Quaint Story of Old Southern Family Life

"I RIDE IN MY COACH," by Hughes Mearns, the Penn Publishing company. The author presents several inter esting characters in his whimsica story of a southern family residing in the north. The period of time ex tends from the civil war to the present decade. There are no thrilling scenes, but instead there is a refreshing presentation of persons who move and have their being in a natural way. There are flashes of quaint humor and now and then a bit of hilosophy. Susan Carrosse, other wise Mrs. Elias Johnson, has an unquestioned sense of class distinction carries her southern manners and methods to the north. On her note paper appears the legend "Je vais en carrosse," hence the title, "I Ride in My Coach." Her husband, Grandfather Johnson, holds to the pleasure out of "jes workin' along." Considerable human interest is crowded into the pages, particularly in connection with the life of Clara Carrosse who lost her first husband. married again, and then hungered for her own children as she worked over another man's children who thought no more of her than of a hired girl. Clara said she did what she seemed right, "but always lost somehow." Clara had two children by her first marriage-Rodney and Julie, whom she surrender to the care of their grandparents. Rodney was "just folks" like his maternal grandfather, but his sister, Julie, was inclined to develop the patrician pose. a genuine toning up of neglected The girl was a prototype of her scalps with dependable "Danderine." The Rexall Store Days Sale Monday Tuesday Wednesday

Next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, November 5, 6 and 7, we shall hold another ONE-CENT SALE. Such sales have been held in all the principal cities of the United States during the last few years, generally in the Rexall Drug Stores, and have been the sensation of the hour. It is particularly timely just now. We could not do this except by the help of the manufacturer, which in the case of most of the items offered is the United Drug Co.. Boston.

THE PLAN OF THE ONE-CENT SALE is as follows: You BUY ONE article at the regular price, and then obtain another of the same kind for ONE CENT. By its means the manufacturer, anxious for a wider distribution of his products, makes a special concession in price, thus encouraging the retailer to co-operate by holding these sales. Thereby a large volume of merchandise is quickly distributed to the public-of course, without a cent of profit, but with the effect of quickly introducing some meritorious article, perhaps hitherto unknown, or increasing largely the distribution of well-known and standard articles.

In a few cases we wish to "close-out" an item on which we have overstock-and we offer such goods at a positive money loss to ourselves. This is a little less than 50% reduction on nearly every item mentioned. There will be sweeping reductions made on all sorts of standard merchandise which is not mentioned below.
