Council Bluffs Society

George Maynes Entertain.

To celebrate their wedding anniversary and also as a compliment to Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Maurer, a handsomely appointed dinner for 30 guests was given last Wednesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. George Mayne at heir home in Turley avenue.

Hallowe'en decorations were used with pleasing effect and a huge bride's cake was placed for Mrs. Maurer to cut. Bridge was the evening diversion

Complete Series of Parties,

Appointments in yellow and black made attractive decorations for a lovely luncheon over which Mrs. Fred Hurd and Mrs. J. A. Clark presided last Wednesday, when 28 guests were present at Mrs. Hurd's home

"tese hostesses entertained again on Thursday at a luncheon of 32 which was followed by covers, bridge. Miss Marian Turner made the high score, Mrs. Harry Searles, jr., received the cut-for-all and Mrs. Glenn Wilcox the consolation.

This latter party completes a series of three planned by Mrs. Hurd and Mrs. Clark, the other bridge-luncheon having been given a week earlier.

Charity Ball.

Among the anticipated events dur ing November is the charity ball which is being sponsored by the Elks of the city. This affair will be held in the audi torium on Friday evening, the 23d. Janet Bellinger Entertains.

Miss Janet Bellinger was hostess to 18 members of the Shin-Ayin club at the evening when supper was served a Hallowe'en celebration last Thursday evening.

An additional guest was Miss Helen Louise Robinson of Fort Worth, envelope containing what appeared receiving congratulations on the birth Tex., who has come to spend the to be a blank card. On holding these vinter with her aunt, Mrs. Frank Riker, and Mr. Riker.

Birthday on Hallowe'en.

To help celebrate the eighth birth-marriage. day anniversary of her son, Winfield Mrs. W. V. Mayne asked a group of D'Albert, Balakiren, Rachmaninoff, hovs to her home last Wednesday for Chopin, Paderewski, DeBussy, Reina party in their basement which was hold and Grainger. fancifully decorated with everything Assisting artists will be Miss Faus-suggestive of Hallowe'en. tina Aremy Ingwerson, soprano, who Among those enjoying the festivi- is to be accompanied by Stanley Jan ties were Hannan VanBrunt, Harold Letovsky of Omaha.

hotel.

and George Mordock, Charles and Kelley Hannan, Billie Lana, Frank Binder, Billie Robinson, Donald Filert, Tom Flickinger, Donald and James Waller. Bob Empkie, Frederic Mayne, Lee VanPatton, Scott Simpson and Frederic Empkie.

Guests at Stewart Home.

Mrs. Charles Test Stewart who has been visiting in Hoopstown, Ill., for some time arrived home last week. She was accompanied by her daught the east, during part of which time Trigg's daughter and husband, Mr. ter, Mrs. Donald McFerron and grand. Mr. Garrett was with her.

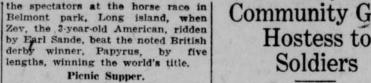

daughter, Marie McFerron, who ex- Mr. and Mrs. Garrett were among of Mrs. Riker, Mrs. George Robin- the coming week. pect to spend several weeks at the Stewart home on South Seventh street.

Dinner-Dance.

At the Julius Rosenfeld home a very attractive dinner-dance was given last Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Rosenfeld.

In every detail of decorating a color scheme of black and yellow was used, cats and witches also being in evi-

The rooms were lighted with yellow candles, and on the centers of the tables were pumpkins autumn leaves and fruit. Name cards were placed for Messre and Mesdames Frank Garrett, Roy Beasley, Fred Empkie, L. Barnes, W. J. Heiser, X. W. Kynnett, Walter Stephan, E. E. Shugart, Roy Max-field. Walter Davis, R. D. M. Turner, A. W. Oard, Harlie Norris, J. J. Keliher Joe Rosenfeld Dr. and Mrs. L. E. Gurner, Dr. and Mrs. A. V. Hennessy, Dr. and Mrs. M. C. Hennessy, Dr. and Mrs. J. Philip Cogley and Dr. and Mrs. S. W. McCall.

Mrs. J. Michner and her daughter, The Girls' Community Service Miss Velma, entertained at a picnic entertains ague supper on Wednesday evening at the Country club, honoring Major Scott and Dr. Geebert of England, who are the job.

dier boy.

ing

making a tour of America. 1712 Dodge street. Included in the list of guests were It has been one of the pleasant Mr. and Mrs. A. W .Gordon of Oma-ha, Mr. and Mrs. Dale McAlpine. Mrs. Frank Simpson, Mrs. Charles Davis, Miss Betty Davis, Mr. Holmes and Frank Davis. Bellevue.

