

Father and Son
Week Will Open
on November 11

Program in Churches and Over Radio to Observe
Period in Omaha
This Year.

A week from today begins national father and son week.

Walter W. Head of Omaha is chairman of the national father and son committee.

J. H. Beveridge is chairman of the Omaha father and son committee. E. E. Micklewright, boys' secretary of the Omaha Y. M. C. A., is secretary of the Omaha committee, and Hugh Wallace is music chairman. Churches, clubs, lodges, scout troops, schools, all take part in the observance of the week under the auspices of the boys' division of the Y. M. C. A.

The week will be started next Sunday by services in all churches of the city in memory of the millions of fathers and sons who gave their lives during the world war. During the week there will be scores of banquets in churches, clubs, lodges, etc.

Friday night there will probably be more than 25 banquets in various churches and other organizations. Sunday, November 18, will be observed as father and son church day and practically every church in Omaha will hold a special service either in the morning or evening.

Radio will play a special part in the promotion of father and son week this year. The Woodmen of the World station has given the Omaha father and son committee a block of time each day of Father and Son week including both Sundays and the Omaha father and son message will be heard all over North America.

Walter W. Head will officially open Father and Son week from station WOAW Sunday morning November 11 at 9:30. Following his opening address, Rev. R. R. Brown, radio pastor, who has charge of all Sunday morning services at this station will hold a special father and son religious service.

Sunday night, November 11, a special father and son service will be held by Rev. Oliver M. Adams of Cortland, Neb. Monday night, November 12, Rev. John L. Brown, president of the Omaha Ministerial union, will speak under the auspices of the father and son committee over the radio. Tuesday night G. W. Noodle, general agent of the New England Life Insurance company, will speak on "Father, Son and Home." Thursday night N. J. Weston, physical director of the Y. M. C. A., will have a special father and son message on "Father, Son, and Recreation." Friday night J. G. Masters, principal of Central High school, will speak on "Father, Son and School." Saturday night John L. Kennedy, president of the United States National bank, will speak on "Father, Son and Country." Sunday morning November 18, J. H. Beveridge, chairman of the Omaha father and son committee, will speak on the results of the week's activity in closing the week. Rev. R. R. Brown will have another radio father and son service in the morning and there will be another in the evening.

The Omaha Bee will devote its entire cover of the Rotogravure section Sunday, November 11, to photographs of 10 prominent Omaha fathers and their sons representing different professions interested in the father and son movement.

Army Orders

The following leaves of absence have been granted:
Lieut. J. L. Keeler, Minn., two months; First Lieut. J. L. Keeler, 17th Omaha, Fort Omaha, two months and 15 days; Capt. A. G. Chase, Infantry, Fort Omaha, seven days; Lieut. Col. Gordon Robinson, Coast Artillery corps, five days.

Why be Feeble?
ADVANCING years should not mean the approach of a period of dependency—of crutches and canes—of worry, care and fatigue! Don't dread the days ahead! Be prepared to grapple with the benighted of Old Age—with rheumatism with undermined health—with feebleness. The system that is free from impurities—through which rich red blood tingles need not worry about advancing years. Enlist the aid of S. S. S.—the builder of red blood cells—to fight off the infirmities of Old Age.

With the aid of S. S. S. when you reach this stage of life the nerve power that has been built up by ever increasing blood cells—the vim and vigor of youth that you possess will capably enable you to enjoy the advantages of passing years, while others less fortunate are feeble and dependent.

S. S. S. for nearly a century has been serving as a valuable and time honored assistant in the fight for hale and hearty Old Age. It is made only of pure vegetable ingredients and is sold at all good drug stores. The large size bottle is the more economical.
