

Comings and Goings of People You Know

Mrs. Laura A. Wilkinon has gone to Los Angeles for the winter. Mrs. Everett Buckingham is with Mrs. Jay D. Foster in Excelsior Springs. Mrs. James W. Stevens of Chicago is spending a few days with Mrs. Fred Pearce. Miss Elizabeth Stewart left this morning to join Miss Mona Cowell in San Francisco. Mrs. Edward P. Welch left a week ago for a month's visit with relatives in Boston, Mass. Mrs. Arthur J. Cole, who has been in Chicago for the last three weeks, will return Tuesday. The E. W. Arthurs have gone to Los Angeles and will spend the winter there until February. The Jack Websters spent the week in Iowa City, having driven over for a university football game. Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Davenport have returned from a three-weeks' touring trip through Illinois. Mrs. Ellery W. Davis of Rutherford, N. J., will arrive in two weeks to visit Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Davis. Mrs. Eugene Duval has returned after four weeks spent with her son, Elmer Duval, and Mrs. Duval at Norfolk, Va. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur English are making plans to spend the winter in California. They will leave about December 1. Miss Margaret Hogan and Miss Jeanette Gorsch of Chicago are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Van Buren. California will again claim J. A. Cavers and daughter, Miss Marjorie Cavers, who will spend the winter at the Hollywood hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar E. Engler have returned from Detroit, where Mr. Engler attended the National Officers' Reserve association convention. Mr. and Mrs. George Radcliffe and their guest, Miss Catherine Shaffer of New York, are spending the day visiting the Indian reservation at Walthill, Neb. Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Callahan of New York City are the guests of their daughter, Mrs. Ralph Coad and Mr. Coad. They came a month ago to see their new grandchild, and will return to the east in three weeks. Ruth Patterson has returned to school at Jackson, Neb., after undergoing an operation at the Clarkson hospital. Mrs. Theodore Patterson, another, returned from an eastern motor and boat trip to be with her nete. Dr. George F. Simanek, who left for Chicago two weeks ago to attend the clinical congress of American College of Surgeons, is now at Milwaukee attending the annual conference of the American Hospital association. Leo J. Crosby has returned from California where he visited his brother, W. A. Crosby, in Bishop, Cal.; his mother, Mrs. E. N. Crosby, at Nephi, Utah, and other relatives at Salt Lake City. Mr. and Mrs. Jean Mullin and daughter, Marjorie, of Falls City, Neb., motored to Omaha for the Brighton homecoming Saturday. They are the house guests of Mr. Mullin's brother, Joseph Mullin, and Mrs. Mullin. Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Street and daughter, Georgia, have returned from a visit in California. Miss Street is a student at the University of Omaha and a member of Kappa Psi Delta sorority. Miss Esther Cochran of Chicago is visiting Mrs. Will Truelsen. Miss Cochran is a former resident of Omaha and will be remembered by many of Omaha's young people who have attended her camp, "Sandstone," at Green Lake, Wis., during the summer months. Dr. and Mrs. E. W. Powell have returned from a month's motor trip to Montreal and Ontario, Canada. Dr. Powell attended the McGill university clinic. Mrs. Powell found Montreal the more interesting for the continual use of the French tongue. "Even the elevator boys called out the floors in English and then in French," she said. Juliet Lita Bane, national secretary of the American Home Economics' association, with headquarters in Washington, D. C., has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon J. Horne for the last week-end. Miss Bane is the former state leader in the home economics department of the University of Illinois and was known in Omaha as a very active worker on the staff of the Y. W. C. A. several years ago.

Announces Betrothal

Bernice Meleryurgen LUMIERE PHOTO

On Friday Miss Bernice Meleryurgen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Meleryurgen, announced her engagement to Herman Swoboda, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Swoboda. Miss Meleryurgen and her fiancé are graduates of Central High school in the class of 1919. Afterwards Miss Meleryurgen attended the University of Nebraska, where she was affiliated with the Pi Phi sorority, and Mr. Swoboda was a member of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity at Dartmouth. No definite date has been set for the wedding.

French Gowns Served Up With Afternoon Tea

French gowns may be had this week in Council Bluffs, quite in the French way. Miss Ruth Harl, now of Paris, formerly of Council Bluffs, has returned home for a visit, bringing with her this beautiful array of gowns. Miss Harl was in ambulance service for the French government during the war. She was a corporal for the French army for six months and was then transferred to French Red Cross for motor driving in the Balkans. Accompanying Miss Harl is Miss Jean-Gordon Pirie, a Scotch girl, who is making her first visit to the United States. Miss Pirie did reconstruction work following the war and it was then she met Miss Harl. Her home is now in France, where she occupies a beautiful chateau. Forty gowns will be exhibited by Misses Harl and Pirie in the Continental Furniture store all next week. Tea will be served during the afternoons from 2 to 5 o'clock in the dining room of the modern bungalow of the store. Gowns will be shown in the drawing room and the bedrooms will be available for showing. Mrs. Frank Keeline will have charge of the tea and the models.