Everetts in Missouri, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Everett are enjoying a holiday in Schell City, Mo., where they are entertaining a number of guests at Duck hall, their home to which they go each year during the hunting sea

The early part of the afternoon was levoted to a musical program after

Artists on this occasion were little

-year-old Margaret Smith who played several piano numbers, Miss Mary

Jensen who sang a group of Japanese songs, Alfred Hook, violinist and F.

Theresa Jensen, Miss Coletta Ketcham and Mrs. Leslie Hayes accom-

Personals.

Hayes, baritone, with Miss

Musical Tea. The Daughters of the American Revolution were entertained in a most lelightful manner last Thursday at the home of Mrs. W. S. Stillman, on Miss Gestrude Barstow -Photo by Knicely, Council Bluffs.

At a party given last Friday by Miss Esther Terry, announcement was made in a clever manner of the engagement of Miss Gertrude Eleanor Barstow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs

Guy Barstow of this city, and Fer dinand H. Kruse of Treynor, Ia. Miss Terry asked the 12 members of the "Old Maids'" club and Misses Florence and Lillian Kruse of Mine

Miss Barstow Engaged

ola, Ia., to dress as children and come panists. to her home for a frolic. Fred Hurd made a business trip to Amusement was found with games appropriate for kiddles and late in Springfield, Mo., last week. Miss Alberta Brown of the library staff, left Thursday evening for Chiat the place of each guest was an individual cake, surmounted with a cago to spend a fortnight.

Willow avenue

which tea was served.

tiny lighted candle and a small white Mr. and Mrs. Robert Daniels are of a son who will be named John over a flame, however, the names of Wilson.

Miss Barstow and Mr. Kruse ap-peared, also November 28, 1923, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hurd have as guests Mrs. Hurd's parents, which is the date of the approaching

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. R. Sizer of Corpus Christie, Tex. Dr. R. K. Werndorff was among the physicians from here who attended the medical meeting in Des Moines last week.

Miss Mildred Van Inwegen arrived last week from Chicago where she resides, to winter in Council Bluffs with her aunt, Mrs. Nellie Van In-

To Entertain.

Garretts See Horse Race.

One of the largest dinners to be Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Platner re given this week before the Tuesday cently arrived from Dallas, Tex., where they have been living and will, Dancing club party is the one to which Mr. and Mrs. Pusey McGee in the future, make their home here. and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lindsay Mr. Platner is a former Council have invited 42 couples to the Grand Bluffs man.

wegen.

Mrs. D. C. Trigg and her granddaughter, Helen Louise Robinson of Mrs. Frank Garrett returned last Fort Worth, Tex,, arrived last week week from a three months' visit in to spend the winter with Mrs.

and Mrs. Frank Riker. Two sisters probably be here some time during vember 8, at the Fontenelle hotel ball-

rd Ball Bread

The Sunday Bee: Omaha, November 4, 1923-Community Girls

Soldiers

discontinued, the league has struggled on, a friendly group of business

girls who haven't forgotten the sol-

On Wednesday evening the league will entertain, giving a dance at the Farnam streets, for the benefit of the league, which is now self support-

Patronesses for the affair include

Mesdames Howard Kennedy, Noel

Wallace, E. Mead, Harry Byrne, W.

E. Bolin, J. E. Prichard, D. W. Quin-

by, J .L. Niederst and O. T. Alvison.

Y. W. C. A.

every

Library Chats

Are you interested in ideals? Then know that the ideal book for boys and girls measures just 6x8 3-4 inches and that it is generously illustrated other in color. This is the wisdom at which Wednesday night with open house, Houghton Mifflin company has arand every other Saturday night at a rived only after hours of consulta dancing party, at their headquarters, tion with leading librarles and the educators of the country's youth. A year ago they decided to publish this things which have fallen to the fall the Riverside Bookshelf, includleague to entertain at both these ing eight titles, "Heldi," "The Story weekly occasions many of the men of a Bad Boy," "Two Years Before at the vocational training school at the Mast" and "Ivanhoe," They then In return the hostess at decided to find out by serious in-Bellevue, Mrs. Skelly, has invited the vestigation what the right size for girls of the league to attend their such books should be. The authori-nights, in the school recreation hall, against the very heavy juvenile, and It is interesting to note that the advised something smaller than that, league, organized at the beginning of but larger than a novel. Of course the war by the War Camp Commun- they must be fully illustrated in color. ity service for the purpose of enter. Now the books are through the press Lining" by Masson; "Self Healing taining the men in uniform, is still on and are presented in ideal proportions With government support to the book buyer.

a new novel, "Never the Twain Shall Meet." which shows the author of the Cappy Ricks stories, "The Go-Getter," and "Kindred of the Dust," in an entirely new light. "Never the Twain Kelpine academy, Twenty-fifth and Shall Meet" is a romance of Call-than the true story of a successful life. Many men, including Andrew Carnegic and Edward Bok, have writ-utobiography, "My Garden of Memory," tells of the extraordinary story of a girl from a little Maine village, who found herself while still in her teens, quite hard up, and as far as she knew, possessing no particular gift for anything. How she rose to be one of America's best

