma, Oma-$5,000; Quince Woolsey, Omaha, $1,000; George Stone, Omaha, $3,000; August Stone, Coeur d'Alene, Idaho,

The will gives $25,000 each to his four sisters, Susie Hartge, Kansas City; Effie A. Dinsmoor, California; May E. Bennett, Freeman, Mo., and Annie Latimer, Wellington, Kan. His jewelry is given to the son, Dana, and personal effects to his wife. The will was made in 1915.

Beating the Game

There are some people who match their bankroll in a foot race with the landlords' ideas on proper rent. Naturally they lose, dollars are scarce, ideas are fast and plentiful. The wise folks do not enter into such a losing game. They check over the "Realtor" ads in the Real Estate For Sale columns and put down a few dollars on a good home and pay rent to themselves. That's beating the game.