Sisters of Mercy Bazar.

The Sisters of Mercy Alumnae bazar committee will meet Monday evening at the home of Mrs. J. A. Sanders to complete plans for the Christmas bazar, to be held at St. Mary Magdalene hall, December 13 to 15. Mrs. J. F. Kilmar will have charge of the children's dress booth, and Mrs. Raymond Hudson, the miscellaneous booth. Miss Veronica O'Connor and Mrs. Deles Muffitt are in charge of the book booth which is to be given away. Miss Rose Whalen is working with the committee on arrangements.

Birth Announcements.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory E. Nelson announce the birth of William Henry Nelson on November 3, at the Stewart hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Mead announce the birth of a son, Wilbur Marlow, at the Methodist hospital, Sunday, October 28.

For Mrs. Johannes.

Mrs. Charles Johannes, past president of the Omaha Woman's club, will be honor guest at a luncheon given by the current topics department of the club Tuesday, 12:30 o'clock at the Y. W. C. A. Following the luncheon Miss Nana Sobrenena of the Philippine Islands will speak of her native country. Reservations for the luncheon may be made with Mrs. Isaac Douglas or Miss Grace Thomas.

Virginia Skinner Host.

Virginia Skinner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Skinner, gave a Halloween party Wednesday evening for a number of her little neighborhood friends. The guests included Tyler O'Connor, Jane Atkins, Peggy Fish, Joan Guilo, Jacqueline James, Fanny Mooney, Jane Cavanaugh, Dick Robertson. All the little girls came dressed as ghosts. Attractive and novel decorations were used through the rooms and on the table.

Orpheum Entertainer Guest of Press Club.

The Omaha Woman's Press club will entertain at luncheon Wednesday, 12:30 o'clock at the Brandels restaurant, complimentary to Miss Louise Lovely, musical comedy and motion picture star, who is appearing at the Orpheum this week in a unique sketch entitled "A Day at the Studio," picturing the interesting method employed in producing pictures. Miss Lovely will use local people in her picture, which will be shown at the Orpheum next week.

"The Chastening" to Be Presented Nov. 13.

Mr. and Mrs. Rann Kennedy will present "The Chastening" at the Brandels Tuesday afternoon, November 13. Critics have pronounced it Mr. Kennedy's masterpiece and wherever it has been presented the public has agreed. The play will be in costume with Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy as father and mother and Miss Gage of the Bennett school as the boy. The scene is laid in the home of an English carpenter and these three, father, mother and child, are the mediums through which Mr. Kennedy presents his Christlike philosophy.

At the Athletic Club.

Last evening Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Spain were hosts at dinner at the Athletic club, honoring their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Elton Marshall of Chillicothe, Mo.; Miss Judy Graves of St. Paul, Neb., and Miss Roberta Spain of Lees Summit, Mo. The last two are students at the University of Nebraska.

For Visiting Englishmen.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gordon entertained a party this week at Orlandale farm, Percival, Ia., their country home, honoring Maj. A. S. Scott and Dr. George H. Jelbart of the English army. Other guests included the Messrs. and Mesdames Charles F. Davis, Dale McAlpine, F. F. Simpson and Miss Velma Michner.

Circle 6 Meets.

Circle 6 of the First Presbyterian church will meet at the church Wednesday at 10:30 a. m. Reservations for the luncheon following the morning meeting may be made with Mrs. J. M. Roberts, Mrs. Harry Potter or Mrs. A. B. Amberson. At 2 p. m. members of the circle will visit the Dreaser Brothers' plant.

Chairman for Catholic Daughters' Dinner

Miss Sarah L. Ash is general chairman for the dinner-dance to be given by the Catholic Daughters of America Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock at the Fontenelle hotel, complimentary to 150 new members initiated this afternoon. The membership of the Omaha court now exceeds 900. Miss Clara Gannon of Falls City, district deputy, will assist at the initiation. Archbishop J. J. Hartly will be honor guest at the dinner and the Knights of Columbus will be guests at the dance. Miss Mary Kennedy, grand regent, will act as toastmistress. A musical program, arranged by Mrs. James H. Hanley, will be given by Mrs. Ernest Reese, violinist; Mrs. L. J. DeBacker, contralto, and Miss Margaret Donahue, soprano. Miss Margaret Hoffman is in charge of flower reservations, and Mrs. J. P. Byrne, Mrs. Mary L. Jardon and Ruth Cassidy, decorations. Reservations for the dinner may be made at the club rooms this afternoon.