Monday—Central Freshman club cab-inet meeting, 8 p. m. Club meeting post-poned because of high school pageant. Y. W. C. A. Federated club night. Sup-per served at 6 o'clock. Any employed firl is welcome. Register at the office by noon Monday. Speaker, Miss Cella Chase. "Topics of Current Interest." Business meeting of clubs, 7:15 p. m.: 'ukelele class, 8:15 p. m.; educational classes, 2 p. m.; Mrs. Anderson's Bible class, Mil-linery, 7:15 p. m.; 'ukelele, 7:15 p. m. Tuesday—Educational classes; supper, Bible class, 6 p. m.; interior decorating, 7:60 p. m.; spanish, 7:00 p. m.; sociology, 7:30 p. m. 130 p. m., Vednesday-Technical Student club meeting, Calvary Baptist church, 3:45 p. a.; Grace Dodge Junior Girl Reserves, Irst Presbyterian church; Mason Junior irl Reserves, Mason school; educational lasses, public speaking, parliamentary aw, drawing, current events.

law, drawing, current events. Thursday-Central Student club, T. W. C. A. club rooms, 3:15 p. m.; "The More the Merrier" club, 4 p. m.; business meet-ing, handcraft, supper, 6:60 p. m. spe-clal speaker; educational classes, Prof. Vartanian's Bible class, expression, per-sonal appearance; Lord Lister student nurses, All Saints parish house, 7:39, reader, Miss Clara McDermand, games and gymnastics. Friday-Benson Student club, 3:15; Vinton Junior Girl Reserves; Edward Rosewater Junior Girl Reserves; 2:15; Alumnae club, dinner and program, 6 p. m.; educational classes, Spanish, mil-liney. Siamese hardwood forest.

Saturday-Junior Get-To-gether, Y. W. A. gymnasium, all Junior Girl Re-

During the month of October the circulation of the library was 700 books The Little Women's club held a

when the naturalist called & truce book contains a chapter describing the work of the pachyderms in a

John Drinkwater's "Robert E. Lee" will take its place with the author's

Where Styles Are

Newer

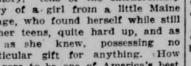

S.E.COR.

of Fine Arts Thursday afternoon, No-

sions throwing into relief those parts of the book which make it so em nently readable. The most popular books of the dances on the alternate Saturday ties they consulted warned them week were: "Up Stream" by Lewisohn: "Life and Confessions of a Psychologist" by Hall; "Eating Without Fears", by Clark; "That Silver

Through Autosuggestion" by Winbigler; "American Nights Entertainment" by Overton; "O Pioneers" by Peter B. Kyne has just published Cather; "His Children's Children" by fornia and the South seas. There are a few subjects of more perennial interest to book readers known women and best loved writers. makes a poignant and inspiring story.

tended. An amateur naturalist recently wrote to Harry L. Foster, taking exception to the statement in "A Beachcomber in the Orient," that the ele phant is the most intelligent of animals. Naturalist and author were just warming up to the controversy, stating that his wife, who had played in the New York Hippodrome with cast which included elephants, had overruled him and confirmed Mr. Foster's opinion. Mr. Foster's new son and Miss Mary Trigg expect to motor up from the south and will

"Abraham Lincoln" as one of the great plays of recent years.

room at 4 p. m., has revived an interostume party on Hallowe'en from 5 their annual poultry party to be and Mrs. Keene Abbott is co-operatuntil 8.

ten the inside story of their rise, but few women. Kate Douglas Wiggin's est in his book which is very popular

"Boswell's Jonson" is one of the most entertaining books in the Eng ish language, but it is of enormous ength, and its good things are embedded in a mass of material that is will read it all, and ask for more, but the ordinary reader passes it by alto-because there is an immense amount gether. In that he makes a mistake in it that he would thoroughly enjoy.

Archibald Marshall, the English novelist, has prepared a shortened edition of the work for the average reader presenting a complete portrait of the great doctor as the admiring Boswell saw him, but by judicious omisnot of universal interest. Boswellians at 10 a. m.

with library patrons.

Recital.

At the piano recital to be given at the Majestic theater on Monday eve ning, November 19, by Matthew H. Slater the program will include works from the following composers

Needs "Father" to Set Example of Neatness and Economy.

"Mary, I do think Rob's a genius even if the girls won't date with him."

"Then why don't you go out with him yourself?" insisted Margaret, the leader of the Hungry Seven, a college girl club.

"Well this is just it," Mar-garet answered. "Not that he isn't the cleverest and best read boy in the senior class, but a fellow has got to look neat to get by with a girl's folks." That boy with his genius is one of the many who need fathers-older men to take an interest in them-to set the necessary example of neatness. Even if you are not a boy's father, you can win his admira-tion and set an example for him to follow. Take an interest in Father and Son week, November 11-18, because you are doing your bit for the citizens of to-

Neatness and a clean-cut appearance do not mean a heavy expense-merely the purchase of clothes of good quality and hav-ing them thoroughly cleaned

To give an accurate assur-ance of thorough work, Dresher Brothers, with nine of the lead-ing cleaners of the country, spend $15,000 every year to maintain a laboratory of scienmaintain a laboratory of scien-tific research at the University of Pittsburgh, where every pro-cess, every appliance and every method used at their main plant, 2211-2213-2215-2217 Farnam street, is scientifically tested.

Dresher Brothers are not only dyers and cleaners, but hatters, tailors, furriers, rug cleaning experts and maintain a cold storage plant for furs, rugs and clothing. Dresher branches are located at Brandeis, Burgess - Nash, Dresher the Tailor, 1515 Farnam street, and on the South Side at 4635 South Twenty-fourth St. Call AT. 0345 or MA. 0050.

Omaha's "Perfect Bread" Is Yours to Enjoy

For more than thirty years we have toiled incessantly through experimenting, research work and tests to give to Omaha a "Perfect Bread." PETER PAN BREAD is the expression of our "ideal" of this "Perfect Bread," made possible through the confidence and help of Omaha's Best Bread Bakers.

PETER PAN BREAD is yours to enjoy. It is Omaha's "Perfect" Bread and is Certified by Good Housekeeping Magazine as one of the very best Breads in all America.

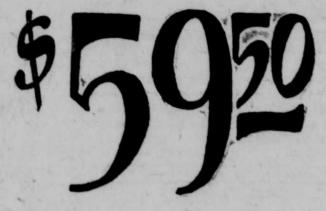

> Order PETER PAN BREAD from your grocer today. Delight the family with the one bread you have helped to make possible.

WHEN YOU THINK OF BREAD, THINK OF ME---PETER PAN

A sale that will thrill all Omaha. Offering an entirely, new group of the highest type fur-trimmed coats obtainable at a price that will command the attention of every woman or miss contemplating the purchase of a winter coat.

Coats exquisitely fashioned of Bonivoine, Francine, Fashionia, Gerona, Lucella and other fashionable deep pile fabrics.

Coats that are richly silk lined and warmly interlined for severest winter weather. Plan now to see these wonderful coats Monday.

Children's Book

Week Nov. 11

A special effort will be made the week of November 11 to create greater inferest in children's literature

among parents as well as the chil-

The children's department at the public library will have a special display of old and new books, books of an older generation and the beauti-

Anyone in Omaha possessing child's book printed years ago is re-

The Woman's Press club is spot

ing this children's book week and a and

Prices

Are

Lower

ful editions of the present age.

child's book printed years ago is re-quested to bring it to the public li-brary for display during that week. A prize of a new child's book will be brary for display during that week. A prize of a new child's book will be brary for display during that week. A prize of a new child's book will be given for the oldest edition displayed. An additional feature will be the costume party for all the boys and girls of Omaha possessing a library card to the children's department: on Saturday, November 17, between the hours of 3 and 5. Only children in children's books will be admitted. These wroup at Yates school met Tues.

Preparations are being made by club committee consisting of Mrs.

the officers of the Columbian club for Henry Doorly, Mrs. Martin Harris

22, at the Burgess-Nash tea room. in creating interest among children.

boille

Ready-to-wear

IGTH & DOUG.

Camp Fire Girls

The regular monthly meeting of the board of directors of Camp Fire Girls will be held at headquarters, Monday, at 10 a. m. Walohi group met Wednesday at Beals school and elected the following officers: Belva Williams, president; Hester Van-Wie, vice president; Betry May Smith, secretary; Roselia Boulden, treasurer; Anna May Mulertz, reporter. Ayan group met Wednesday at the home of Miss Dorothy Johnson and sewed for the Needlework guild. The officers are: Harriett Harris, president; Iris Bal-lard, secretary and reporter; MariegBar-reit, treasurer. Batoca group met Thursday at the Batoca group met Thursday at the iome of Betty and Anne Shea, and re-eived subscriptions for the Fiame, the amp Fire Girls' paper, and discussed cremonial gowns.

Annual Poultry Party.

Fresh From Their Packings These

Magnificent Coats

Enter This Great Monday Sale

One hundred guests at- given Thursday evening, November ing with Miss Edith Tobitt, librarian, Trimmings of Beaver, Fox, Viatka Squirrel, Wolf.