Sojourners Club Luncheon.

The Sojourners club will be entertained at a 1 o'clock luncheon Tuesday, November 6, at the home of Mrs. N. M. Graham, 431 1/2 South Twenty-second street. Guests invited. Reservations taken by Mrs. W. H. Sleeper, Harney 4682.

Catholic Daughters of America

Catholic Daughters of America weekly schedule: Sunday afternoon—Class initiation at the club rooms, third floor, Paxton block. Monday—6:30 p. m., aesthetic dancing; 8:30 p. m., ball-room dancing. Miss Gladys Mullen, director; 7:30 p. m., gym class, Stephen Zajlock, instructor. Tuesday—Regular meeting postponed until November 13. Wednesday—Dinner dance, Fontenelle hotel, 7 p. m. Thursday—7:30, Glee club practice, Henry Cox, director.

Past Events.

Miss Irene Larson entertained at her home Thursday evening complimentary to Mrs. A. F. Hawkinson of Portland, Oregon. The color scheme was carried out in pink and white. Those present were: Elsie Chambers, Beryl Hilson, Lillian Lipp, Eleanor Gobel, Mrs. Nan Johnson, Agnes Stokes, Mrs. Freda Gierke, Gladie Peterson, Rose Penner, Genevieve Kemper, Mrs. Andrew Lind.

A Halloween party was given Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Alma Mulvehill for the members of her class. Those present were: Alice Cary, Genevieve Carey, Genevieve Conroy, Eulalia Franko, Mary Alice Gillin, Clara Gorsch, Loreta Haller, Dorothy House, Mary Hall, Dolores Kramer, Madeline Springer, Virginia O'Brien, Paulina Powers, Bertha Traynor, Marie Grant, Julia Wilson, Robert Moran, Virgil Roach, Edward Howard, Merle McDermott, Emil Hykel, Jerome Mahoney, Ralph Swabe, Joseph Traubner, Edgar Riddle, Langdon Hyberg, Edward Brady, Harry Miller, Marvin Marr, Eugene Conroy.

P. E. O. Luncheon.

Chapter B. N. of the P. E. O. Sisterhood will give a luncheon Saturday, 1 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church for the benefit of the educational fund. Following the luncheon Miss Clara B. Mason will speak on her trip to the Orient. Reservations for the luncheon may be made with Mrs. O. H. Menold, Walnut 2157 or Matthews Book store.

For the Clark's Guest.

Mrs. C. D. Sturtevant and Mrs. Berge Kosmid will give a luncheon at the Omaha club Thursday for Mrs. Walter Wilde of Peoria, the guest of Mrs. William Hill Clark.

Thanksgiving Dance.

B'nai B'rith auxiliary will hold its annual dance at the Fontenelle hotel on Thanksgiving night, November 29.

DIAMONDS The Store of Low Expenses ALBERT EDHOLM Omaha's Oldest Established Jeweler 24 Floor City Nat'l Bldg. BEE WANT ADS BRING RESULTS

Assembled on our Fourth Floor Are the Season's Most Beautiful

COATS $49.50 to $179.50

Luxury, beauty and elegance combine to make these coats truly coats for the most critical. Deep pile fabrics of the better sort are used in their fashioning.

Fashion, Gerona, Marvel-la, Bonavaine and Lustrosa, and the rich furs that trim them give them the final touch of superior smartness.

Large collars, and sometimes cuffs, of beaver, black fox, wolf, raccoon, viatka squirrel, natural squirrel and kit fox.

These Delightful New Arrivals In Midwinter Hats Expesses the Last Thoughts of America's Foremost Designs Creations new and distinctive, featuring the Cloche and small shapes for winter wear.

$5.00 to $25.00 New Satins, Brocades, Gold Lace, Metallic Cloth. Hats for the dance, the street and dinner wear. Millinery Salon—Third Floor. STYLE WITHOUT EXTRAVAGANCE HERZBERGS 1519-1521 DOUGLAS ST.

The Store of Thomas Kilpatrick Co. Established in 1870. Our New Gift Section Is Evolving Third Floor. Smart Sport Clothes For Autumn and Winter Wear. Sport Suits Fur Trimmed. Sport Skirts. Luxurious Fur Coats, Fur Trimmings. $135.00 $159.00 $195.00

November Showing This Beautiful Gown Made of imported brocaded chiffon Background of light tea rose, brocade of French blue Girdle and tier bandings of French blue, wedding ring velvet. McGuire's Dress Shoppe SIXTEENTH & FARNAM PAXTON BLOCK The Shoppe of Personal Attention

Woodward's Inner-Circle Candies Remember—Everybody likes candy. Finer, old-fashioned chocolate. Red and white too.